

Gold and Rust Decorates Osborn - Dennis Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Dennis

United in marriage at the Adrian Presbyterian Church on November 26, 1976, were Cindy Osborn of Nyssa and Craig Dennis of Adrian. The Rev. Robert Ball, Kingman Presbyterian Church officiated at the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony in the presence of approximately 100 guests.

The church was decorated with mums, daisies and candles in autumn shades of gold and rust. Soloist was Dean Beguhl and music was provided by Mrs. George Schiemer, organist and Miss Libby Miller, piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a traditional gown of white satin and lace. The gown was styled with a square neckline and full bouffant sleeves. Her veil of illusion was held to a lace caplet and she carried a bouquet of spider mums and daisies in shades of gold and rust.

Maid of honor was Miss Carmen Astorica. Matron of honor was Mrs. Leslie Smith, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Miss Claudia Dennis. The attendants wore floor-length gowns of flocked velvet over gold satin and each carried a nosegay of daisies.

Flower girl, Miss Tori Smith, niece of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of brown velvet.

Serving as best man for his brother, was Dale Dennis of Adrian. Ushering the guests were Terry Baker, Nyssa and Mike Osborn of Paterson, Washington.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Osborn, chose a floor-length gown of green with a matching jacket and a white daisy corsage. The groom's mother wore a floor-length gown of floral print with a
