

Joyce Haney Becomes Bride of Ken Harrison

In an evening ceremony, July 30, 1977, at the Owyhee Community Church, Joyce Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Haney of Nyssa and Ken Harrison son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harrison of New Plymouth, were joined in marriage. In the presence of 250 guests, the double ring ceremony was performed by Dale Cardwell of the Weiser Baptist Church and Fred Moxom of the Owyhee Community Church.

Joyce who was escorted to the altar by her father was attired in a long white satin and chiffon gown with a high neckline with lace front and long puffed sleeves caught with lace cuffs. It featured a pleated ruffle that formed a chapel train. Her elbow length lace trimmed veil was held in place with a ribbon and lace headpiece.

She carried a bouquet of peach roses, white daisies and baby breath. Her only jewelry was a cameo.

The maid of honor was Heide Stovener of Council. She wore a peach print princess gown trimmed in brown. The bridesmaids were Barbara Haney, sister of the bride and Sharon Dail, cousin of the bride. They were attired in gowns identical to the maid of honor's. They all wore matching wide-brimmed lace hats and carried baskets of peach colored flowers. Alisia Brown was junior bridesmaid. Her dress was a yellow print similar to the other attendants. She carried a basket of yellow flowers.

Lighting the candles were Julie Duncan of Boise and Karla Farmer of Kuna. Their dresses were yellow print and they wore yellow ribbon headpieces.

Dave Harrison served as bestman for his son. The ushers were Steve Sutton, of Portland, Oregon; Darryl Holbrook, New Plymouth, and Wayne Morris of Council Douglas Farmer of Kuna was the ringbearer.

The bride's mother chose a long cream floral print with a corsage of yellow roses and daisies. The grooms' mother wore a long rust gown and her corsage was yellow roses and daisies.

The church was decorated with candelabra with long yellow tapers and large floral baskets of shaded yellow, bronze and peach glads and white daisies.

Special music was provided by Roger Haney singing "Charity" Neilus Cook of Smiths Ferry sang "The Wedding Song" and accompanied himself on the guitar. Janet Watson accompanied by Kay Moxom sang a selection.

Joyce sang "The Love Song" from Ruth especially for Ken.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church basement. A special feature of the refreshment table was the cake made in tiered heights with a candlelight stairway wending up around the cake to the top, where there was a cross with interlocking rings. The cake was made and decorated by the groom's mother. Those assisting were Brenda and Leila Farmer, cousins of the bride serving the cake.

Ethelmae Dail, aunt of the bride and Janet Watson, cousin of the bride of Nampa poured punch, and Lillian Baker of Baker poured coffee.

Joyce is a graduate of Nyssa High School and attended Montana Bible Institute. Ken is a graduate of New Plymouth High School and has attended Moodie Bible School and Judson Baptist College. Ken is now serving as youth pastor of Five Mile Community Church while continuing his studies at Boise Bible College. Joyce is teaching at All God's Children Kindergarten.

Ken and Joyce took a short honeymoon to the Hell's Canyon area and now are at home at 1490 Sunrise Manor in Boise.

Sixth Grade Goes To Vale

The Nyssa Sixth Graders went to the county courthouse in Vale on October 4, 1977, as a culmination of laws and government. We also visited the Bureau of Land Management office to learn more about our government land.

First we visited Mr. Frank Yraguen, the Circuit Judge, and saw a sentencing of a real prisoner in the courtroom. After that, we went to visit Mr. Jim Mosier, the Juvenile officer, then to lunch in the Park.

After we ate lunch, we went to see Mr. Grant Baugh, BLM Range Conservationist. He took us to see some wild horses. It was a very interesting trip.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

The officers of Eagles Auxiliary #2134 hosted a salad luncheon for all Auxiliary members on Tuesday, October 4 at the Eagles Hall.

Following the luncheon a regular business meeting was held. Madam President Kay Carpenter gave a report on the Region 4 meeting. Other business discussed included the Hunter's Ball to be held October 15 and the Community holiday Market November 19.

The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 18 at the Eagles Hall at 8 p.m.

Marian Kunkel in C of I Comedy

A subtle comedy, Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be presented by College of Idaho students at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday, October 21-22 at Jewett Auditorium on campus of College of Idaho, Caldwell, Idaho

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students and children. C. of I. students are admitted free. Drama director is Dr. Jerry White, assistant professor of English

"The Importance of Being Earnest" resembles a comedy of errors in that the two major male characters, Algernon Moncrieff and John Worthing, both pretend to be a character named "Earnest," in order to win the love of two leading female characters, Gwendolen Fairfax and Cecily Cardew. The ladies, however, think there is only one "Earnest" which presents problems because they are both in love with him.

Cast members include: senior Lansing Haynes of Spokane as Moncrieff; senior Scott Zuckman of Granada Hills, California as Worthing senior Miriam Kunkel of Nyssa as Gwendolen; sophomore Lisa Gerber of Twin Falls as Cecily; freshman Becky Hale of Weiser as Lady Bracknell; freshman Nancy Hanks of Richfield, Minnesota as Miss Prism; senior Steve Moser of Phoenix as Rev. Canon Chasuble; junior Scott Hyder of Jerome as Lane; and freshman Sheldon Ewing of Wasilla, Alaska as Merriman.

State PTSA Officers Visit, Make Plans

Flora Geiger, Oregon State PTSA president, was in Ontario recently to make arrangements for the State Convention to be held on April 21 and 22, 1978. Ontario High School was chosen for the general meeting place with VIP's, Tapadera and Boulevard Grange furnishing space for special meetings.

Accompanying Mrs. Geiger were Helen Peterson, state V.P., and Kay Durtchi, State treasurer. Meeting with these three state officers were three state board members from eastern Oregon, Virginia Cleaver, Helen Carlson and Betsy Wrinkle who is Convention Chairman.

The group discussed the program, speakers and other details for the upcoming convention and progress of the PTA units in this area. The Nyssa PTSA has started a TV monitoring project. Any PTA unit interested in helping with the convention or doing some TV monitoring should contact one of the local state board members. In August all three state board members in this area took a day-long training course in TV monitoring and how to use the information gathered to affect the programs we see in this area.

Past Presidents Meeting

The American Legion Past Presidents met October 3 at the home of Mrs. Otis Smith with eight members and one guest, Mrs. Lola Smith, present. Plans were made to make flowers for the Wheel Chair Parade in Portland. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ellen Richardson on November 7.

PINOCHLE PARTIES

The Afternoon Pinochle Club was entertained at the home of Merle Johnson last Wednesday with Nina Lowe as guest for the afternoon. Mrs. Lowe took high honors with Hazel Pounds and Orma Cleaver traveling and Hazel Smith low.
