CURRY COUNTY ASSESSMENT ROLL RECEIVED YESTERDAY.

Aggregate of Total Taxable Property Exceeds That of Any Previous Year.

The following is a summary of the assessment roll of Curry county for the year 1899, filed in the secretary of state's office yesterday:

Table with 2 columns: Description of property and Value. Includes items like 4,147 acres tillable land, 157,687 acres non-tillable land, etc.

Total taxable property $592,436. Number of polls—335.

The valuation of Curry county's taxable property during the past twelve years, the rate in mills of the state levy for each year, and the amount paid to the state treasury on account of the levy is shown in the following table:

Table with 4 columns: Year, Taxable Property, Rate in Mills, State Tax. Shows data from 1888 to 1898.

BLACK-SPOTTED TROUT.

Now Haunt Some of the Marion County Creeks—Ten Thousand in Number.

Several of the streams of Marion county and ex-County Judge T. L. Davidson's large new fish pond, near this city, now have a number of young black-spotted trout.

These specimens of the finny tribe—10,000 in number—arrived in Salem via the 10:55 Shasta Express on Sunday. They were transported in four of the specially-arranged tanks of the United States fish commission, and were taken from the hatchery in Montana, many others of the kind having been distributed on the same trip in the streams of Washington.

Another 10,000 lot were taken as far south as Junction City, for the purpose of stocking the streams of Lane county.

The fish were about 1 1/2 inches in length, and immediately on being received here they were taken charge of by a committee of the Salem Rod and Gun club, who took them to different portions of the county and deposited them in such streams as Pudding river, Mill creek, and the Abiqua.

Ex-County Judge Davidson has recently constructed a fish pond on his farm, just on the southern border of Salem, and about 100 of these trout were turned over to him. He will see that they are protected and will endeavor to have them increase in number so that he can stock Pringle creek and other streams out that way.

CATTLE FOR MONTANA.

Over a Thousand Head Taken Out of Willamette Valley at One Time.

Three hundred calves were driven to Salem yesterday by T. G. and E. C. Richmond, who have a farm of 1300 acres four miles from Dallas, Polk county. The young beefs were, however, first brought from the stock ranges in Tillamook county. They were taken to the stock pen near the Southern Pacific passenger depot and loaded in five large stock cars during the afternoon, when they were then transported to Portland in a train consisting of sixteen other cars of a similar kind in which were about 850 cattle brought from Eugene and Albany.

The entire lot of cattle are consigned to D. Fiorer, at Craig, Montana, who, it is supposed, will put them on his feeding quarters to place them in condition for the market next spring.

The Richardson have sold and shipped about 700 head of calves so far this year, and have a few yet unsold.

This cattle train left Salem yesterday just behind the northbound Shasta express, and while waiting at the depot created a good deal of attention on the part of those assembled there.

The wonder is how many more such trains will be hauled over the Southern Pacific, as it seems as though there are very few cattle left in the Webfoot state.

HE'S FARMING NOW.

Nick Galloway Has Quit Wire-pulling—Living on a Farm in old Missouri.

Nick Galloway, at one time a line-man in Oregon for the Western Union telegraph company, is now in Missouri, near Galloway, having gone there several months ago to take charge of his parents' farm. The "old folks" are now so far along in years that they do active work on the farm and have turned the place over to Nick, who will manage it in future. Recently, Nick received some Mongolian pheasants from Elmer

Holsinger, of the Western Union office in this city, and he proposes to breed this kind of game bird to quite an extent.

Nick is well known in Salem and the cities of Western Oregon, and his friends wish him all of the success possible in his new home.

"If the Cap Fits, Wear It."

If you are suffering from the consequences of impure blood,—have boils, pimples or scrofula sores; if your blood does not digest, or you suffer from catarrh or rheumatism, you are the one who should take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It will fit your case exactly, make your blood pure and cure salt rheum, scrofula, rheumatism, dyspepsia, catarrh, and give you perfect health.

HOOD'S PILLS cure all liver ills. Non-irritating.

A HEART OF IRON.—When dressing a beef at the E. C. Cross slaughter house southeast of this city, one day last week, the butchers were considerably astonished to find imbedded in the wall of the animal's heart, a piece of wire, presumably baling wire, about three inches in length, which had very probably been masticated with the food and passed through the animal's digestive organs, finally lodging against the heart where it became attached and, when found, was almost covered by a fatty growth. Otherwise the animal was apparently in the best of health.

We give no rewards. An offer of this kind is the means of deceptions. Test the curative powers of Ely's Cream Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the Head and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediately and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. It soothes and heals the membrane. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail, Ely Brothers, 26 Warren Street, New York.

A QUARTERLY REPORT.—President T. M. Gatch, of the state agricultural college of Corvallis, yesterday filed his quarterly report for the three months ending September 30th. The report shows funds at the opening of the quarter amounting to $59,409.52, with expenditures during the quarter of $35,181.39, leaving an unexpended balance of $24,228.22. In concluding his report, President Gatch says: "There is no provision for the college sewer, now in course of construction, which will cost $3,899.64, exclusive of local connections and contingent expenses."

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by J. H. Lunn, druggist.

ACTION FOR MONEY.—Alexander LaPollet, executor of the last will and testament of David Townsend, deceased, has begun suit in department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court, against J. A. Dimick. Judgment for $250, with 8 per cent interest from September 17, 1892, and $50 attorneys fees is asked for. The amount is alleged to be due on a promissory note executed by defendant to the decedent (D. Townsend) in 1892. W. T. Slater and W. M. Kaiser are attorneys for the plaintiff.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by J. H. Lunn, druggist.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—Chas. Beason, one of the employes of Hansen & Landon's planing mill, had the misfortune to have a quantity of lumber fall on him while he was unloading a car on Mill street, yesterday morning. Two ribs were fractured and he was otherwise seriously bruised. Dr. W. S. Mott was called to attend the injured man, and he soon reduced the fracture and made the patient comfortable.

CONVICT LABOR.—State Treasurer C. S. Moore yesterday received from the Loewenberg & Going Company a remittance of $904.82, being the amount due the state for convict labor furnished the said company for the month of September.

That Joyful Feeling

Buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

WILL WED.—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday by County Clerk W. W. all, as follows: Wm. Jerman and Mollie Johnson; L. J. Adams, witness; Anton Van Handal and Annie Giebler, John Giebler, witness.

W. F. Brown, the painter, is at the Shets Indian agency, where he is doing the painting of the new building in course of construction and to be used as a kitchen, dormitory, and dining hall. He recently finished similar work on the new buildings at the Salem Indian training school.

Hon. William Waldo left yesterday on a several months' tour of the Middle West and then to California. He will go as far east as Chicago and on returning expects to come via San Francisco.

AN OREGON MAN IS NAMED

Ex-Governor W. P. Lord Is Appointed

MINISTER TO ARGENTINA

The Able Jurist Will Accept Position Offered—Salary Is $10,000 Per Annum.

(From Daily, Oct. 24th.)

Ex-Governor W. P. Lord, of this city, was yesterday appointed by President Wm. McKinley, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the Argentine Republic, at an annual salary of $10,000. Ex-Governor Lord will accept the important position that has been tendered him.

There have been rumors current on Salem's streets for a number of days to the effect that such an appointment had been made, in fact a Portland paper made editorial mention of the appointment on Sunday, but the reports were not officially confirmed until late yesterday afternoon. When seen early yesterday afternoon and before the confirmatory message had been received, ex-Governor Lord informed a Statesman reporter that the announcement of the appointment had been prematurely made, that the appointment would scarcely be made before the latter part of the week.

The appointment of ex-Governor Lord is a high compliment to the ability of Oregon's former chief executive. By his official career in military life, his many years faithful service in the supreme court and as Oregon's chief executive, he is in every way pre-eminently qualified for the important position to which he has been appointed.

The position ranks next to the highest diplomatic offices, the salary for which is $17,500. The office ranks with that of minister to Brazil, Italy or Spain and the expenses are not so

THE WHITE RIBBONERS.

Several Important Changes in the W. C. T. U. Constitution.

Seattle, Oct. 21.—In the consideration of three important amendments to the constitution of the organization, and in celebrating the silver jubilee of the society, the delegates to W. C. T. U. convention passed the second day of the session. Two of the three amendments were adopted. One of these removes the headquarters of the national organization from Chicago, where they have been located for many years, to Evanston, Illinois, at Rest cottage, late the home of Miss Frances Willard. The vote was 174 for and 22 against removal.

TRULY APPRECIATIVE.

"Do you appreciate poetry?" asked the serious young woman.

"Yes, indeed," answered Mr. Cunnorox. "There's one piece of poetry that has done me a world of good. Old as I am, there are times when I couldn't tell how to figure without saying, 'Thirty days hath September, April, June and November.'"—Washington Star.

HIS BRIDE'S PORTRAIT.

Retouched Every Year to Show the Changes of Time.

There is a peculiar portrait in Washington which has created much interest among those who know of its existence. Its peculiarity is that every year it has been changed to show the changes which time would have made in the original. The portrait is by a Washington artist and is that of his wife, and was painted many years ago, when she was a young bride.

A few years after the portrait was painted the young lady died, and so great was the grief of the artist that he determined to keep her likeness with him all the time, and to do so he decided that year by year he would change the portrait so as to make it grow old with him and thus keep her, as it were, ever with him.

BOTH FOR ONE PRICE.

The Weekly Oregonian and Twice-a-Week Statesman for $1.50—A Liberal Offer.

The Statesman has made very advantageous clubbing arrangements with the Weekly Oregonian.

The price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50 per year. The price of the Weekly Statesman, when paid in advance, is one dollar a year (and it will be issued in two sections, on Tuesdays and Fridays, after January 1st.) This makes $2.50 for both papers.

But our price for the two, at least until January 1st, will be $1.50. That is, you will get both papers for what you have heretofore paid for one, and you will get the Statesman twice a week, eight pages at a time.

great, Ex-Governor Lord was offered the ministry to Persia several weeks ago, but declined the appointment. Owing to the importance of the position, the secretary of the legation is named by the department of state.

Ex-Governor Lord and family will probably leave for his post of duty in about a month. Minister Lord will reside in Buenos Ayres, the capital of the Argentine Republic, a city of about 500,000 population.

The following is the Associated Press dispatch received by the Statesman last evening, which confirms the appointment of ex-Governor W. P. Lord:

Washington, Oct. 23.—William P. Lord, of Oregon, has been appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the Argentine Republic. Ex-Governor Lord will succeed William I. Buchanan, who has resigned his position as United States minister to Argentina, to take effect at the expiration of his leave of absence, to accept the position of director-general of the Pan-American exposition. The salary of the minister is $10,000 per annum.

ABOUT 2000 YEARS OLD.

In the course of excavations at Bruges in connection with the west basin of the port, a boat dating before the Christian era has been discovered, says a Brussels correspondent of the London Daily Mail. The boat, which is of oak, is about 39 feet long and seven feet broad, and its mast, which is broken in four pieces, was apparently about 24 feet high. It was unearthed at a depth of 20 feet and must have been stranded when the sea covered part of Bruges, a period anterior to the Christian era.

WILL PURCHASE A CANNON

Prompt Action Taken by War Department.

IN OREGON'S SUPREME COURT

Three Opinions Rendered—In Each Instance Judgment of Lower Court is Affirmed.

(From Daily, Oct. 24th.)

The members of Oregon's gallant regiment of volunteers—the justly famous Second Oregon—are each to receive a bronze medal as an evidence of the appreciation of the people of the state for their noble services.

That those medals will be manufactured for distribution among the volunteers is now assured, for Governor T. T. Geer yesterday received from the war department a letter informing him that the department had authorized the purchase of a Spanish gun to be used in casting medals for the Oregon volunteers.

The following is the text of the letter bearing date of October 17th, from Secretary of War Elihu Root, and received by Governor Geer yesterday:

"Having reference to my letter of a few days ago, informing you that General Otis has been cabled to send by early transport, if possible, an old bronze cannon from the Philippines, to cast medals for the Oregon volunteers, I beg to quote cablegram of this date from Major General Otis and reply thereto:

"Only one bronze cannon in store. Captured by Nebraska. Those taken at capitulation of Manila, returned to Spain. Can secure one for Oregon at low price if desired. Otis."

"Otis, Manila: Secretary of War authorizes purchase of gun for Oregon. Forward same to San Francisco. Corbin."

"I doubt if there is any appropriation from which we can pay for this, but we must not let the boys go without their medals, if we have to pay the bill ourselves. Of course, the gun will be as truly a captured cannon as if it had never been returned to the Spaniards."

The supreme court yesterday handed down three decisions and in each instance the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. The cases decided were:

State of Oregon, respondent, vs. L. Schuman, appellant. Judgment of the lower court affirmed; opinion by Moore, J.

E. K. Jones & Co., respondent, vs. City of Portland, appellant. Judgment of the lower court affirmed; opinion by Bean, J.

U. S. G. Marquam, respondent, vs. George C. Sears, appellant. Judgment of the lower court affirmed; opinion by Wolverton, C. E.

In addition to rendering the above opinions, the court made several orders as follows:

S. B. Catterlin, appellant, vs. A. Bush respondent, and Watson & Beekman, respondent, vs. Southern Oregon Company, appellant. Argued and submitted, on motion to dismiss the appeal.

E. F. Hannum, et al., respondents, vs. C. P. Drown, et al., appellants; time to serve and file abstract extended twenty days on stipulation.

J. T. Osborn, respondent, vs. Newberg Orchard Association, appellant; argued and submitted on motion to affirm judgment on the grounds of abandonment of appeal.

Mrs. J. Hammer, respondent, vs. F. O. Downing, et al., appellants; ordered on stipulation of the parties that respondent may have until and including January 1, 1900, in which to prepare and file his brief herein.

Edward Hanan, respondent, vs. J. R. Greenfield, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county. Argued and submitted.

Rudolph Koerner and Fred Myer, respondents, vs. The Willamette Iron Works, appellant; appeal from Clackamas county. Argued and submitted.

H. Marks, respondent, vs. W. R. Willis, appellant; ordered on motion that plaintiff's exhibit O (claim against A. Mark's estate) be returned to the clerk of Douglas county for delivery to the owner thereof.

James R. Smith, et al., respondents, vs. M. W. Wilkins, et al., appellants; ordered on motion of appellant that the time for serving abstract be further extended twenty days.

Jeff Williams Jr., administrator, appellant, vs. S. J. Culver, respondent; ordered on motion that respondent be excused from printing an additional abstract, the additional matter to be printed in his brief.

Isaac Carson, appellant, vs. E. H. Lauer, et al., respondent; ordered on motion that appellant have until December 1, 1899, to serve and file the abstract.

M. J. Morrier, respondent, vs. The O. R. & N. Co., appellant; ordered on stipulation that respondent's time to serve brief be extended twenty days.
