

APRIL ARTIST OF THE MONTH at the Nyssa Public Library is Barbara McClung. She has a variety of artwork on display—including tole painting and Russian embroidery. She learned the art of Russian embroidery in Woodburn, Oregon, where she took classes from some Russian immigrants who had settled there. While this art looks very complicated, Barbara claims it is an easy craft to learn, once you get the feel of it. Of particular interest in the display, is a child's blouse, (shown above) which has been embroidered with red hearts. Among her other hobbies are sewing and crocheting, and most crafts.

Barbara and her husband, Clyde and two children, Randy and Lyndia, are new residents of Nyssa, where Mr. McClung is manager of Les Schwab Tire Store.

This display may be seen during regular library hours throughout the month of April.

Bill Webbs Travel In Trailer

By Dale Witt

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Webb left February 27 with their pickup and trailer and headed for Death Valley. They saw Titus Canyon, a one-way road over the high mountain pass in California. It was the worst road they had driven, it was steep with lots of curves. It went past the old mining ruins. The canyon was beautiful with large orange and yellowstone rocks. It took three hours to make the 40-mile drive through the canyon.

They went to Stove Pipe Wells and to Furnace Creek where they saw the George Cartwrights of Adrian and some of their friends.

They camped at Texas Springs in Death Valley and took the Golden Canyon drive and saw Artists Palate. The Pupp fish there adapted themselves to Salt Water and were two and one-half inches long.

Their next stop was Boulder City where they visited Bill's sisters, Beulah Wahlman and Hazel Frieth and a niece Helen Ann who was visiting from Oklahoma City. They took the Webbs to MGM in Las Vegas. The group enjoyed brunch one morning and could eat all they wanted plus banana pie, all for $4 per person.

Their next stop was Bouse, Arizona where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kurtz former Newell Heights residents. Thelma and Jake Borge also former Newell Heights residents were visiting too.

Next they went to London Bridge at Havasu City in Arizona. They followed the Cold River to Davis Dam and camped below the dam. Then they went to Parker Dam on the Colorado River. Mr. Kurtz had told them to stop at Quartz Site and see the monument built in the cemetery in honor of the man who brought the camels there.

Yuma was next and they crossed the Colorado River and picked oranges. They went through Arizona Territorial Prison which is abandoned. They saw elk, the adobe well and learned about the treatment of the prisoners. They saw the cells, clothes the prisoners wore and things they made.

They camped at Lake Powell which is behind the Grand Canyon Dam. Bill took the road over "Top of the World" on highway 89 out of Page, at Knab he took highway 18 over a high mountain pass, elevation

Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

Easter Week. With all the churches planning special music for the joyous occasion Christian Life Fellowship, at old Park Plaza, has been having choir practice for two and three times a week. Tie up the time, energies and enthusiasm of some thirty to forty teenagers, with a few of us elderly sprinkled in, and combine with the consecrated talent of Wanda Lehmkuhl, for a leader, and some exciting, lovely music is the result.

Oh, and accompanying are three flutists, a drummer, a guitarist, and a pianist, all Good. Going to have to tape it all on Easter. The sermon will be interspersed among the musical numbers, like a musical tapestry. Can hardly wait.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne went for a two-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fortin of McCall last week. Enroute home they drove over to White Bird. Alice said the plum trees and forsythia over there were all in bloom. At White Bird. At McCall it was snowy and snowing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Redimonti from Los Molinos, California visited the Paynes last Thursday on their way home from a trip to Spokane.

Carol Weaver said the best news from their farm is that husband Dave has quit trucking and settled back into farming for the summer.

Visiting Vesta Wilson Thursday was Pauline Hart from Vale. Mr. Alden Bryan from Fruitland was also by, she said. He brought the sad news that his wife is ill. I mention this so her many friends of Farmerette days here in Nu Acres will visit or send cards. Might perk her up.

Those baby chicks in the back bedroom are so big and smart it's hard to believe they're less than a month old. If summer doesn't come soon they'll be laying eggs in my dresser drawers and perching wherever they please.

It was a family evening at the Cecil Evans' home last Monday, when son Roy and his wife came by on their way to their new home up north, at Worley on Lake Coeur d'Alene.

9900 feet. They pulled their trailer over a narrow road with deep snow on either side. They went to Cedar City, saw Cedar Breaks National Monument.

The visited the largest Ghost Town in the United States at Tezogoat and saw the museum. The buildings there are being made into gift shops and other shops of interest.

The University at Clarksdale, Arizona has a grant to study the people who lived there at 1125 to 1400 A.D. They built large dwellings in the mountains and some had a fire in the lower part with smoke stack and no windows.

Leaving Death Valley they stayed at the junction and went to Amargosa Opera House and saw Marta Becket perform.

The worse weather they had on the whole trip was between Mountain Home and Boise on their way home Saturday. They had driven three thousand miles and had a very interesting trip but it was nice to get home.

First National Loan Officer June Debban discusses FirstLoan financing plans for a home improvement project with customer Wilton Jackson.

FirstLoan. A comfortable loan for a comfortable home.

What does it take to make a more comfortable, livable home? Well, sometimes it takes a new paint job... sometimes a new kitchen... maybe a new roof...perhaps an extra bedroom.

One thing is for sure, improving your home takes money.

One way to get the money you want for a home improvement project you have in mind is with our FirstLoan. Because it's simple interest, you're only charged interest on the amount you actually owe each month...only for as long as you owe it.

The sooner you make your payments, or the more you pay each time, the less interest you end up paying. And that can add up to a tidy savings. There's an interest charge, but no penalty charge, for late payment.

So, if you need money help to fix up or remodel your home, the answer is simple... a simple-interest FirstLoan from your friends at the Nyssa branch of First National Bank of Oregon. Come by and visit us soon.

There's a 1st time for everything.
