Planning for the nursing wing addition to Malheur Memorial Hospital again looks favorable.

At a second opening of bids, with several alternates considered, the lowest of $376,010 by Van Auker Construction Company, Caldwell was within available funds. Following the opening the board awarded the contract under the provision that the altered plans would be accepted by the US Health office in San Francisco.

The Cecil Houstons received a telephone call last week from movie actor Charlton Heston in California. He had just returned from Vietnam and had visited the couple's son, Jim Houston who suffered recent injuries and was in the 93rd Evacuation Center. Jim was apparently recovering nicely.

Bridge opening ceremonies, arranged by Elmer Cruson, will be held Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. Dr. J. J. Sarazin will do the honors of cutting the ribbon to allow first "official" traffic over the new bridge, assisted by Mayor Cliff Main.

Most of the foundation for the 75 x 125 foot building to house the M & W Market has been completed, while excavation continues for a huge parking area facing Main Street. Lloyd Mackrill, M & W manager, stated that the new structure will be completed and ready for occupancy about the first of the year.

At the regular meeting of the Nyssa Civic Club Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Gerrit Stam told of conditions in Holland as observed on her recent trip with Mr. Stam. Her talk, touched with both humor and pathos, was told in an informal, but vivid manner.

The state of Oregon will be represented at the national FFA livestock judging contest held in conjunction with the national FFA convention and American Royal Livestock show in Kansas City, October 19 to 24 by Francis Thiel of Adrian, Norville Robbins of Nyssa and Bill Tolpfe of Banks.

These three boys won the right to represent Oregon as a result of their livestock judging abilities at the Pacific International Livestock show in Portland in October. Thiel made the highest score of any boy in Oregon, followed closely by Robbins and Tolpfe.

The Nyssa team, composed of Farrell Peterson, Bob Kido and Robbins, did exceptionally well by placing third in Oregon and 17th in the entire contest in which 124 teams from Oregon, Washington and Idaho were entered, according to Richard V. Wilson, agriculture instructor in the Nyssa High School.

Novell Thompson is getting well started at the state university at Eugene. The irrigating season is about over and water in the Shoestring Canal has been discontinued. The Owyhee is still carrying its usual amount.

John Alexander of Parma was in town yesterday. He says many farms in the Parma and Roswell sections are changing hands, mostly to newcomers, and he predicts that the landseekers will reach Nyssa soon.

Sage of Nu Acres

Have you tried the new doughnut makers yet? Me neither. But tried to make doughnuts in my minnie type deep fryer and they broke up and soaked up oil. Wound up putting the dough in a pan and baking a nice coffee cake, crispy topped with brown sugar, butter and cinnamon.

Anyone who has a doughnut maker, please give me a call? Oh, the little fryer makes marvelous French fries.

George keeps telling me it's dangerous to drive at night and mostly I stay home. He makes home cozy with a fire in the fireplace, and, most nights, it is good to be there.

However, come Sunday, have to go have fellowship with the brothers and sisters. Dwayne Friend had been at Nyssa all week and reports of his meetings were fantastic. Finally went, Sunday afternoon.

It was really great! No wonder he packs them in. Got to pray, afterward, with a lovely family from Ontario, whose Daddy had just been born again. Thrilling.

From there, went to Christian Life Fellowship in Ontario, for choir practice and evening meeting. It was well worth it, too.

But old Smutty Face (Satan) had a plan laid, ready to wipe me out on the way home. A fellow drove his big car out of a side street and smashed into my little Pinto's middle. All the window glass came spraying my way and only a tightly latched seat belt made me stay put. Got one small scratch on the hand!

The Ontario policeman, (wish I'd gotten his name) was unusually considerate and kind, while investigating the accident. Also, he had his headquarters call Pastor Jack Becker a really neat friend in time of need. He drove the Pinto home and had his wife take me.

George was dumbfounded over what had happened.

Guess he was glad I got nothing but a scratch. He thanked God for that in his breakfast blessing.

It's company time at the Gary Fuschler-Dave Weaver place. Visiting Sunday from Nebraska, enroute to Eugene Oregon were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamlow and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamlow, Carol's uncles and their wives.

Mrs. John Stam, Mrs. Ben Payne and Mrs. George Dohner attended a District Garden Club Board meeting Thursday at Ontario. Representatives present were women from Vale, A.N.K., Owyhee, Ontario and Town and Country Garden Clubs.

Town and Country Garden Club will be meeting this week on Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Schiremen in Nyssa.

Last weekend the Dohners spent a few days at Cascade and returned with a load of firewood and the travel trailer.

New neighbors on the Sherman Keck hill-top are the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Hedge and their daughter, Mrs. Jean Ming. He is a retired Nazarene minister.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Stardusters met at the home of Gladys Newbill with Beatrice Grossnickle president, presiding. Fifteen members answered roll call. The bazaar was discussed and the date set for early December. Plans were also made for new table cloths. Hostesses Gladys Newbill and Gloria Smith served refreshments.

Friendship Club

The Friendship Club met at the IOOF Hall, October 7 with Merle Johnson, president, presiding.

Fifteen members answered roll call. Plans for the luncheon card party and bazaar were discussed. Final plans will be made Tuesday evening. There were no members reported as ill.

The meeting was adjourned. Four tables of Bunco were in play later with Vina Fox winning high, with Ida Walters traveling and Harriet Warren low.

Hostesses Helen Pittz and Virginia Rookstool served refreshments. The next meeting will be November 4 at IOOF Hall.
