

Couple United In LDS Temple Ceremony

Repeating vows Friday, May 6, 1977 at the Salt Lake Temple were Charlotte Christensen of Hines, Oregon and Roderic Wells Lewis of Nyssa. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Elder Wilford W. Kimball.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Christensen of Hines, Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. Tom (Dorothea) Mitchell of Nyssa.

A wedding reception in honor of the newlyweds was held in the Burns L.D.S. Church. The Cultural Hall was decorated in the bride's color scheme of mint green, apricot and yellow with baskets of gladioli, mums, daisies and greenery.

The bride designed her own wedding dress. The gown was a white satin dress with chiffon overlay styled with a lace princess collar. Individual reembodyered lace flowers were in applique on the dress. The gown was fashioned with a full skirt and a chapel train. The long chiffon sleeves were enhanced with cuffs of lace and satin buttons. Her full length mantilla veil was trimmed with lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of yellow mums, white daisies, baby breath and fern. The bride's attendants were Maid of Honor, Dixie Christensen, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids Lisa Lumatta, Cindy Lawrence, Debbie Kahn, of Burns, Cammy Pryse, of Baker and Sue Bergmark of Rochester, New York. They wore matching floor length gowns of mint green, apricot and yellow. Each carried mini cascading floral pieces matching the bride's bouquet. In their hair was a tiara made of fresh mums and daisies.

Serving as best man was Craig Hiatt of Vale wearing a mint green tuxedo. Lori Lewis, sister of the groom was at the guest book.

A program was given in honor of the newlywed couple with Tom Christensen, brother of the groom a master of ceremonies.

Background music was provided during the evening by Mrs. Anita Cornwall.

The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of mint green knit accented with matching lace. Mother of the groom was attired in a floor length mint green polyester crepe. Their corsages were white rose buds and yellow daisies.

At the reception table were Mrs. Janice Bowers, of Parma, Idaho, sister of the groom and Nadine McKinnis of Burns. Assisting were Dorothy Gonn, Laree Jansen, Margaret Tenant and Mary Huffaker at the gift table.

The bride and groom honeymooned in San Francisco, after which an open house was held in their honor for relatives and friends at the groom's parental home. A decorated wedding sheet cake was served by Mrs. Robert Wilson, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Don Bowers, sister of the groom, assisted by Mrs. Judy Martin, cousin of the groom and Brenda and Barbie Bowers, nieces of the groom.

The bride is a 1974

graduate of Burns High School and represented Harney County at the Miss Oregon Pageant that year. She will be attending Brigham Young University this fall as a senior majoring in Nutrition. The groom is a graduate of the 1973 Nyssa High School class and will be a junior this fall at BYU majoring in Pre Med. He served a two year mission in Hokkaido, Japan for the L.D.S. Church.

The young couple are making their home in Nyssa for the summer.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 33 met June 22 with Whitney Morrison, honored queen presiding.

Escorted and introduced were Lynn Campbell past honored queen of Bethel No. 56, Auburn, Washington; Vera Webb, guardian and Louise Wernick, past guardian, Donna Hutchinson, director of paraphernalia all of Bethel No. 33.

Jeanie Sword reported on the DeMolay dance. Kelly Mills reported on the first day of Grand Session. Karen Hutchinson reported on the second day and Terri Carpenter on the third day. Irene Teague reported on the last day and the trip home. Barbara Holmes was drawn as Grand Bethel Guide for the coming year. Girls will attend DeMolay installation on Sunday, June 26 in Ontario at 7 p.m. A yard sale has been planned for later in the summer.

Scrapbook chairmen Jackie Chadwick and Jeanie Sword under the supervision of Lynn Campbell will record and maintain a book from now until Grand Session next year and will then enter Bethel No. 33's scrap book in competition.

While at Grand Session, Jackie Chadwick received an award for the best article in the 6th Messenger Jobie paper.

Guardian served cookies and punch.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all who gave me their support through their prayers, their gifts and their attendance at the service in which I was ordained. A special word of thanks to my family, Ann and Patty, for the bolstering uplift they provide. Also, a special thank-you to the friends and members of the Nyssa U.M.C. Our shared ministry in the service of God is a treasured gift.

Grace & Peace,
Jim Monroe

SMOKING IS A DYING HABIT

Willow Creek

By Lavon Carrier

WILLOW CREEK - The Pioneer Club ladies met last Thursday for their regular monthly meeting. They met at Mary Strode's home, with Ethel Hill as co-hostess, to the 16 members and one visitor who attended. Mrs. Maude Cooper of Vale gave a talk on Vista. They discussed plans for the bazaar that the Club will have this fall. This was the last meeting until September.

Visiting at the Sam Stumps home on Monday and Tuesday was their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wharton of Coos Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holland of Oregon City.

The Willowcreek Cub Scouts took part in the Scouts Olympics that were held in Parma on Saturday. The boys competed in several races, broad jump, push ups, sit ups, baseball throw and discus throw. Boys that went to this were Ricky Duncan, Eric Anderson and Robbie Carrier. They were accompanied by Hannah Duncan and Lavon Carrier. Mrs. Doy Ferguson also attended the Olympics to watch her grandson from Nyssa, as he competed in the events.

Rodney Wilson went to The Dalles on Sunday and Monday, with the Vale FFA judging team. The Vale team came in sixth place out of 26 schools participating. On Thursday, the judging team went to Union, where they came in fourth place in judging.

Roberta Potter received word that her father, Guy Eaton, had passed away on Monday, while vacationing in Sacramento. Roberta and daughter, Daisy Stevens went to the funeral services in Tacoma on Saturday.

It was a nappy birthday for M.J. Blackburn on June 9 when he celebrated his 99th birthday, at a party in his honor at his home. Over 50 relatives and neighbors came that evening for birthday cake and homemade ice cream. Mr. Blackburn had a table on display that he had made from a large piece of wood, a candle holder, and a walking cane with carvings in it. Mr. Blackburn keeps himself busy with many hobbies.

Also celebrating birthdays this past week was Rodney Wilson, who was 17 years old on June 13. Birthday cake was served that afternoon at his grandparents home, the Harmon Potters.

Blanche Fulleton celebrated her 81st birthday on June 15. That evening, the Russell Fulletons hosted a birthday party, with the Bob Butler family coming out from Vale, for birthday cake and ice cream.

Jon Hall returned home on Monday, after spending four months studying at the Bible Institute at Jackson, Michigan. He will leave on Tuesday for more training in Florida.

Sympathy goes to the family of Ruth Hall, who passed away on June 11 in Ontario. Mrs. Hall had lived in our community for a number of years, before moving to the Vale nursing home in 1969. She was a retired school teacher and was the last teacher to teach at Malheur City. Relatives that came for the funeral on Wednesday were Dave and Vi Hall of Quincy, Washington; Mildred Hall and Janet Orlowski from Sacramento; Wanda Hall and daughters from Homedale; Marge Walker of Kettle Falls, Washington; Rose Deardorff from Montana; Paul and Betty Funk of New Plymouth; Norman and Ethel Wood of Powell, Wyoming; Kathy Hall of Burns; Ed and Cindi Hall of Ontario; and Velma Kramer. All of the family met at the Doug Hall's home for dinner, after the services.

Eulalia Curl went to Portland on June 3, where her grandson Ronald Curl graduated from Benson High School. There were 365 graduates, with only four girls graduating. They went to Lloyds Center, where they saw a number of floats on display. She had dinner one evening with a niece while in Portland. They all had graduation dinner with Sharon Curll's parents, the Barney Phipps. Eulalia returned home on June 14.

Visiting at the Charles Towell home Friday evening and Saturday, were Bill and Marie Calicott from Springfield. The Calicotts were on their way to Arkansas for a vacation.

Mrs. Dale Frank and girls came over from Boise, to spend Father's Day at the Harmon Potters. Dale returned to work on Sunday, after being hurt in a wreck almost two months ago.

Now that the well and electricity are in, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wimer are getting settled, for the present, in their travel trailer. They recently bought some land from Bill Elferings. Their daughter, Bobbi Wimer of Hayward, has been here visiting her parents.

Millie and Ski Nowakowski repeated their wedding vows on Sunday, June 5 (which was their wedding anniversary), at the Catholic Church in Vale. A social hour was held following the ceremony, with 40 guests and all of the family attending. This was held at the American Legion Hall. Their families that came for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Aydelott and daughter Dee Dee of Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Aydelott and son Jeffrey of Hayward; Larry Nowakowski of Lake Tahoe; Shirley Breckenridge and daughter Renae of Lake Tahoe; Rex Stacey of Baker; Joe Jones of Boise and the Bill DeSmids from Willowcreek.

Newell Heights Items

By Dale Wier

NEWELL HEIGHTS-Mrs. Marie Moore of Adrian was a Saturday evening visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pratt Sr. were dinner guests of their son Burdette and Kathy Pratt west of Nyssa one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren of Parma and Mrs. Annetta Warren of Turner, Montana were Thursday afternoon visitors of the former's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Topliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson left June 4 with her nephew Mr. and Mrs. Paul Love and daughter of Mt. Rose, Colo. on a trip to Vancouver, Wash. There they visited her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holdt and family. Mrs. Holdt had surgery while they were there and Mrs. Simpson took care of the children. Ray took the boys fishing and to the ball games. They both played on different teams. They later went to Gresham to visit their son, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Simpson and family where they spent a few days. They also visited their granddaughter Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith. They returned home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simpson, and Johnny went to Vaner, Wash., where they were joined by their daughter Selma Simpson on a trip to Vancouver, Canada. They took their camper trailer.

They went to the Vancouver Islands and took a ferry. They saw a lot of interesting things and places. Prices were sure high. They went to Bellingham, Wash., where they spent a night with Jeanie Love and Debby. They returned home on Saturday, having been gone a week.

Sunday dinner guests in the Alfred Simpson home were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Galyen and girls of Ontario and Mrs. Carl Fenn.

Mrs. Marion York and girls of Vale and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Simpson and Cindy were Saturday evening visitors in the Alfred Simpson home.

Journal Classifieds Bring Results!

JULY 4th Specials

An Explosion of Values

1977 Ford Thunderbird
$6995⁰⁰

Was $7909.00.

Demo, V-8, auto transmission, power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seats, air conditioning, AM-FM radio, tape deck, vinyl top, tinted glass, tilt wheel, cruise control

Stock Number FS-61.

1977 Ford Pinto
4 cylinder, 4 speed, radio, bucket seats, WSW Tires.
$3595⁰⁰

1977 Ford Maverick
2 door sedan, 6 cylinder, automatic transmission, power steering, radio, stock number FS-6
$4295⁰⁰

1977 Mustang II
4 cylinder, 4 speed, radio, stock number FS-9
$4095⁰⁰

1977 Ford LTD
V-8, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, air conditioning, radio, vinyl top, stock number FS 105
$5995⁰⁰

1977 Cougar XR-7
V-8, automatic transmission, power steering, brakes, power windows, power seats, air conditioning, tilt wheel, cruise control. Stock Number MS-17. Was $7648.00.
$6795⁰⁰

1977 Mercury Marquis Brougham
V-8, automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, seats, air conditioning, AM-FM radio, vinyl top, tinted glass, tilt wheel, cruise control, Stock Number MS-40. Was $8614.00.
$7595⁰⁰

1977 Ford F-100 Pickup
6-cylinder, 4 speed, power steering, radio. Stock Number TS-174
$4795⁰⁰

1977 Ford Bronco
Standard transmission, power steering, hubs, Aux. Fuel Tank, Stock Number TS-141.
$5595⁰⁰

Stock Number FS-85

Stock Number FS-6

Stock Number FS-9

Stock number FS 105

Stock Number MS-17. Was $7648.00.

Stock Number MS-40. Was $8614.00.

Stock Number TS-174

Stock Number TS-141.

Gentry Ford Sales, Inc.

1802 S.W. 4th Ave., Ontario 889-9694

Working together

Grace Baker, General Clerk, La Grande;
Buck Miller, Conductor, Kennewick; T. R. Sherrow, Sr.,
Car Foreman, Hinkle; Jim White, District Lineman,
Spokane; Tom Smither, Water Service Welder,
Milton-Freewater; Larry Picker, Engineer, Hinkle;
Thomas Brown, Rail Truck Driver, La Grande;
Dave Lefebvre, General Traffic Agent, Lewiston;
Rod Jones, Lead Electrician, La Grande; Tula Adams,
Crew Dispatcher, Hinkle; Nino Alvear, Section
Foreman, Yakima; Donald Williamson, Electrician,
Hermiston; Bill Lamme, Traffic Agent, Spokane;
Phil Barfuss, Planner, Spokane.

We can handle it.
the Union Pacific railroad people

