

OBITUARIES

Thomas H. Farley

Services for Thomas Henry Farley, 51, Ontario, who died of natural causes Sunday, March 27, 1977 at a Boise hospital, will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Bertelson-Lienkaemper Chapel by the Rev. Tom Nelson, of the Free Methodist Church of Chewelah, Washington. Interment will be in the New Plymouth Parkview Cemetery.

He was born Mary 25, 1925, at Parma. He moved to Nampa at the age of 4, where he attended school through the 8th grade. He moved to Payette, where he graduated from the Payette High School. He entered the Navy in December 1943, served in the Asiatic and Pacific areas and was discharged in 1946. He returned to the Payette-Fruitland area and married Alice Bright June 29, 1947, at Fruitland. They moved to Ontario in 1954, where he operated a cement contracting business. He was a member of VFW Post 5452, Ontario, and the Fruitland Free Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Ontario; two daughters, Mrs. Emerson (Tone) Wright, Harrah, Wash., and Mrs. James (Janie) Houston, Nyssa; a brother, Norman, Fruitland; four sisters, Mary Gardner and Icel Weygandt, both Caldwell, Lulu Connick, Seattle, and Freda Peake, Portland; and eight grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Fruitland Free Methodist Church Building Fund.

Harry C. Bernard

Graveside services for Harry C. Bernard, 68, Parma who died Thursday, March 24, 1977, in a Caldwell hospital were conducted on Monday at the Parma Cemetery, by the Rev. Paul Radon, United Pentecostal Church, Parma, under the direction of Dakan Chapel, Caldwell.

He was born May 20, 1908, in Warren, Minnesota. In 1930, he moved to Parma where he and his father engaged in construction work. He married in 1936 at Parma, where they had lived since. Surviving are his wife, Parma; a son Eugene of Boise and a daughter Harriet Jacques, of Bend, Oregon; and six grandchildren.

Open House Slated

At Rev. Monroes

The Rev. and Mrs. Jim Monroe and Patty invite friends and members of the Nyssa United Methodist Church to an open house at their home, Palm Sunday, April 3, from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Pearl M. Bailey

Pearl M. Bailey, 83, passed away March 19, 1977 in Portland, Oregon. Funeral services were held March 23 at Westlawn Memorial Park in Eugene.

Mrs. Bailey was a former resident of Nyssa. Her husband, Washington O. Bailey, preceded her in death in 1950.

Surviving children are Eva Kight, Central Point, Ore., Martha Gwyn, Moses Lake, Washington, Earl Bailey, Norwalk, California, Leon Bailey, Portland, Oregon and Lawrence Bailey of Brazil. She is survived by 17 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Leodis Banks

Services for Leodis Banks, 57, Ontario, who died of natural causes, Thursday, March 24, 1977, in a Boise hospital, were conducted Tuesday at the Bertelson-Lienkaemper Chapel, Ontario by the Rev. Ron Eldridge, First Christian Church. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

He was born April 24, 1919, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and was reared there. He lived in the state until 1949 when he moved to Arizona where he lived until 1954. He then moved to Caldwell and eight years later moved to Ontario.

Surviving are ten sons, five daughters; one brother; 32 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son and three grandchildren.

Malheur Butte Baptist Church

The Malheur Butte Baptist Church is presenting "How Should We Then Live" April 3 to April 10 at 7:30 p.m. each weekday night and at 7 p.m. on Sundays. This is a 30 minute film series on the plight of mankind from the first century church age to 1977, taken from Dr. Francis Schaeffer's book.

There are ten-30 minute film segments comprising of Roman Age; Early Church; Dark Ages and The Church; Renaissance; and Reformation.

In addition to the films each week night, two short Bible studies will be offered entitled "Walk Worthy of the Vocation Wherein You Are Called" and "Walk In The Spirit."

A tremendous opportunity to start the Easter worship services and also to impress on our minds the meaning of Easter.

LDS General Conference Sessions To Be Aired

The 147th Annual General Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (the Mormons) will be broadcast Saturday, April 2 and Sunday, April 3 at 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Members of the two Nyssa and Owyhee Wards will be able to hear all six conference sessions by dialing 950 AM on the radio to Boise Radio Station KBRJ. The conference which originates in the historic Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, will feature addresses by the general officers of the church and music by the world renowned Salt Lake Mormon Tabernacle Choir. Spencer W. Kimball, president of the nearly 4-million member Church, will preside over the conference.

First Southern Baptist Church

The First Southern Baptist Youth Choir of Fruitland, Idaho, has started practicing for the Easter program. The Youth Choir can be heard on April 10 at the Easter Sun Rise Service. They will also participate in the 11 a.m. worship service that morning.

The women of the church have started meeting in the homes on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 a.m. for lessons on crocheting. Mrs. Art Farrell will be the instructor. She asks that the women bring their own croch hook and yarn. All interested persons are welcome to come. The first meeting was held at the home of Wanda Kilby.

The "Kids for Christ" Bible Club visited Marion Richey last Wednesday evening. Mr. Richey is recuperating from recent surgery and has not been able to come to church so he especially enjoyed the songs and fellowship with the kids. Mr. Richey prepared popcorn for the group. Karla Belvoir is leader of this group and kids of the community are welcome to come.

Nyssa's labor camp was given high praise for improvement in facilities and maintenance by the Malheur county health department following a recent inspection and preliminary survey of facilities.

A majority of the families now here are from Texas and have spent the summer season at the Nyssa camp for the past several years. Most of the workers are now employed in strawberry and hop fields and at other farm jobs in the area. By the latter part of April approximately 1000 more workers are expected from California and will be housed at various labor camps in the area. A total of about 2500 will be in the area where camps are located from Caldwell to Weiser. It is expected that more workers will be in the area than in past years because of the increasing sugar beet acreage for both Malheur county and beet growing sections in Idaho.

Land owners who hold more than 160 acres of land under the Vale and Owyhee Irrigation projects, will be required to enter into a contract to offer for sale their excess holdings before water will be supplied to them by the government. This was a provision under the new reclamation laws, under which the government agreed to build the Vale and Owyhee projects, and was a matter for consideration by Davis & Lytle, attorneys for the Vale District, and at a conference in Nyssa relative to Owyhee project this week.

Weavers And Spinners Meet

Fourteen men and women attended the organizational meeting of a Weavers and Spinners Guild, held at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church on March 3 in Ontario.

Interest of the group is about evenly divided between weaving and spinning, and the members are both accomplished craftsmen and beginners.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 6, at the Warren Sapp residence at Fruitland from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Any interested person is welcome to attend. Bring a sack lunch. The meeting will be devoted to spinning. Members will be bringing spinning wheels, drop spindles and materials to spin.
