Doritys Celebrate 40th Anniversary

In celebration of their 40th Wedding Anniversary, Peg and John Dority were honored at a family dinner March 30, 1977 and an open house at the Eagle's Hall on Saturday, March 31.

John and Peg were married March 31, 1937, in Ogallala, Nebraska. The couple lived in Ogallala until 1940 and then moved to Bremerton, Washington for three years. John Dority worked in pipe welding and construction until they came to Nyssa in 1945. John and his brother, Joe, owned and operated Dority Machine and Welding for 15 years. In 1961, the Doritys opened Dority Bee Boards.

John and Peg have eight children and eight grandchildren. Their children, Jerry and Kathy Dority and their children John and Joane of Kennewick, Wash.; Don and Jody Dority of Eugene, Oregon; Patricia Frender and her children Patrick and Monica of Vancouver, Wash. Patrick and Carol Dority and their children Roxanne and Roger of Portland; Jim and Kathleen Casey and their children Bernice and Jay of Ceres, Calif.; Margaret Dority of Canby, Ore.; John and Mary Ann Elguezabal of Nyssa; and Anna Dority of Nyssa, were all present to celebrate the occasion.

Serving the cake and the refreshments at the Open House were Betty Walters, Marge Shuster, Eileen Bosseman and Marge Jackson. The guests were able to browse through a table of memories of the Dority family. The memoirs included the marriage certificate of Peg and John, pictures of the family, and a poem written by Kathleen Casey about the Dority family. Guests also contributed to a money tree which was set up as surprise gift for John and Peg. Marge Finley was the attendant at the tree.

Out-of-town relatives included the sister of Peg and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dority, from Bremerton, Washington, who is the brother of John Dority; Ollie Wood of Nampa, cousin of Mr. Dority; and Milton Dye and son of Sunnyville, California; also cousins of Mr. Dority.

GRANGE NEWS

Oregon Trail Grange

Oregon Trail Grange members met in regular session Thursday evening, May 5, with Master Harold Kurtz presiding.

In a discussion of the 'wild' horse problem and ways of reducing their numbers in Malheur County, it was brought out that the ownership rules set up by EPA was one of the factors causing people to refuse to accept a horse as a boarder. Ownership is prohibited, but the offspring would belong to the host. In view of the lack of water and the poor range conditions, competition between the so-called wild horses and beef cattle is serious.

Master Kurtz reminded members of the Special Election May 17. Ballot measures were studied.

The next regular meeting will be held May 19, 8:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Committee of Women's Activities Oregon Trail Grange

Members of the CWA Club of Oregon Trail Grange met at the home of Ellen Jones, Tuesday, May 3.

The devotional, "These Things I Know" was read by Orma Cleaver.

Betty Kurtz reminded members that prizes for the games at the Nursing Home were still needed. Small gifts such as earrings, pins, hand lotion, small plants, any small, useful or pretty article.

Chairman Lois Boenig requested members to turn in hearing aid batteries and old eye glasses so that they could be sent to State Grange by June 13.

Refreshments were served by co-hostess Mira Atherton.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 7, 2 p.m. at the home of Sadie Metcalf with Jane Ballou as co-hostess. All Grange women are welcome.

Marriage Announced

Mrs. Alberta Morrow of Nyssa received a son-in-law for Mother's Day when her daughter, Roberta, and Jerry Coatney both of Boise were wed in the Idaho city on Saturday, May 7. The new Mrs. Coatney is a 1973 graduate of Nyssa High School.
