Clifford Main, Nyssa contractor, was unanimously elected Mayor of the City Tuesday night following installation of four newly elected councilmen and organization of the council. He will serve during the 1957-58 biennium and succeeds Paul House who was mayor from January 1955, until Tuesday. The new mayor has served on the city council for the past two years, having been elected in November of 1954.

Newly elected councilmen who took office Tuesday night are Grant Rinehart and Gus Liming, elected in November to succeed Hugh Tobler and Tom Jones, who were not candidates for re-election. House and Walker Low were installed as members of the council, both having been elected to succeed themselves last November. Holdover members, in addition to Main, are Orin Sumner and Frank Morris, who complete the seven-man governing body.

A pre-fabricated aeroquad hangar has been erected at the Nyssa airport on the Idaho side of the Snake River.

The hangar was built through the kindness of the public-minded citizens who advance the money for the hangar and its erection. The hangar will be paid for through hangar rentals. The city council and Gordon Smeizer, airport manager, expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the benefactor, whose name was withheld.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stunz left for Portland Wednesday morning on a combined business and pleasure trip. They plan to be gone about ten days.

SUNSET VALLEY - Mrs. Claude Skinner met her daughter, Mrs. Shirley Schutter, at Boise on January 1, where they left by plane for Canon City, Colorado to attend memorial services for their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Violet Barragrec of Canon City. Services were held on January 3 and interment followed at the Canon City Cemetery. They returned home on January 5 after experiencing a few transportation delays.

40 YEARS AGO

One of the coldest sieges to hit the Nyssa country for many years has been causing fuel men to smile, while the general public has been huddled around the red-hot stove and furnaces. According to the official records at the government office, the temperature has been above freezing only twice during the entire month. On the first of January, the mercury climbed to 33 degrees for a short time and again on the 4th, it reached 33 degrees, which is only one degree above freezing.

The low mark of the season for Nyssa was reached last Thursday night when the low of 21 degrees below zero was reached.

50 YEARS AGO

Two stills, hundreds of gallons of mash and about 50 gallons of liquor have been confiscated and three men are under arrest following raids in the vicinity of Huntington and Brogan within a week's time by Sheriff C. W. Glenn, Deputy Charles Leavitt and other special deputies.

The officers located a 50-gallon still only a quarter of a mile from the highway this side of Huntington, Thursday night, equipped with a complete outfit for manufacturing liquor, 450 gallons of mash and about 25 gallons of the finished product. The other still was found in a dugout above Brogan.
