

Mother's Day

God took the pureness - from a rose,
And softness - from the clouds above;
He blended - with each sacrifice
And formed - a Mother's love.
Mother - is a mixture - of patience,
Hope and pain,
Dazzling - and shining with purity
She reigns,
She is kind - and understanding - so sweet
And enchanting.

Crown her Queen for Mother's Day

For each sacrifice - she made,
Wrapped in love - tied with blue
This day - especially for you.
God took calmness - from a gentle brook
And patience - for a start,
He added faith - and gratitude
And a Mother's heart.
The mountain sprigs - are sprayed with spring,
A little red-bird that loves to sing;
Soft green moss - that decks the hills,
The Queen of Hearts - her life so filled,
Mother's a picture of helplessness and fear
Filled with resourcefulness - when trouble is near,
A deep - secure - feeling of being needed
An Angel of love - always believing,
A soft white rose - we'll wear - today
In memory - of the love - she gave,
With her smile - and tender care
We'll not forget - her silent tears.
We'll wear a red rose - let Mother see
She reigns supreme - as a Royal Queen,
She'll touch the brow - that burns with pain
And soothes the heartache - of a fragile love - game.
She's the Queen of Hearts
Where decisions - are made,
A chancellor - or armor
In her own special way....
HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY.
