Grant Union Edges Bulldogs, 16 - 14

The Nyssa Bulldogs lost another close Greater Oregon game Friday at John Day, going down 16-14 to the Grant Union Prospectors. Both teams scored two touchdowns, but the Bulldogs failed to make the two-point conversion on the second.

The Bulldogs also won the statistics battle, 267 to 246, but that only indicates the closeness of the contest.

Greg Moffis was again the leading ground gainer for Nyssa with 114 yards, followed by Dirk Sappe with 52, Alberto Escobedo with 32, and Jim Wilson with 25. Wilson passed for 41 yards, and the Bulldog's defense held GU's Dieker to 106 yards and 12 completions out of 22 tries.

The big pass play, and one that will be talked about for some time, was the Wilson to Don Lawrence pass that didn't count, according to the officials. Ruled incomplete by an official that wasn't in position to see it, Coaches Art Bullock and Max Brittingham protested to no avail. Viewing the game films later confirmed their opinion, but it was a judgment call, and only three officials rather than the customary four were on the field.

Antelopes Defeated By Marsing, 22-12

In what was termed the worst defensive game of the year by Adrian coach Jerry Huntley, the Antelopes went down to a win-hungry Marsing team by a 22-12 score Friday in TVL play.

The Antelopes were hurt when Dirk Miller tallied five fumbles during the game. Miller recovered his fumbles but several Adrian drives were stopped because of them.

Adrian's Paul Shenk scored the first touchdown of the night, going 12 yards up the middle to paydirt.

Marsing, finally getting their game together, scored 22 straight points to put the game away. Adrian managed to put another six points on the board when the Miller-Dale Dennis-Arthur Leos combination pulled off their prized flea-flicker play. Leos went 47 yards for the score.

The leading ground gainer for Marsing was Ralph Robbins with 141 yards in 19 carries. A. Leos lead the Antelopes with 62 yards in eight carries. Shenk had five carries for 51 yards.

In the air, A. Leos caught one for 47 yards while teammate Lupe Leos pulled in three for 29 yards.

Adrian will meet Rimrock Thursday night at the Nyssa field.

Bowl Down Cancer Qualifying Starts

The qualifying round for the annual Bowl Down Cancer tournament will begin in all bowling centers in Oregon, October 24. This popular event is sponsored by the Oregon State Bowling Proprietors' Association as a benefit for the American Cancer Society, Oregon Division, Inc. Top prizes will be two new 1977 Volkswagen sedans for the top man and woman bowler in the tournament.

All league bowlers can qualify by paying fifty cents and beating their average in their third game. They may try as many times as they wish. Last year, 30,000 bowlers out of the 90,000 in Oregon qualified. Total raised for the American Cancer Society was $23,810.48, a big boost to their cancer control program in Oregon of research, public and professional education, patient care and rehabilitation.

Second prize for men and women will be $500 cash followed by 75 other prizes with a total value of over $10,000. All prizes are donated by interested business leaders around the state. Bowlers must qualify between October 24 and November 7. House eliminations advancing on a one to three ratio must be completed by November 21. House finals will be over by December 5 and the state finals will be held at the North Bend Lanes in June, 1977.

With a generous handicap and an excellent collection of prizes, this tournament is specially popular with beginning bowlers. In the past fifteen years this event has raised over $300,000 for the society, by far their greatest money raiser.

Last year's top winners in Oregon were Jill Abraham, Jantzen Lanes, Portland, total score 969, and Bill Hanna, Starlite Lanes, Dallas total 1039.
