Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyn Dohner

The 4-H sloppy-jo supper at the Community Hall was their biggest success yet, Carol Weaver said, with over three-hundred people served and plenty of food right up to the end.

The youngsters outdid themselves in decorating. In addition to a large display of trophies and ribbons, they showed some projects completed and implements for animal care. On top of the piano were two big masses of sheep wool, a dark and a light.

A large doe rabbit with a family of four bunnies, a project of Debbie Sheffield, was the only live display there.

Door prizes won were a dressed-out turkey, by Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Sutton, and two yards of gravel by Layman Sheffield.

Mrs. Dave Breeding of Clearwater visited over the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fischer. While there she attended the supper at the Hall with the Fischers. She said she particularly enjoyed going and meeting so many neat people.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Payne had dinner Sunday at Eagle with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Speilman. That afternoon the men went to the Boise Fairgrounds to a gun show. Visiting the Dave Weavers this week has been her mother, Mrs. Lorete Hamlow of Boise. She will return for Mother's Day with the family, Carol said.

Wednesday the Farmerette Club met at the Community Hall armed with paint rollers and trays, brushes and paint, and goodies for a potluck dinner. So now the interior of the Hall has been transformed and renewed with a lovely coat of avocado green.

Spring Fair at Fruitland is coming up, May 13-14. Many Nu Acres children will be involved, with the projects and in the parade, so expect just everyone will go.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Neilsen from Olympia, visited his mother, Mrs. Effie Neilsen Saturday, while enroute to Salt Lake on a business trip. Visiting her until they return will be their poodle, B-Gee.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Kersey went on their big Honda with the group of bike riders Sunday on the "loup" trip, up through Cascade to New Meadows and down the other side. They said it was a nice trip and they missed the storm.

Visitors last week, Thursday through Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ballard were old friends from Hayden Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tate.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grasmick were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schuster of Fruitland. That afternoon Mr. and Mrs. George Grasmick visited. Guests that day from Ontario were Mrs. Mary Lou Burt and Billy and Mrs. Darlene Jenkins and Rickie.

Mrs. Richard Imbler and daughter, Tempy were entertained at dinner Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Evans at Kuna.
