

LARGE SUIT FILED

LITIGATION COMMENCED INVOLVING $164,919.14.

Petruella Durham, of Chicago, is Plaintiff, and W. H. Stubbings Defendant.

Mrs. Petruella Durham, of Chicago, through her attorney, John A. Carson, of this city, yesterday afternoon instituted in department No. 1, Marion county circuit court, a suit against Wilson H. Stubbings to recover judgment for $164,919.14.

The plaintiff for her cause of action against the defendant alleges:

"1st-That on the seventh day of December, 1898, in the superior court of Cook county, in the state of Illinois, a judgment was duly given, made, rendered and entered of record by said court in favor of this plaintiff and against the defendant herein in an action in said court last above named pending, wherein this plaintiff was plaintiff and said defendant was defendant, for the sum $164,919.14, with interest thereon from said date at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

"2d-That said judgment remains wholly unpaid and unsatisfied.

"3d-That the said defendant has property within the county of Marion and State of Oregon, (not exempt from execution) liable to the satisfaction of said judgment.

"Plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant for the sum of $164,919.14, and interest thereon at 6 per cent per annum from the seventh day of December, 1898, and for the costs and disbursements of this action."

Sheriff F. W. Durbin will today attach a considerable amount of property located in and surrounding Salem, belonging to the defendant. The property to be attached is that which was purchased by the defendant from the Oregon Land Company about eight years ago, the amount represented in that transaction being about $35,000.

Mr. Stubbings will be remembered by Salemites as a prominent real estate dealer in this locality about ten years ago, when business in that line was decidedly active. It is reported he is now incarcerated in the county jail at Chicago, under some charge growing out of his recent suit in the courts at that place.

HOW BUILD THEM

SUGGESTIONS OFFERED FOR CYCLE PATH CONSTRUCTION.

G. F. Smith Rides a Tinkham Tricycle—Tax Collection Continues—Bicycle Notes.

(From Daily, May 17th.)

The Statesman recently addressed letters to officers of several Cycling clubs in the Northwest, who have had more or less experience in the matter of path building, inquiring of them the methods and the materials employed in the construction of paths, and the approximate cost thereof. A reply has been received from B. S. Pague, president of the United Wheeling Association of Portland. The letter is reproduced for the suggestion relative to path building, incorporated therein may prove helpful to the Marion county cyclists in carrying on their path construction work. The letter reads as follows:

"Replying to your favor of the 5th inst, I have to state it is the desire of the Wheeling association, and which will, I think, be granted by the county commissioners, that all paths be built for winter as well as summer use; to build in this way the following must be done. The path should be as free from turns as possible. The width should be six feet, and the sides of the path straight, no ragged edges. A scraper should be used to cut to the roots of the grass. Care should be exercised that the earth is not disturbed on which the gravel is put. A six foot path should have a two-inch crown; coarse gravel should at first be put on the path and then rolled with a heavy roller, then fine gravel, almost sand, should be put on the former half an inch deep. At road crossings it should be raised and plenty of coarse gravel for base used. Dirt paths, without gravel, are no good. Paths should be built for not over 1000 a mile. A culvert should be crossed by a bicycle bridge, which is really a picket fence laid on supports. Paths should be built by contract, using specifications, and an inspector who understands his business. Our path, now under construction, is being built by the road supervisor, under the direction of the commissioner's court.

"I hope that a path will be built from Salem north to Clackamas county line so that we will have a path from Portland to Salem by July 1st."

The collection of the bicycle tax continues being lagged slowly, but five receipts were issued yesterday, increasing the total number to 510. By the recent arrangement of the commissioners' court, relative to the expenditure of the bicycle tax fund, local wheelmen predict that the Jefferson cycling association will discontinue its fight against the tax and will cheerfully liquidate the amount of the assessment. W. L. Straley, of this city, secretary-treasurer of the United association of Cycle Clubs of Marion county, recently received a letter from a prominent wheelman at Marion, who stated that a delegation of Jefferson cyclists waited on their club and solicited the co-operation of its members in testing the bicycle tax law, but the visitors received no encouragement from the Marionites all of whom heartily endorse the tax, which the majority of them have gladly paid.

MEETING OF THE SALEM CYCLE ASSOCIATION TO DETERMINE THE MOST FEASIBLE ROUTE FOR A CYCLE PATH TO BE CONSTRUCTED THROUGH THIS CITY CONNECTING THE AURORA AND JEFFERSON PATHS, WILL REPORT AT A MEETING OF THE CLUB TO BE HELD TOMORROW EVENING IN THE POLICE COURT ROOM.

The route that will probably be recommended by the committee is as follows: Beginning at the city limits on North Winter street, thence south on west side of street to Willson avenue across the avenue thence down the east side of Winter street to Mill street, east on Mill to Fourteenth, thence south to Mission and east on Mission to city limits. This route is considered the most feasible by the committee for the reason that the proposed path from the intersection of State and Winter streets to its southern terminus is rarely crossed by a regularly traveled street.

George F. Smith, who for several years has been badly crippled by reason of rheumatism, recently invested in a Tinkham tricycle, and has abandoned the chair in which he has wheeled himself so long. The tricycle is built very much on the same principle as the youth's velocipede, but is equipped with the modern pneumatic tires. By his new machine, Mr. Smith is enabled to navigate about the streets much more rapidly than before and the exercise derived thereby will prove beneficial to him.

FOR A WAREHOUSE.—The old Cumberland Presbyterian church, located on High street, near Marion, and which has recently been used by the Seventh Day Adventists, has been removed to the rear of the lot, and will be used as a hay and grain warehouse by Savage & Reid, the feed dealers, who recently came into possession of the property. The warehouse, which was located beside the church building, will be moved to the center of the lot, remodeled and enlarged and made ready for occupancy.
