

FROM SUNDAY'S DAILY

HELD IN CONTEMPT

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION ISSUED BY JUDGE BOISE

Ignored by Wm. Haack, a Saloon Keeper—Cited to Appear on Next Wednesday.

In the state circuit court for Marion county, department No. 2, an action for contempt of court was yesterday filed, on behalf of the state of Oregon, by J. H. McCorkle, against William Haack, formerly a saloon keeper, but now conducting a similar business in Silverton. This suit is the outgrowth of the action, begun in the same court on June 25th, by the same plaintiff, for a writ of review against the city of Silverton, Allen Forward, as recorder of the city of Silverton and Wm. Haack, defendants in error, enjoining the issuance of a liquor license by the municipal authorities of that city in violation of the provisions of the city statute in procuring the said license. The writ was made returnable Tuesday, June 13th.

A temporary injunction was granted by Judge L. P. Boise, pending the hearing of the matter, but the defendant, Wm. Haack, has ignored the temporary injunction of the court, and has commenced the operation of a saloon in the city of Silverton. The plaintiff prays that Wm. Haack be cited to appear in court and show cause, if any, why he should not be punished for contempt of court; also that a temporary injunction be issued, restraining him from selling liquors. Judge Boise issued the restraining order, and fixed the time for hearing the matter at 10 o'clock a. m., on Wednesday, July 5th. L. J. Adams, George G. Bingham and John A. Carson appear as attorneys for the plaintiff.

CLAUDE BOONE INJURED.

A Sliver of Wood Penetrated His Chin About Three Inches.

Aumsville, Or., July 1.—Claude Boone who has been living with H. C. Porter and family near Aumsville for the past five years, and youngest son of Henry D. Boone, who kept a book store in Salem a number of years ago, was rolling or chiseling on Friday afternoon when the seat broke and he fell in such a way as to cause a sliver of wood from the broken seat to penetrate near his chin and range upward about three inches. He was taken to Stayton where Dr. Clark removed the sliver and dressed the wound. Had it varied slightly to one side it would have struck an artery. While it is a very painful wound, Claude has many friends to congratulate him, that it is not so serious as it might have been.

SEWING MACHINE WAR.—There seems to be a sewing machine war among the local merchants of Eugene and the prices have been reduced to a remarkably low figure. The latest improved White sewing machine, as has been noticed by the advertiser of one of the merchants, has been reduced to $24.50, and the Climax to $25. At these figures almost any family can afford a machine.

A PHENOMENAL RECORD.—The local agency of R. M. Wade & Co., is doing an enormous business in the matter of binders and harvesting machinery and other materials. Yesterday there were loaded in as many farm wagons drawn up on review alongside the company's establishment on Court street, six Deering binders, representing the individual sales negotiated during the past few days by the Salem house. The binders were purchased by farmers residing in different sections of the county—from St. Paul to Sublimity.

A CHANGE OF FIRMS.—The Sperry Art studio has been sold and the owners have taken charge. It will now be known as the Elite Photo studio, and will be under the management of W. D. Rogers. Mr. Rogers is well and favorably known to the patrons of photography and will still continue to turn out first-class work.

A NEW FIRM.—Gilbert & Baker is the style of a new firm, succeeding to the business heretofore conducted by Gilbert & Patterson. The members of the new firm are Ray D. Gilbert and Joseph A. Baker, both old residents of Salem, and well known to the public. The new firm will take charge tomorrow morning.

BOTH BONES BROKEN.—The seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Leisi, who reside in Simpson's addition, fell from his stilts Friday evening and sustained a fracture of both bones in the right arm just above the wrist. The double fracture was reduced by Dr. S. R. Jessup.

STATE TAXES.—State Treasurer Chas. S. Moore yesterday received $90,000 from the treasurer of Multnomah county, to apply on Multnomah's tax debt for 1898. This leaves an unpaid balance, owing by that county, of $24,362.21.

ONE INSANE.—Theodore Becking, of Cottage Grove, was brought to the asylum yesterday, by Sheriff W. W. Withers, of Lane county. He is 38 years old.

A KILN BURNED.—A. A. Burton, the Salem brick manufacturer, has just burned a kiln of 140,000 brick and is moulding another lot for burning.

WERE OF ONE MIND

VOLUNTEERS WILL BE GIVEN A JOYOUS WELCOME.

Citizens Held Enthusiastic Meeting and Take Preliminary Steps for Boys Reception.

(From Daily, July 2d.)

A citizens' meeting of unbounded enthusiasm was held at the city hall yesterday, when the initial steps were taken for a fitting reception and joyous welcome of the volunteers upon their return from Manila. The two hundred citizens that had congregated to assist in formulating the plans were of one mind—but one sentiment permeated the entire assembly—that the demonstration attending the boys' return shall be eminently fitting and appropriate and that proper honor be shown them for their gallant achievements in a foreign land.

It appeared to be the sense of the meeting that the entire day on which the boys return be devoted to their reception and entertainment. Before adjourning until next Saturday afternoon, when the several committees to be appointed will report, it was decided to extend an invitation to the citizens of the several incorporated towns of the county, asking them to meet with the Salem citizens in arranging for the soldiers' welcome home and to assist in carrying the plans into execution.

L. D. Henry called the meeting to order and briefly stated the object for which it had been called. A temporary organization was effected by the election of Claud Gatch, chairman, and F. A. Turner, secretary.

Chairman Gatch made one of his patriotic addresses, full of patriotic sentiments. Dr. T. C. Smith wanted to see a big celebration on the occasion of the boys' return in which every man, woman and child can participate. District Attorney S. L. Hayden, Eugene Willis and H. A. Johnson were called upon for speeches, but having near relatives numbered among the returning volunteers, preferred not to make suggestions. J. D. Lee, superintendent of the penitentiary, made a splendid talk. The success and achievements of American arms on land and water had challenged the admiration of the world, and in view of this fact Salem should give herself up for the entire day to honoring the volunteers. L. D. Henry said all were agreed on a big demonstration of the character of which would be determined later. He apprehended that there would be no difficulty in soliciting the funds and suggested that a committee be sent to Portland to accompany the Salem company to this city in a body.

G. G. Bingham was called upon and made a talk that was replete with good suggestions. He suggested that a big picnic be given in which people within a radius of thirty miles be invited to participate, and that the city be elaborately and fittingly decorated for the occasion. There should be one speech and Governor Geer should be invited to deliver it. The entire day should be devoted to the boys, with a banquet, an afternoon program and an evening camp fire.

H. B. Thielsen said the highest honor should be paid the boys and G. Stolp proposed that the reception committee and citizens serve as an escort and that the boys be provided with carriages. John Knight hoped that the committee on arrangements would see that the relatives of the soldiers be given the first opportunity to greet the volunteers upon their return. J. N. Smith and A. W. Prescott concurred with Mr. Knight. D. W. Matthews gave assurance that nobody would give the boys a heartier reception than the veterans of 1861.

Speaking for the young men, F. T. Wrightman made a motion that all ex-soldiers meet the volunteers at the train and serve as an escort. The motion carried.

L. D. Henry was successful in a motion that the chairman be instructed to appoint the several committees that would be required to do the work necessary, to consist of members from each of the incorporated towns in the county.

Mr. Wrightman remarked that there was another company in the Second Oregon regiment that consists of Marion county boys and proposed that the Woodburn, Hubbard, and Aurora people be invited to assist in welcoming the boys home. G. W. Davis spoke briefly and Dr. Smith said that it would be well to meet the boys at the depot and then turn them over to their relatives for a few hours and have the banquet and other exercises later. He outstayed the propriety of attempting to entertain the boys immediately after their arrival in the city.

F. W. Durbin moved that the chair appoint a committee of three whose duty it should be to determine upon the necessary number of committees to carry out the plans. Chairman Gatch named the committee as follows: F. W. Durbin, G. W. Davis and T. C. Smith. Chairman Gatch announced that he would appoint the several committees within a few days.

Eugene Willis suggested that in the appointment of the committees, the ladies be well represented.

Jos. Pones, H. D. Allen, N. J. Judah, Alex. LaFollett and John Knight spoke further along the same line. Chairman Gatch called attention to the fact that members of the company would not return from Manila, and in welcoming home the regiment the deceased members of the organization should by no means be forgotten. Mr. Bingham said he hoped to see steps taken soon for the erection of a monument in this city on the state house grounds. He thought the proper time to inaugurate the movement was on the day of the boys' reception. Upon motion Chairman Gatch was instructed to appoint a committee of three to have charge of the soldier monument and the members of the committee will be named later.

A. T. Wain offered the services of the Salem Military band and the patriotic offer was received with applause. The meeting adjourned until 2 p. m.

next Saturday, by which time the several committees will be ready to report.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

How the Fair Sex Won in the New Orleans Election.

The election to determine whether a special tax of 2 mills per annum should be levied for forty-three years for the construction of a free sewerage and drainage system, with free water therefor, was held yesterday. The result was a larger majority, both in the number of votes cast and in amount, for the proposition. The vote was also in favor of the appointment of seven taxpayers, one from each of the seven districts, who, together with the drainage commissioners, will constitute a sewerage and water board.

The result of the election may be truly classed as being very largely a victory for the women of New Orleans, for the Era club, under the direction of its president, Mrs. John M. Ordway, was one of the first to sound the call to arms against dirt and disease, and under the direction of Mrs. Ordway and Miss Katie Gordon the women of this city were thoroughly educated up to the necessity of voting for drainage and sewerage, educated as to the manner of voting, and made to understand the giving of proxies, in event of their not personally desiring to go to the polls. Few women deposited their ballots, but on the other hand, there were few women property-owners who did not vote either in person or by proxy. Everywhere they were treated with the utmost courtesy, and general reports indicate that those who did vote mastered the Australian ballot with ease and intelligence.

Hundreds of proxies poured in upon the lady leaders of the women's campaign, and were by their divided according to the residence of the one giving the proxy among wards and precincts, in each of which some especially progressive woman had volunteered to cast the proxies. In this way a number of the leaders cast the votes of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property.

For five months the women of the city have labored unceasingly to carry the drainage and sewerage tax, and for weeks, after the movement had once got under way, parlor meetings have been held all over the city, ward and precinct leaders being appointed from among the women enrolled as the wave of progress swept on—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. OVERRUN BY BIG SNAILS.

Snails of a strange variety have made their appearance at Osgood, Ind., and it is supposed they were brought from some Eastern conservatory in flowers. They have multiplied until there are thousands of them. A number of wells and cisterns have been destroyed and many persons now keep a ring of salt around their wells to preserve them from their ravages. They are trying to exterminate the snails and snail holes take place nightly, one person often catching from 200 to 400. Where the snails crawl over the grass they leave a phosphorescent glow by which they can be traced. When found they sprinkle salt on them, which kills them almost instantly.—Indianapolis News.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her purple blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Dr. Stone's drug stores.

BAGGED FISH IN A HOLLOW LOG.

John E. Patrick, a professional diver caught a mammoth catfish at Paducah. The fish weighed 556 pounds and was nearly six feet long. It is said to be the largest one ever caught in that vicinity. Mr. Patrick discovered it in a big hollow log near the Paducah Furniture Company's mill. He placed a lig sack over the end of the log and then drove the fish therein. It gave him quite a tussle before he finally landed it.—Paducah News.

A Foolish Man.

There was once a man who thought what a dreadful thing it would be if he were blind, and closed his eyes as he walked along to see how it would be. In this way he walked over a purse of gold which another man picked up. There are people today just as foolish. They moan over their poor health thinking nothing will help them, when a trial of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will cure their ailments. It brings steady, vigorous nerves to nervous people. It purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, and brings back real health by making indigestion and constipation impossible. It is absolutely the greatest remedy known for all stomach troubles, and is to be found in every drug store.

The Kidney Complexion

The pale, sallow, sunken-checked, distressed-looking people you so often meet are afflicted with "Kidney Complexion."

Their kidneys are turning to a purpish color. So is their complexion. They may also have indigestion, or suffer from sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia, brain trouble, nervous exhaustion and sometimes the heart acts badly.

The cause is weak, unhealthy kidneys. Usually the sufferer from kidney disease does not find out what the trouble is until it is almost too late, because the first symptoms are so like mild sickness that they do not think they need a medicine or a doctor until they find themselves sick in bed.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root will build up and strengthen their weak and diseased kidneys, purify their blood, clear their complexion and soon they will enjoy better health.

You can get the regular sizes at the drug store, at fifty cents and one dollar, or you may first prove for yourself the wonderful virtues of this great discovery, Swamp-Root, by sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. for a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent to you absolutely free by mail. When writing kindly mention that you read this liberal offer in the Oregon Statesman.

A HEATED WASHINGTON WOMAN RODE HOME ON AN ICE WAGON.

If you had happened to be near one of the largest apartment houses in the north-west quarter of the town at about a o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, you might have seen a strange sight for a gayly painted ice wagon lumbered up to the door and the ice man handed out, not a cake of ice, but a real live woman, and a pretty woman at that. Great was the astonishment of everybody who saw her. The woman herself wasn't in the slightest degree embarrassed. She had been hurrying all over the town since morning making ready to go away for the summer, and when at last she stepped into a small shop in a side street to attend to a very last errand on her list she was beginning to be dizzy, and her head ached with the terrific heat. She was on the very verge of collapse. The shopkeeper suggested calling a carriage, but she was afraid to wait. Just at that moment an ice wagon drew up to the curb, and the woman—well, a moment later she was sitting on a borrowed stool between two blocks of ice in that wagon. She simply hid herself, delivered at her own door, and she firmly believes that if she had waited for a carriage she'd have succumbed to the heat. The ice wagon, she says, and she doesn't forget to add, her own common sense, saved her life.—Washington Post.

A VERY SECRET DRAWER.

"A secret drawer is sometimes very hard to locate in a large cabinet," said a dealer in curios. "I had such a piece of furniture in the store last winter, and knew the drawer was there from a reference to it in an old inventory, but, in spite of all my efforts, I couldn't discover just where it was. I concluded that the spring must be concealed somewhere about the very ornate carving which cramented the sides, but it escaped my scrutiny until one day when I had a bit of inspiration. Such drawers are usually made of sheet steel, both for security and on account of its thinness, and I simply passed a small pocket compass up and down before carving. At one certain point of the needle, just as I had anticipated, was deflected, and I knew I had at last hit on the right spot. I located it within a few inches, and then pushed and provided every projection with the point of a drawing needle until something gave way, and out jumped the drawer. It was very cleverly masked at the edges by the curves of the pattern, and nobody in the world would suspect its existence. I had hoped that I might find something of value in it, but I was disappointed, it was quite empty."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
