

FRENCH COOKING MADE EASY

CHEESE SOUFFLE

Among the most dramatic of French dishes are baked souffles with their golden brown "top hats," fluffy light texture and delicate flavor. Souffles consist of a white sauce and egg yolk mixture to which flavoring ingredients (such as cheeses, vegetables, meat or fish) are added and into which stiffly beaten egg whites are gently folded. The basic white sauce begins with the rich flavor of Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Often accompanied by special sauces, souffles may be served as appetizers, entrees, main dishes or desserts. They must be served immediately.

CHEESE SOUFFLE

- 3 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 cup milk
- 3 egg yolks, beaten
- 1 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
- 5 egg whites

In a heavy saucepan, melt margarine. Blend in flour, salt and cayenne pepper. (1) Cook over low heat, stirring, until mixture is smooth and bubbly. Remove from heat and gradually stir in milk. Return to heat and bring mixture to a boil, stirring constantly. Cook 1 minute longer. (2) Remove from heat; stir in beaten egg yolks. (3) Add grated cheese; stir until almost completely melted. Cool mixture about 5 minutes, beating occasionally with a rotary beater.

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. (4) Carefully fold in cheese mixture. Grease bottoms of ten 6-ounce custard cups or bottom of one 1 1/2-quart casserole; fill with mixture. (5) With spatula, make a slight indentation around top of each souffle, 1-inch from edge. Bake in a slow oven (325°F.) 20 minutes for individual souffles, or 60 to 70 minutes for large souffle. (6) Serve immediately. Makes 10 individual souffles or 1 large souffle.
