Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dehner

George Dohner comes home from the hospital today. They used to say of little boys that they were a pain in the neck when they were around and a pain in the heart when they weren't! Well, it's kind of true of husbands, too. Not that they're not loveable, neat and good company! But you can't get anything done.

You'd say, boy, what a lot I'd get done if I didn't have to cook that noon meal. How lucky are wives whose husbands are gone all day to work.

But when it's a hospital he goes to, you have a hurt in your throat and a fret in your mind, for not knowing how bad off he is. And you can't get a thing done at home! And when he's on the mend and the worry gone, you start fussing that you can take care of him at home. So now he's coming home today, having been gone since Thursday. Maybe, when I get him tucked into his bed and settled in, I can get some work done around here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bingaman, Christy and Tish, are currently in the area, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans, of Nu Acres, and staying with his mother, Mrs. Vera Bingaman of Fruitland.

The Bingamans are from St. Maries and are moving to Medford where Mr. Bingaman will be employed as an accountant by Boise Cascade.

Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Benzon and children of Fruitland, visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw Sr., Sunday the Benzon family had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw Jr. in their home. Another Sunday visitor in the Bob Jr. home was Mrs. Martha Buttram of Fruitland.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Schneider of Cascade, visited overnight in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Imbler, while enroute to a Minister's Institute at Weiser. They left their children, Kevin and Tammy, with the Imblers while they attended the two-day event.
