Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Snow, at last! The highways are clogged and slippery, schools closed, vacations extended, and kids are exuberantly getting out sleds and blowing up inner tubes for sliding. George is out on his tractor making big tracks so the mail carrier can get through.

So beautiful out, our evergreens plummed and snow painted. To the rear all the black locusts are outlined in stark, white splendor.

About time to take down all the Christmas cards taped all over my kitchen cupboards. All other signs of "the season" have been put away, but with the outdoors looking all that inappropriate.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans had ten days of Christmas, with company coming and going, and a large crowd there for the Day itself. From Kerman, California came Mr. and Mrs. Arlon Schubert and family. Mike Whale came from John Day, and Mrs. Pauline Cairns and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Cronk from Boise.

Margaret Evans said she has been recovering amazingly fast and will be able to be moved to their new home in Cottage Grove when the family goes there to live on January 17.
