Malheur PTSA

State and national conventions were discussed at a recent meeting of Malheur County PTSA Council presided by Betsy Wrinkle. Money was voted on to send two delegates to the State PTSA Convention in Ashland April 21-22, and to send Virginia Cleaver, Region VII vice-president, to the National PTA Convention in Anaheim, California, May 15-18.

Virginia Cleaver reported on the new rules for nominating national officers and on the Oregon Convention and National Convention.

Money raising projects were discussed and dues from local PTA units were to be sent to the State PTSA.

The next Council meeting is planned for May and will be presided over by the new president, Doris Ballantyne.

During halftime fifth and sixth grade girls divided into two teams, with the winning team gaining a 8-4 victory. Winning members were Nellie Galindo, Sonia Gonzales, Sheila Welch, Linda Hernandez, Tammy Page, Connie Thiel, Linda Vielma, Terry Carpenter and Sheryl Ray. Other girls participating were Mike Thiel, Janice Rodriguez, Sandra Herrera, Shelly Mills, Patty Longoria, Elizabeth Garza, FENA Marrez, Lisa DeLeon, Dezra Bones, Julie Sarazin and Yolanda Urrutia.

Roger Blaylock Named FFA Master Mechanic

Roger Blaylock was named Master Mechanic at the FFA Shop Skills Contest held at Treasure Valley Community College, Thursday, April 14. He won this honor by having the highest score of 30 members from six schools competing in the areas of Arc Welding, Oxy-acetylene welding, Blue print reading, Electricity, and Farm leveling. In individual skills areas he placed third in acetylene welding; second in blue print reading; and first in electricity.

Kelly Garner placed second in electricity and tied for third in farm leveling. Others competing on the advanced team from Nyssa were Greg Thiel, Pat Sims, and Lynn Kesler. The combined scores from all of these boys in all areas of skills competition enabled the Nyssa advanced team to place second. The advanced skills contest was won by Baker, followed by Nyssa, Burnt River, Adrian, Vale and Ontario.

In the Beginning Shop Skills Contest, Mike Williams from the Nyssa team placed third in overall competition which consisted of Arc Welding, Oxy-acetylene Welding, Tool Conditioning, Farm Carpentry, and Tool Identification. Mike Williams was first in Arc Welding competition and Scott Kesler was third out of 30 competing boys. Scott was also second in Oxyacetylene Welding. Mark Goodell placed first in Farm Carpentry. Other members on the beginning team were Carl Simpson and Korlin Tanner. Their overall scores enabled the beginning team to place second. The contest was won by Baker with Nyssa second, Adrian third, Ontario fourth, Burnt River fifth, and Vale sixth.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to say a special thank you to all who helped in any way to make this year's March of Dimes Walkathon so successful. I am most grateful and thankful to Sherri McArthur, Toqua Linegar, Jackie Chadwick, Kathy Beattie, Donna Blackburn Alberta Morrow, Doni Adams, Dwayne Ulrey and Elvy Madrid, Dale Schraufnagel, all the Nyssa and Adrian merchants who donated prizes, the Amalgamated Sugar Company for the sugar, the Gate City Journal for the publicity, the City of Nyssa for the park facilities and the Conservative Baptist Church for the use of their kitchen facilities, and to all those who pledged and all those who walked.
