

Willow Creek

By Lavon Carrier
The Willowcreek Cub Scouts took part in the pack meeting that was held in Vale Thursday evening. Each boy carved and decorated a piece of wood, with each piece being a part of a totem pole. The Vale boys presented an Indian skit for the program. All of the cub scouts had fun eating pie in a pie eating contest. The fun part was that they couldn't use their hands! First place winner was Robbie Carrier from Willowcreek and second was Kelly Wolfe from Vale. The boys that went were Eric Anderson, Robbie Carrier, Jason and Bobby Durham, Bobby Evans, Andy Wilcos, John Schaffeld and Ricky

Duncan.

He weighed in at eight pounds and seven ounces and joins two sisters and four brother.

The Pioneer Club ladies enjoyed a Christmas dinner and party at the D.T.'s dining room in Vale. The dinner was held on Thursday, with twenty members and two visitors attending. For their program, Gladys Pershall, Helen Durall, Dixie Shoemaker and Dorothy Lamb all gave readings or told a story about Christmas. Adele Maxwell played the piano for a sing-along. They had a gift exchange after the program. This next meeting will be on

HAVE YOU BEEN LOOKING for a unique gift for that persnickety person, well Bob Jensen can fill that persnickety persons taste to the tea with hand crafted wheel thrown stoneware pottery. Bob who now teaches at NHS as an Art teacher came from Medford, Oregon where he spent one and one-half years as a full-time studio potter. He grew up in North Dakota and taught high school art in Southern Minnesota before coming to Oregon.

Mr. Jensen attended Dickinson State

College at Dickinson, North Dakota, Southwest Minnesota State College in Marshall, Minnesota and studied with John Connors Professional Potter at Ashland, Oregon.

"I hope to be able to get a facility so that I can do some teaching of pottery," commented Bob Jensen. So while many feel pottery is a thing of the past or just can't find what they're looking for, there's a chance Bob Jensen has what your looking for.
