

OUT OF THE PAST

10 YEARS AGO

Staff Sergeant Willis G. Hiatt was recently awarded an Army commendation medal for meritorious service from Jan. 16, 1964 to Oct. 15, 1966.

As a Christmas gift for Richard Lovitt, stationed with the U.S. Navy in Newfoundland, his wife, Linda Moseley Lovitt, presented him with twin daughters, born at 2:30 a.m. Monday, December 12, 1966, at Malheur Memorial Hospital. Julia weighed six-pounds, 13 ounces and Rhonda weighed six-pounds, four-ounces. They join two sisters, Laura, 6 and Valerie, 4.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones of Kent, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lovitt of the Big Bend area. Paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Callahan of Route 1, Nyssa. Dad Lovitt plans to visit his family in Adrian around mid-January when he will arrive home on leave.

26 YEARS AGO

Frank Pratt and Bill Looney were guest speakers at a meeting of the Adrians Lions Club Wednesday evening and the American Legion Monday evening at which time they told of their trip to Boys State last June. The boys were selected by two organizations and were sent to represent the youth of Adrian.

An abundance of Salk vaccine is available for people of all age groups, it was announced this week by Dr. Grant Hughes, county health officer. A commercial drug firm also reported this week that 17 million cc's of the vaccine "are on the shelves going unused."

30 YEARS AGO

The temperature dropped to 14 degrees above zero in Nyssa Wednesday morning, giving this community the coldest weather of the winter.

The water main project that the Nottingham Construction Company of Boise is conducting in Nyssa is expected to be completed by Saturday of this week.

Practically all of the main pipe along the south side of the street had been laid today and laying of the service pipe was progressing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff and son arrived Monday to spend part of the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Wyckoff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Houston Wilson came Wednesday and will also spend the holidays at the Barney Wilson home.

40 YEARS AGO

The windows of the Swan Bakery and the Nyssa Shoe Shop were judged best showing the Christmas spirit in the Commercial Club window contest and in judges opinion were tied for first prize. They split the $5 prize money half and half.

The Swan Bakery displayed cakes, decorated with the Three Wise Men bringing gifts to the Christ child. The Nyssa Shoe Shop displayed a beautiful winter scene, with the Christmas motif.

In a deal completed this week, Chas. Garrison sold his 175 acre farm near Nyssa to Ira R. Ure, E.O. Muir and Clarence Roberts, all of Salt Lake. Mr. Garrison, who with his son Ray, has a ranch at Jamieson, plans to devote his time to farming at that place.

50 YEARS AGO

Opalite, located in an isolated section of the country 20 miles from McDermitt, is the new boom town of Malheur County. "It is a regular city with its new electric lights and splendid highway to McDermitt, built by the Mercury Mining Syndicate of San Francisco" said F.A. Sage, resident of Opalite, who made a trip to the county seat Monday to complete final proof on his homestead. "Over fifty men are employed now and by next spring there will be more. Next year a school will be built so that families may reside near the mine. The mining engineers have estimated that there is four million dollars worth of ore by a very novel process that has been in operation about three weeks.

EMBLEM CLUB ACTIVITIES

Ontario Emblem #192 met in regular session with Claire Jenkins, president, presiding. Reports were given on the workshop at Lincoln City. Eight members from the local club attended.

Plans are being made for installation in March. Lucille Johnson, Past Supreme President, will install all Oregon clubs for Supreme President Dottie Camron. Members assigned to the Nominating Committee are Carol Duncan, Eva Toothaker, Estelle Halbert, Irma Colman and Vera Davis.

Members voted to restore the Presidents Pin, in service for twenty-six years, instead of retiring it.

A cash donation was given to the Rus Anderson family who suffered a fire loss at their home, December 4.

"Good of the Order", the girls attending workshop presented Verna Coffinberry with a gift as she was unable to join them at this time.

Zona Murphy is home after undergoing surgery in Boise. The Past Presidents Party will be held the January Social Meeting.
