

81st Birthday

RHODA LANDRETH OBSERVED her 81st birthday Thursday, September 30, 1976. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maude Cooper of Vale spent the day visiting with her. She received a telephone call from her son and daughter-in-law, Verle and Ann Landreth from Portland. That evening Mrs. Landreth enjoyed dinner at the home of her son and his wife, Chuck and Alma Landreth and family. Birthday cake and ice cream were also served. Mrs. Landreth said she had such a happy day, it will be one she will always remember.

Potato Princess Serves As Fair Representative

One of four "Potato Princesses" performing public relations chores for the Oregon Potato Commission at the Oregon State Fair in Salem recently, was Kathleen Deffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deffer, Adrian.

Miss Deffer was joined at the fair by representatives of the other three potato raising sections of the state, Culver in central Oregon, Malin in the Klamath Basin and from Hermiston on the Columbia River.

They manned the booth all ten days, serving French fries to all comers and answering questions on potato culture and marketing.

Kathleen really enjoyed herself and talked to persons from every state in the nation including Alaska.

Miss Deffer, a junior computer science major at Oregon State University, has returned to school.

The bridesmaids, wearing pink gowns, carried nosegays of maroon ribbon roses and baby's breath. Bridesmaids were Carolina Mendez, Juanita Hernandez, Rosa Perez and Rebecca Reyes. Groomsmen were Diego Castellano, Ricardo de Luna, Tony de Leon, Jr., James Hernandez, Cruz Martinez, Jose Martinez.

Carrying baskets of red rose petals, flower girls Carmen Mendez and Virginia Martinez wore pink dresses fashioned like the bridesmaids' gowns. The bride's train was carried by Jose Amparan and Steve Martinez. Mrs. Loera chose a lilac crepe dress with a jacket of ecru lace with pastel embroidered flowers. Mrs. Martinez wore a turquoise satin gown fashioned with long sleeves. Both mothers had matching ribbon corsages to compliment their gowns.

Immediately following the nuptials a wedding dinner was held in Dempsey Hall. The reception and dance was held in the Simplot Field House, Caldwell. The wedding party performed the traditional wedding dance to the music provided by the "Republica Mexicana."

Carmen is employed by the State of Idaho Law Enforcement Planning Commission, and Felipe is employed by the Idaho Department of Employment. The couple are residing in Boise.

Why a First Investment Certificate?

Interesting interest is one reason why Case Visser opened a First Investment Certificate, helped by New Accounts Representative Carolyn Cooper.

Because getting ahead is a good feeling.

Opening a First Investment Certificate at First National Bank of Oregon could be one of the best investments you ever make. All you have to do is bring us a minimum of $1,000.

Then, after six years at 7 1/2% annual interest,* we'll give you back $450 on your original $1,000 investment. Invest $10,000, earn $4,500 in six years. First Investment Certificates can be purchased for $1,000 on up to $100,000--at a guaranteed 7 1/2% annually for six years.

The interest on your First Investment Certificate will be sent to you quarterly. Or we can deposit it automatically into any First National checking or savings account. Whatever's easiest for you. With a minimum $4,000 certificate we can even send your interest to you MONTHLY.

Of course, you can invest less money for shorter periods of time, if you wish. Many other plans are available.

The point is, the sooner you invest, the richer you'll be for it. Stop by the Nyssa branch of First National today, and we'll help you get started.

In the business of life there's a list time for everything.
