GRANGE NEWS

Oregon Trail Grange

Members of the CWA Club of Oregon Trail Grange met Tuesday afternoon, June 7, at the home of Sadie Metcalf.

The devotional, "A Prayer For Peace" by Helen Steiner Rice was read by the hostess.

Chairman Lois Boenig reported that 45 pairs of old eye glasses for the "VOSE" Volunteer Optometric Service to Humanity program had been collected and she expressed her thanks to all who had contributed.

The program will be continued and there is an urgent call for glasses for children. Glasses are mailed to Oregon State Grange from Oregon Subordinate Granges and will be sent from there to the Kansas Optometric Association and Foundation for distribution. The donated eye glasses will be prepared and labeled so as to identify the lens prescription and will be prescribed optometrists and ophthalmologists to needy people in foreign countries.

Sadie Metcalf reported that volunteers were needed to help with a therapy program at Malheur Memorial Hospital on Monday and Friday.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostess Dinah Bishop.

The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, 2 p.m., October 3, at the home of Orma Cleaver with Thelma Parr as co-hostess. All Grange women are welcome.
