Sage of Nu Acres

By Lyle Dohner

The Zion quartet from Long Beach State College left us all blest. Shirley Wells said their service at the Nyssa combined Assemblies of God was well-attended and won a warm reception. She emphasized that these young men were plainly there, not to entertain, but to minister, and she said they have accepted their invitation to return next summer for a service.

The boys loved singing at West Park Plaza, Phil said. He is a Salvation Army man and said he is used to a transient audience. The acoustics there are such that music could be heard all over without seeming too loud.

Visiting the George Dohners this past week were Charles Baldwin of Caruthers California, his daughter, Mrs. David Crawford and her daughter, Jodie of Madera.

While here, they and the Dohners went to Cascade Lake for a few days' camping. This same week, Baldwin's grandson, Paul Janetski, and his singing group, stayed on the Dohner farm and fed the cats, dogs and chickens, as well as giving concerts at Christian Life Fellowship, West Park Plaza, and the combined Assemblies of God in Nyssa.

Bill Grasmick has been home almost two weeks, now, after a fortnight's hospitalization for surgery at St. Luke's. Mary Grasmick said he is "doing great, under the circumstances."

She asked that thanks be given to friends and neighbors for all the cards, visits, flowers and well-wishes he received. He can have company now, and would welcome a chance to see his friends.

Floyd and Margaret Trent and son, Mark, are moving into the Dave Weaver place this week, having purchased the dairy part of the farm. The family stayed there last week, on a temporary basis, doing chores while the Weavers took a vacation on the coast.

The Trents are from Sutherlin, Oregon and have three grown children, besides Mark, who live in the Roseburg area. Mark plans to attend TVCC this fall. Dairy farming is not new to the Trents for they had a dairy in Sutherlin.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans attended her class' forty-fifth annual high school reunion at Caldwell. Mr. Evan's Parma reunion will take place this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Payne went to Salt Lake City last week to see their son, Darwin, off on a plane to Germany. There he will serve two years as a missionary for the L.D.S. Church.

Mrs. Ben Payne visited Mrs. Stella Newell in Caldwell, Wednesday. Then on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Speilman and Clarence Speilman of Eagle visited the Paynes.

Clarence and Ernie Speilman went on to Baker to visit their sister in a nursing home, leaving Ruth Speilman to go to the fair with Alice Payne.

There was an Evans family reunion last weekend at the Roy Evans' place in a park at Lake Coeur d'Alene. Going from Nu Acres were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Keck, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans, Janice Evans and Mary Ballard.

While there they swam, fished, boated, and went huckleberrying. Before coming home, Janice visited two days with her brother, Tom Evans and the Kecks visited in the home of their son Kieth. Incidentally, the Kieth Kecks are infanticating.

There was a week-long celebration at the Casper Christensen farm this past week, honoring June Christensen's mother's eightieth birthday.

The honoree was Ada Storey of Boise, formerly of Middleton. All ten of her children were there and lots of in-laws, grandchildren and great-grandchildren; over eighty people in all came, bringing campers and trailers each staying long as he could.

Next Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Craner will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Tipping you off now so you'll remember that card!

Happy Anniversary

September 3 - Mr. and Mrs. Elton Clapp

September 4 - Mr. and Mrs. Bidwill.

September 7 - Rev. and Mrs. Walter Smidt

September 8 - Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Glover
