Republican Women Meet

The Malheur County Republican Women held their second meeting July 14 at the Pioneer Nursing Home in Vale. The main objective of the organization is to inform and educate; to help improve the lines of communication between Eastern Oregon and Salem.

The second Thursday of each month, starting in September, will be the regular meeting day. Each meeting will have an informational program offered by a member or a guest speaker. Government at a local, state and federal level will be the topics.

An effort to interest as many of the women in Malheur County as possible is being made and they are looking for more members in Vale, Nyssa, Ontario, and outlying communities.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Pioneer Nursing Home in Vale, September 8, 1977 at 8 p.m.

Methodist Ministers Receive Their Reward

James J. Fleming came to Nyssa in 1922 and stayed until 1923. During his ministry here, the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches were united.

While James J. Fleming was pastor of Wilder, he had a dream of building a chapel in the Sawtooth Mountains after his retirement in May 1973. He passed away in Jerome, Idaho at the age of 86. His dream will become a reality in August. The Sawtooth Valley Meditation Chapel will be open to worshippers of all faiths.

The Rev. Henry J. Gernhardt Sr., passed away at Twin Falls, Idaho, July 16, 1977. Beginning in 1914, he ministered to Methodist congregations in Indiana, North Dakota, Nyssa, La Grande, and Twin Falls, Idaho. He retired in 1965 due to ill health and continued his membership in Twin Falls. He also served as supply pastor in Twin Falls Church of the Bretheran and the Community Church of Bliss.
