AN M. Patino

Navy Airman Merced A. Patino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margarito R. Patino of Nyssa, was a member of a naval task group which visited Mombasa, Kenya, for the 13th anniversary of Kenya Independence.

The task group was composed of two other ships and two Marine Corps aircraft squadrons, with a combined complement of nearly 2,000 U.S. Navy men and Marines. The four-day, goodwill visit was made at the request of the Kenyan government and provided for a period of rest and refueling after routine fleet operations in the Indian Ocean.

AV-8A "Harrier" jet aircraft from Marine Attack Squadron (VMA)-231, flying from the USS Guam, performed a ceremonial "fly-by" for official celebrations in the capitol city of Nairobi, 250 miles inland. Visitors were welcomed aboard his ship and a special program was set up for Kenyan naval officers and enlisted men to meet with their American counterparts for social and professional exchanges. He and his shipmates also had the opportunity to do some sightseeing in the East African port, including tours of wild game parks and local shopping bazaars.

Airman Patino joined the Navy in November of 1974.

He is serving as a crewmember aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Guam, homeported in Norfolk, Virginia.

CLAYTON GENE WEBB, son of Harry Earl and Donna Webb of Nyssa, was enlisted December 27 into the Coast Guard under the Delayed Enlistment Program by Terry J. Dew, Officer in Charge, Boise recruiting office. Clayton will go active February 21 and be sent to Alameda, California for nine weeks Basic Training.
