

NURSING HOME RESIDENTS AT Malheur Memorial Hospital enjoyed a Halloween Party, hosted by the Adrian Garden Club women last Friday. Pumpkins were decorated

Minnie received a beautiful corsage from the Eagles Auxiliary and birthday cake will be served to all residents in honor of her birthday at the evening meal.

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Presidential election, the biggest news of this week. Farmerette's part, polish up the Hall, Nu Acres polling place, have it nice for election day. Then, get out and vote. Figure my vote is as important as anyone else's in the whole U.S.A. People who don't vote because they don't like any of the candidates are losing out. You can at least pick the one you dislike the least and vote for him!

Neighbors are saddened by the news that Mrs. Ray Kimmis passed away last week. Formerly of Nu Acres, the family lives at Palouse, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Kimmis were the ones who came furthest for the Bicentennial this past summer.

Ever hear of a youngster getting too many teeth? Mrs. Harley Sager said her grandson next door, Rory Van Zelf, age sixteen months, started getting teeth at the age of two months and has added to the collection continually ever since. Last week he was running a 104 fever and still teething, seemingly with pain and difficulty.

A Sunday dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager was Mr. Harold Ernce of Boise.

Rev. and Mrs. Eldred Schneider from Weiser, were supper guests Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Imbler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne recently took a long drive to the high valley, up through Smith's Ferry to Round Valley, and visited a place where they used to live. They got into a bit of snow, she said. Coming home they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Steelman at Eagle.

Sunday night, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leeland Dewey were Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEwen and their daughter, Janie of Payette.

Within two days of each other, two neighbors died this week. Mr. M. A. Jones on Friday and Mr. George Wilson on Sunday. We are especially heavy-hearted for their families, for Mrs. Wilson.

At a recent family dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Imbler, Mrs. Imbler had a chance to visit with her two sisters. Present were Mr. and Mrs. George Gribble and Mrs. Evelyn Tharp of Ontario, the Imblers and Dick's brother, Bob.

It was a joyous occasion last week when Tom Kersey, Spec. 4, United States Army, returned from Germany after a six-month's hitch, and was joined by his wife Jamie and daughter, fourteen-months old Cherry, at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Tom's mother, Mrs. Arvin Kersey, accompanied Jamie and Cherry to the reunion and is now home again in Nu Acres. Tom and his family are now stationed in Fort Carson, Colorado.

News About SERVICEMEN

Harold Nevill

Harold Anderson Nevill, son of the Howard Nevills of Nu Acres, has completed two U.S. Navy submarine schools and reported for ship duty aboard the George Washington, docked in San Francisco. A graduate of Fruitland High School, Nevill also attended the College of Idaho before enlisting in the U. S. Navy.

Nevill recently received the Submarine Force Commendation for having the highest academic average in a class of 72 men in basic submarine school. He also received an award of excellence from the Eastern Connecticut Navy League for submarine school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collins were Saturday overnight and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell at Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boston were Sunday evening visitors in the Waldo Smalley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley visited with Mrs. Mary Nichols of Nampa and with Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Henshaw of Meridian on Wednesday.

Saturday evening, a lot of little masked goblins and ghosts were out trick or treating and having fun doing it at the neighborhood homes.

Allen Bennett and children visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Verl Bishop.

Hazel Ferguson and Helen Bishop attended an Interior Decorating Party at the home of Joyce Davis in Big Bend on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ferguson visited over the weekend in Portland with their daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Krebs, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fritts visited overnight Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Don Fritts and family at Hermiston, Oregon and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tuning at Baker, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Sells and family of Boise spent Saturday all day and overnight visiting in the Ed Sells home.

Governor's Conference on Handicapped in Portland

Nearly 400 Oregonians will meet at Portland State University, Smith Memorial Center, Friday and Saturday, November 12 and 13, to participate in the Governor's Conference on Handicapped Individuals.

The meeting is all part of Oregon's effort to prepare itself for the upcoming White House Conference scheduled for next spring in Washington, D.C.

According to Conference Chairman, Ray Thorne, the meeting will allow handicapped individuals, for the first time, to have direct access into the decision making process on both the state and federal levels regarding laws that influence the lives, families, health and well-being of handicapped people. More specifically, the Conference will discuss the concerns such as health, social, economic, education and special needs.

Governor Bob Straub will be the featured luncheon speaker on Friday noon. On Saturday, Director of the Department of Human Resources, Dick Davis will address the group.

Persons interested in attending the Conference can do so by contacting Art Tassie, State Director of the Governor's Conference on Handicapped Individuals, 315 Public Service Building, Salem, Oregon 97310 or by calling 378-3033.

UP WITH PEOPLE - personnel talked to the Nysa Lions Club Tuesday about the forthcoming performance of this group at Ontario High School Auditorium, November 9 and 10. Pictured are Yollie Urrutia from Alabama and Tom Hodges, Texas.

In their 12th year, the UP WITH PEOPLE casts now number 500 young people in five groups touring the United States, and parts of Europe and Central America.

The Ontario concert is for the benefit of the American Cancer Society and tickets may be purchased at either the First National Bank of the United States National Bank branches in Nysa. Admission is $2.50 for students and senior citizens, and $3.50 for adults. Show time is 8 p.m. both evenings.
