State Grange Officers and Grangers from all over Malheur County were guests at a banquet at the Vale Grange Hall, May 4. The banquet was sponsored by the Lecturer's of the seven Granges in Malheur County and Malheur Pomona Grange Lecturer Sharon Mahan, was mistress of ceremony.

The banquet started at 7 p.m. with a roast beef dinner...followed by a program that each grange took part in. The program consisted of the pro's and con's of milking goats in the winter - Big Bend Grange; farm sales from way back when - Ontario Heights Grange; several mini-skits - Oregon Trail Grange; a tribute to grange - Boulevard Grange; a puppet show - Vale Grange; and a tableau depicting (grange) is for the family of any and all ages - from Malheur Pomona Grange.

Guests from out of Malheur County were Oregon State Grange Master, W. C. Harris, and his wife; Oregon State Grange Lecturer, Ruth Evans; Oregon State Grange Deputy Russ Evans; Oregon State Grange Insurance Director Bill Ross and his wife; and Baker county Deputy Bob Coble and his wife.

Each of the guests from out of this county spoke. Oregon State Grange Master, W. C. Harris spoke on the importance Grange has in the government and our everyday lives. Master W. C. Harris has been attending the Oregon State Legislature meetings and spoke on several bills he felt were important to us in Malheur County and the state of Oregon.

Malheur Pomona Grange Master Blaine Girvin, spoke at the end of the evening, expressing his appreciation of the work and participation the granges took in the banquet.

Malheur Pomona Grange Lecturer Sharon Mahan, said "I would like to thank everyone for their presence and all the help I was given in putting on this banquet. A special thank you goes to the State Officers that attended, and to the Vale Grange for hosting it. Thank you Wilbur Atherton for taking the wonderful pictures, and Ellen Jones for being my right hand through the planning. The banquet was a great success with 83 present for the dinner and fellowship.

PINOCHLE PARTIES

The Pinochle Party at the IOOF Hall which was to be held Saturday evening, May 28, has been cancelled due to the Memorial Day weekend.

MANAGING YOUR MONEY

Average Investor Profits From Free Booklet

More and more investors are learning about and profiting from a wide range of investment opportunities that are explained in a booklet that is free for the asking.

The booklet, called "ABT Markets and Investment Mediums," describes the many unique markets, investment mediums and services available at the American Board of Trade, the nation's foremost exchange and marketplace geared to serve the average investor at the grassroots level.

FREE FOR THE ASKING - A booklet for the average investor explains a unique new market.

From commercial paper, previously available only to large investors, and U.S. Treasury Bills in small denominations, to gold, silver, silver coins, foreign currencies in small lot sizes, as well as fully managed accounts, the booklet explains in easy-to-understand language many investment mediums that have not been previously available to the general public.

Not surprisingly, since 1969, the ABT has offered highly competitive prices in all its markets and has efficiently served thousands of customers throughout the country. Those investors who wish a free copy of the booklet, "ABT Markets and Investment Mediums," may write to: The American Board of Trade, Inc., 26 R.A. Fifth Ave., New York, New York 10001.
