Ducks Unlimited Banquet Planned

A group of local sportsmen headed by Gordon Saucer, have organized a chapter of Ducks Unlimited and they are planning the first annual Ducks Unlimited banquet. The banquet will be held Monday, October 17 at 6:30 p.m. in the Ontario Elks Lodge.

The banquet will consist of a prime rib dinner, drawings for door prizes and raffle and an auction. Merchandise that will be given away includes a Honda 90 motorcycle, Browning automatic shotgun, fishing equipment, turkeys, shells and many other prizes presently being donated by local businesses. All proceeds will go to the nonprofit Ducks Unlimited organization. The funds are used to protect vital waterfowl habitat from Alaska to Mexico. Last year the organization spent $2,125,889.28 of donated money on various habitat projects, mostly in Canada.

The cost for attending the banquet is $22.50 and includes a membership to the DU organization. Tickets can be purchased from committee members, Outdoorsman, Coast to Coast and at Super Thrift in Vale.

Oregon Vets May be Eligible

Oregon veterans attending school this fall may be entitled to State veterans' educational aid benefits to help pay the cost of their tuition, the Department of Veterans' Affairs said today.

H. C. Saalfeld, Veterans' Affairs Director, said the State benefit pays $50 for each month of full-time undergraduate studies, and up to $35 a month for other studies, based on one month's entitlement for each month of military service to a maximum of 36 months.

Entitled are veterans of the Korean conflict, and veterans of service after July 1, 1958, who received the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal or the Vietnam Service medal for service in overseas trouble spots and combat areas.

They must have been Oregon residents for one year immediately prior to their service, and they must be Oregon residents when they apply for the benefit. There is no application deadline.

Saalfeld said State aid is not available for courses for which the veteran is receiving Federal GI training benefits. This makes this benefit ideally suited for veterans who have exhausted their Federal benefits but are still in school, Saalfeld added.

Application may be filed with the school registrar or veterans' counselor, through a county service officer, or with the Department of Veterans' Affairs in Salem.
