ACTIVITIES

Nyssa Trail Busters

We had a meeting at the Nyssa School February 10, 1977. We planned to go on a tour to an Arabian, Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred horse breeders ranch.

We traced Quarter Horses back to their ancestors. We also did Quarter Horse pedigrees by local breeders. Mr. Mel Munn conducted the lecture.

Our club is open to new members and we invite all those interested to come to our next club meeting March 10.

If you're a senior citizen, these services can make your life easier.

At First National, we realize senior citizens have different banking needs. Our answer is to offer services individualized to meet them.

Direct Deposit of Social Security Checks. We know it's not always convenient for you to get to the bank to deposit monthly Social Security checks. So we offer a free Direct Deposit Service, which enables you to have your Social Security check deposited directly into your checking or savings account. Even if your check is late, First National will guarantee the deposit of your check on the date due each month.

You can pay bills and write checks without being concerned about mail delays, being away from home, or having your check lost or stolen. Just call or visit your First National branch, and we'll tell you how to begin.

Senior Citizens Checking. If you are 62 years or over, you're eligible for free checking service with a First National personal checking account. This means the service charges for writing checks, and the monthly service fee, are waived. To start no-fee checking, stop by your branch and verify your age.

Trust Services. A trust plan is an important part of any sound financial management program. A trust may be established to provide family income, to handle your estate, or to settle your will. To find out what a well-managed trust can mean to you, contact your First National branch. We'll be happy to arrange for a Trust Officer to discuss any of our trust services with you.

You'll find these services can do a lot to ease the complications of your life. At a time when you deserve it. Why not talk to us soon and find out.
