Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans attended a new type Lay Witness meeting held at the Mountain View Brethren Church in Boise last weekend. She said it was called a "Come Alive Mission." Wonder if it is any relation to what we used to call "revival"?

The Farmerette Club met Wednesday at the Community Hall, hosted by Carol Weaver and Alice Payne. Plans and schedules for the coming year's activities were made. They still have no one to teach them tole painting. May have to go to Oregon and attend a class there.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw Sr., is his sister, Mrs. Mary Burtis, of Hermiston, Oregon. Sunday, the Shaws took her and Mrs. Vesta Wilson for a drive to McCall, loup fashion, up via Emmett and back by way of Weiser.

The Dave Weaver family and Gary Fischer family went together to Black Canyon Dam picnic grounds for a potluck with Jan's fellow-employees at the telephone company, Saturday. Gary did not go, Carol said; he went antelope hunting instead. No luck. Except for the antelope.

Neighbors will be interested in the summer excursions of Alice Pulsipher, who moved from here not so long ago. She called to say she took a plane to Helena, Montana, for a brother and sister reunion. Present were five sisters, two brothers and five spouses, and they met at a camp ground, staying in their tents, campers and motor homes.
