

Adrian To Serve Hunters

Going bird hunting this Saturday? If so, you may want to stop by Adrian on Saturday for a Hunter's Breakfast, notes Mrs. Gigi Smith, Adrian 4-H leader.

The Adrian 4-H Livestock Club is preparing a special breakfast for hunters to be served from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. in the Adrian School Cafeteria. The 4-H Club is offering two choices on the breakfast menu, continues Mrs. Smith.

For hearty eating, four pancakes, two eggs, ham, coffee or orange juice for $1.75. For those not quite so hungry, a junior plate of two pancakes, one egg, ham, coffee or juice for only $1.25.

"Proceeds from the breakfast will go for a community service project for the City of Adrian," says Mrs. Smith. "We hope to begin our project by this December."
