

NEW BOARDERS ARE FEW

ONLY ONE PRISONER RECEIVED AT PENITENTIARY THIS MONTH.

Superintendent J. D. Lee Makes Award of Contracts for Supplies for Receiving Six Months.

(From Daily, Jan. 13th.)

There were yesterday incarcerated in the state penitentiary in this city, 315 prisoners serving sentences for various crimes. In fact, the number of prisoners has practically not varied in the least at any time thus far this month.

Since the first of the year, one prisoner only has been received at the penal institution, while not a single man has been discharged, having completed his sentence. This is rather an unusual record, for generally the number of boarders changes from day to day by the reception of new men or the release of prisoners upon expiration of sentences.

The only prisoner that has been received this month is Charles Lawrence, who was committed from Multnomah county under an eighteen-months' sentence, having been convicted of the crime of larceny. Lawrence was registered at the penitentiary last Monday.

Superintendent J. D. Lee has awarded the contracts for supplies to be furnished the penitentiary for the ensuing six months. The bids were opened on Monday afternoon. They were not considered in the aggregate, but by classification, the minimum quotation for each article being favorably considered. As a consequence no one firm received the contract in its entirety for a single line of goods or supplies. This system, though it is a tedious task, involving much additional clerical work on the part of officials, results in a substantial saving to the state in the purchase of supplies.

It will be observed that no award was made for fish, although the Steiner market, of this city, was the only firm that submitted a bid. Superintendent Lee concluded that fish, under the existing market quotations, was too expensive, when beef could be had at $8.35 per hundred. He decided not to award the contract for this article.

The only bid that was submitted for a sewing machine for the tailoring department was also rejected for the reason that the figure asked was considered greater than the need of the machine warranted the expenditure of. A Portland party offered the machine for $60 cash or $70 on the installment plan.

The awards made by Superintendent Lee are as follows:

- Beef—E. C. Cross, $8.35 per 100 pounds.
Groceries—Divided between Harritt & Lawrence, John Hughes and Weller Bros., all Salem firms.
Fish—No award made.
Flour—Red Star Flouring Mills, Robertson Bros., proprietors, of Turner, at $2.38 per barrel.
Leather and Shoe Shop Supplies—Breyman Leather Company, of Portland.
Woolen Goods—T. Kay Wooien Mills, of Salem.
Blacksmith Supplies—R. M. Wade, $2.80.
Engineer Supplies—Knox & Murphy, $1.65.
Dry Goods—Meier & Frank Company, of Portland.
Drugs—Divided between D. J. Fry, of Salem, and the Blumauer Frank Company, of Portland.

THE MONTANA CASE

INVESTIGATION INTO BRIBERY CHARGES CONTINUES.

A Utah Legislator Testifies Against Senator Clark, Alleging a Contention Made by Him.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—In the case of Senator Clark, of Montana, the first regular witness was M. L. Hewitt, a miner, who was in Helena during the session of the legislature in 1899. He said that Charles Clark, son of Senator Clark, asked him to see Senator Myers and offer him $1000 to vote for Clark for senator.

Charles W. Jackson, a newspaper man residing in Salt Lake City, and a member of the legislature of that state, testified that he met Senator Clark in Salt Lake City during the senatorial deadlock in that state, last February, and that Clark had tried to influence him to vote for McCune, for United States senator from Utah, intimating that, in case he would do so, he would be paid for the act.

Jackson said he had declined, and that Clark had then proceeded to argue the point, saying it was the custom of men of wealth to spend money to secure an election to the senate. Jackson said Clark cited the case of Senator Hanna, of Ohio, as in point. He said that Clark stated that in his own case he had used money to secure his own election.

FIGHTING FILIPINOS.

MANILA, Jan. 13.—Advices from Cebu report a sharp fight on January 8th, between a battalion of the Nineteenth infantry and a body of insurgents occupying a strong position in the Sudlon mountains. The enemy was routed, the Americans capturing a smooth-bore cannon, some rifles and destroying the fortifications. Four Americans were wounded.

The insurgent general, Flores, having established a rendezvous with 100 men at Humangan, province of Nueva Viscaya, Captain Benson, with two troops of the Fourth cavalry, was sent to dislodge him. The insurgents were scattered, their horses captured, and the position was burned, the Americans sustaining no loss.

The American forces yesterday occupied Magallanes, a province of Cavite, capturing twenty insurgents, including a colonel.

FOR ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Woodburn's City Council Will Make a Contract.

WOODBURN (Or.) Jan. 13.—The residents of this usually quiet and peaceful community have been considerably exercised during the past ten days by reason of charges of corruption that have been made in connection with Woodburn's municipal affairs.

The trouble originated with the efforts of the common council to provide the city with an electric street lighting service. About January 1st, A. B. Kurtz, formerly of Portland, established in this city an electric light plant of 65 horse-power capacity and at once began negotiations with the city council for lighting the streets. Several propositions were made to the council but definite action in the matter was postponed from time to time until finally a sensational report was circulated concerning one of the aldermen. He was openly charged with having approached Mr. Kurtz, of whom he solicited a consideration of $50 for his vote and support in awarding the desired contract to Mr. Kurtz. The report was widely circulated and created most intense excitement, the streets being the scenes of unusual demonstrations throughout the day.

The unpleasant factional quarrel, which threatened to prove a bitter and prolonged conflict, very happily terminated at a special meeting of the council tonight, when Mr. Kurtz was awarded a two-years' contract for lighting the streets with ten 250 candle power arc lamps, at $68 per month, payable monthly. The final adjustment of the matter gives general satisfaction.

At tonight's meeting the council decided not to make a general tax levy for the city and only levied a special 2 mill tax for bridge purposes.

In Justice Hayes' court today, before a jury, J. H. Richards, a local real estate man, obtained a verdict for $60 and costs, against J. Elam Ross, the amount alleged to be due as commission for selling a farm for the defendant. F. G. Eby and J. C. Johnson were attorneys for the plaintiff, E. P. Morcom appearing for the defendant.

There is no extensive building going on in Woodburn at the present time. In the spring John Egan and J. H. Settlemier will construct a two-story brick building on Main street on the property south of the Oregon saloon.

Dr. Chas. Stuart, formerly located at Buena Vista, is now practicing medicine in this city.

Dr. J. D. Shaw, of Salem, is expected soon to locate in this city.

THE ELM BRANCH.

Seattle, Jan. 12.—The British steamship, Elm Branch is off Cape Flattery with a broken propeller, and two tugs have gone to her assistance. A dispatch from Neah Bay stated that the steamer Elith Thompson had just passed on, after having sighted the steamer Elm Branch disabled and at anchor four miles off Flattery rocks. The Elith Thompson had given the Elm Branch a hawser, but soon after parted it and came in to report her. The Elm Branch, Captain Hiff, is en route to Portland, Or. from Nagasaki and is twenty-five days out today. She is without a cargo.

HIGH WATERS.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 12.—Tonight a telephone message was received here, saying the business portion of Kendrick, Idaho, was under water, the Potlatch river having overflowed its banks. The water was said to be three feet deep in the principal streets. The recent rains and warm weather have swollen the rivers of Northern Idaho.

PEN PICTURE OF ROBERTS.

There was a great crowd gathered to see the new congress come in. The corridors of the capitol were filled with citizens and strangers as early as 9 o'clock in the morning, although the house did not meet until 12. Most of them were women, and Roberts, the man with three wives, was the first person they inquired for when they got into the gallery. When he was pointed out to them they saw a perfect specimen of physical manhood, as dignified and self-controlled as any Christian martyr that ever fought the wild beasts at Ephesus. Mr. Roberts is a handsome man. His face is as fine as his figure. He is 6 feet 2 inches in height, and well proportioned. His head is large and intellectual. His face is intelligent, and shows force of character. His abundant hair is curly and he wears a heavy moustache. His complexion is clear and almost rosy. He has a frank, clear eye, a perfect set of large white teeth, a nose of a field marshal, and a heavy chin, denoting firmness and determination.—Chicago Record.

A DEPARTMENT STORE.

New York, Jan. 12.—Charles Elwers and Laura Sternberg, proprietors of the Grand Bazaar, a Brooklyn department store, have made an assignment. Liabilities, $56,662; assets, $77,997.

Loyalty to His Employer.

That young man who had a vein opened and a portion of his blood let out, so that it might save the life of his employer, set a remarkable example of heroism. The incident shows what power there is in good blood. As soon as the broken down system received the pure blood of this young fellow the patient regained his strength. "The blood is the life." There is only one natural way to get good blood, and that is from the stomach. If it needs assistance, bring Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to the rescue. This wonderful medicine aids it in its digestion of food, and furnishes the system with rich red blood. When this is done, health naturally follows.

ARTISTIC METHODS.

"Have you any special method of hanging pictures artistically?" "Yes; I try not to hang them upside down."—Chicago Record.

A GIRL'S VERY SAD PLIGHT

KIDNAPPED BY TRAINMEN AND LOCKED IN A FREIGHT CAR.

Her Terrible Experience During One Night—Released the Following Day in an Awful Condition.

Cottage Grove, Or., Jan. 10.—(From Roseburg Review).—Miss Winnie Thorne, who disappeared Sunday night was returned home on Tuesday morning overland, in a wretched condition. Her story and experience as told is one of the worst crimes ever perpetrated in the state.

She says that as she was on her way to Latham from church services here, the southbound freight train was just before the train started two men caught her and put her on a flat car, she not knowing what transpired until the train got nearly to Comstock, when she was put in a box car. Between there and Roseburg four men shamefully mistreated her. The box car was locked and she was kept there until about noon the next day, when two strange men let her out. She went to a house and got something to eat and ascertained where her uncle lived, some two miles distant. Upon reaching there she was given some food and was brought back to the station and furnished a ticket for Cottage Grove.

Marshal Miller took her home from the station. When crossing the bridge she attempted to jump into the river, saying she was disgraced and had nothing to live for.

Sheriff Withers and Prosecuting Attorney Harris, of Eugene, came up and are investigating the case. A physician states that the case is fully as bad as reported. Three warrants were sworn out, and the sheriff and constable left on this afternoon's train for Roseburg, where further developments will be made.

There has been so many rumors regarding this affair that the Review has probed the matter sufficiently to give the facts that are really material. The dispatches from Cottage Grove, printed in the Oregonian and other papers, are in many respects incorrect, in material points. Miss Thorne says that she was on her way to Latham from a temperance lecture at Cottage Grove, Sunday, the southbound freight train was just this side of Latham taking wood. Just before the train started two men caught her and put her on a flat car, she not knowing what transpired until the train got nearly to Comstock, when she realized that she was in a box car and that a man, supposed to be U. Patterson, a brakeman, was with her. Later on, after he left her, another brakeman came into the car and gave her an overcoat, telling her that he could not take her into the caboose, because the conductor would get on to it. When the train reached Roseburg late at night a brakeman put her into the caboose, telling her he would go and find a room for her, after which he went away, locking the door, and did not return. The girl does not accuse four men of assaulting her, and the rumors that Conductor Bickett and Brakeman Brown were implicated in any way are without a shadow of foundation, and whatever of a criminal nature occurred they had no knowledge of it at all. As Miss Thorne's character at Cottage Grove and Latham a thorough inquiry establishes it to have been without reproach or stain. The officers look with distrust only upon her statement that she was drugged.

On Monday forenoon about 11 o'clock, Mr. Inspector Thomas Patterson and another employe of the company went into the yards to repair a broken window in the caboose where Miss Thorne was confined as a prisoner. There they found the lonely, deserted girl, shivering with cold and fright, with her eyes swollen and red from crying. She would not tell her story, so Mr. Patterson told her if she wished to get a place to work she might go and inquire at Mrs. Carrier's boarding house. This she consented to do, but apparently misunderstood his directions and asked at other houses for work in order to buy a ticket to Cottage Grove. Finally she came to the house of G. W. Kruse, at the corner of Jackson and Lane streets, and was given dinner there. She talked little of her circumstances, but finally told them that John Wiles, who lives near the soldiers' home, was her uncle. She was told how to go there and walked most of the way. Mr. Wiles had never seen her, but received her kindly, but realizing that she was in trouble and would not talk regarding it, brought her back to town. He, also, purchased her a ticket to Cottage Grove, telling her to go home and confide in her parents, and made arrangements at the Roseburg hotel to have her looked after and placed upon the train. The next heard about the case was the published reports emanating from Cottage Grove. Miss Thorne is about 15 years old.

District Attorney Brown thoroughly investigated the case yesterday, and one result of his inquiries will be the arrest of Brakeman U. Patterson, if he can be located. Probably getting wind of coming trouble, he disappeared at Hudson Wednesday night, and the trainmen reported him left while off the train fleeing, but as he failed to report either to the Roseburg or Portland railroad offices, his getting left was probably intentional. The following morning (Thursday) Constable Veatch of Cottage Grove, went north along the road on the same train, hoping Patterson would rejoin his crew, but was disappointed. Officers kept the telephone and telegraph wires hot all day yesterday, but nothing was learned of his whereabouts. Patterson is 24 years old and resides in Albany.

SET FIRE TO KANSAS PRAIRIE.

Prominent Federal Official Responsible for Great Conflagration.

The greatest prairie fire known in Kansas was in the year 1890, and it was wantonly set by an agent of the United States government. This of- ficer is now in Washington, and during the Spanish war his name was more frequently in the papers than any other, says the Kansas City Journal. He was, and is, one of the chiefs of the subsistence department and in the beef investigations he was very prominent. One day in 1890 he and a party of officers from Fort Hays were returning from a wild turkey hunt in the canyons of the Saline. The wind was blowing a hurricane and when a stop was made on a high prairie some ten miles north of Hays this officer deliberately touched a match to the dry, crisp grass in order to make a sport of the boys. When the other officers saw what he was about to do they made a desperate effort to stop him, but the deed had been done and the red flames were reeling across the prairie like a frightened antelope. That fire swept from where it had been started clear across Kansas into what is now Oklahoma. The streams and roads offered no obstacles to it whatever. While going south it also turned to the east and left a trail of ruin across Rice, Reno, Kingman, Harper and other counties. Thousands of settlers were burned out. When not only their houses and their stock, but also their horses and cattle. If the man who set that fire had been known to the settlers all the troops on the plains would not have been enough to stay their vengeance. As it was, he suffered remorse beyond description.

ALL TO COOPERATE

PORTLAND'S COMMERCIAL BODY WILL ASSIST C. OF C.

Plan of Salem Organization to Dispatch an Immigration Agent Is Endorsed.

(From Daily, Jan. 16th.)

A splendid spirit of co-operation exists among the various commercial organizations of the Willamette valley. This condition will redound to the benefit of every community and to the state at large. It is a very laudable spirit and its efficiency will be evidenced in many important matters that will come up for consideration. The appended letter, under date of the 10th inst., was yesterday received by Henry B. Thielsen, secretary of the Salem Chamber of Commerce, from the Portland commercial body:

"At a meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce, President Beebe reported having had a conversation with you in which you expressed the desire that this Chamber of Commerce could see its way clear to co-operating with your chamber in matters of public interest to the state, and the undersigned was instructed to advise you that in every matter that comes up before the Salem Board of Trade, where co-operation is desired and advisable, the Portland Chamber of Commerce will be only too glad to hear from you and to act, as far as it lies in its power, with you in any such public matters."

"It is the earnest desire of this chamber to co-operate with all the Chambers of Commerce or Boards of Trade in the state in any such matters."

"We are, sir, yours very truly, D. D. Olyphant, secretary."

The plan of the local Chamber of Commerce, through its aggressive secretary, Henry B. Thielsen, to provide the necessary funds with which to dispatch an immigration agent to the eastern states, is recognized as a most important undertaking. In response to personal letters that were recently addressed by Secretary Thielsen to the presidents of the commercial organizations, or, in the absence of such, to some prominent citizen, of the principal cities of Marion and Polk counties, several replies have been received.

The scheme is generally endorsed as an excellent one, although there appears to be some difficulty for some of the towns to procure the necessary subscriptions to discharge the assessment that has been levied. Each town will be expected to contribute to the proposed fund of $800 in proportion to its population. Upon this apportionment Salem's share will be about 50 per cent of the total amount.

The following favorable letter was yesterday received by Secretary Thielsen from T. J. Graves, of McCoy:

"I am in receipt of yours of the 3d inst. in reference to the employment of an immigration agent for Marion and Polk counties."

"Your plan meets my hearty approval and will interview such of the citizens of this vicinity as will likely co-operate and will advise you at an early date of the result."

"By a concentrated effort of the localities interested in this important plan, the funds could be readily provided and an agent be sent by the first of the coming month. In fact, if an agent is to be employed it is essential that a contract be closed with him at once that he may reach his field of labor in time to influence Oregon's proportionate share of the spring immigration."

"Petty jealousies and sectional differences should be dropped and all join hands to further the proposition that has been inaugurated by the Salem Chamber of Commerce and which so vitally concerns the entire Willamette valley."

AN EXCUSE THAT FAILED.

Charles Miller, a Standard Oil magnate whose home is in Franklin, Pennsylvania, has a precocious son less than ten years old in whom hard business sense and worldly caution are highly developed. One day Mr. Miller said to his son:

"My boy, it's time for you to go to bed. I want you to get up bright and early tomorrow and go to church with me."

"I don't think I care about going to church tomorrow," replied Master Miller.

"Why not?" "Last Sunday the preacher said he was going to preach 'the devil'."

"Well?" "I know he will say lots of hard things about the devil—awful hard things about him."

"Well?" "Don't you think, papa, that if we listened to that sermon it would be rather unpleasant if we ever met the devil some day?"

But the boy went to church in spite of his clever excuse.

SPORT AMONG THE AFRICANS.

Black Boys Take Up the Pastimes of the English.

Long ago it was noted that wherever Englishmen went they took their national pastime with them; and on a recent "off day" at Mafeking, when the Boers had for a few hours ceased bombarding, a cricket match was organized by the beleaguered garrison.

There are other parts of the Dark Continent in which civilization is accompanied and stimulated by athletics, and an interesting testimony is to hand upon that head from St. Andrew's college, Kinangani, which owes existence to the Universities' Mission to Central Africa. Of all the games played there by the boys, some of whom are freed slaves, football has the first place in popularity, though a few boys have shown a desire to learn a little more about cricket, and the smaller ones have a partiality for rowing.

They had last season four "first class" matches of football, two of which they won and two they lost. In the first,

MOTION IS DENIED

CATTERLIN-BUSH APPEAL CASE IS STILL AT ISSUE.

Supreme Court Holds That Legislative Act Regulating Appeals Is Not Retrospective-Opinions.

(From Daily, Jan. 16th.)

The supreme court handed down seven opinions yesterday, in cases heretofore argued. Among the seven cases is one from Marion county, as follows:

S. B. Catterlin, appellant, vs. A. Bush, respondent; appeal from Marion county. Hon. George H. Burnett, judge; on motion to dismiss the appeal; motion denied. Opinion per curiam. This was a motion to dismiss the appeal because the transcript was not filed in time. The question involved was whether the act of February 22, 1899, amending section 541 of the code, applied to appeals taken and perfected before it went into effect. The court holds that, while the statute might be considered retroactive, "we are not disposed to give it such a construction. The right to an appeal is a valuable one, and while it is purely statutory and may be modified or perhaps entirely done away with by statute, a legislative intent to do so ought not to be inferred from doubtful statutory provisions."

The cases decided are: Leo Hammerlynck, respondent, vs. M. C. Banfield and Thomas Rand, appellants; appeal from Multnomah county, Hon. E. D. Shattuck, judge; affirmed. Opinion by Associate Justice C. E. Wiltverton.

Conrad Young, respondent, vs. Wm. Frazier, et al., appellants; appeal from Multnomah county, Hon. E. D. Shattuck, judge; reversed. Opinion by Associate Justice F. A. Moore.

T. A. Garbade, respondent, vs. The Larch Mountain Investment Company appellant; appeal from Multnomah county, Hon. A. L. Frazier, judge; on motion to affirm judgment; motion overruled. Opinion per curiam.

J. T. Osborn, respondent, vs. Newberg Orchard Association, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county, Hon. A. L. Frazier, judge; on motion for affirmation of judgment; judgment affirmed. Opinion per curiam.

Otto Morrell, vs. Otto Morrell, J. R. Stoddard, et al., respondents; vs. Chas. F. Lord, et al., appellants; appeal from Multnomah county, Hon. E. D. Shattuck, judge; affirmed. Opinion by Associate Justice F. A. Moore.

Minor orders were made as follows: L. Wilhelm, et al., appellants, vs. R. C. Smith, et al., respondents; ordered on motion that respondents' time to serve and file their brief be further extended thirty days.

Ella Rathbone, administratrix, respondent, vs. The O. R. & N. Co., appellants; ordered on stipulation that appellant's time to serve and file its brief herein be extended to February 10th.

E. F. Hannum, et al., respondents, vs. C. P. Brown, et al., appellants; ordered on stipulation that appellants' have until February 15th to serve and file their brief.

David M. Dunne, et al., respondents, vs. Portland Street Railway Co., et al., appellants; ordered on stipulation that appellants have until February 10th to serve and file their brief.

Geo. C. Mellott, appellant, vs. F. O. Downing, et al., respondents; motion for rule on clerk to supply omission in transcript; allowed.

Thomas Spencer, respondent, vs. J. P. Carlson, appellant; appeal from Clatsop county, Hon. T. A. McBride, judge; reversed and complaint dismissed. Opinion by Associate Justice R. S. Beane.

E. B. Watson, et al., respondents, vs. Southern Oregon Company, appellants; motion to dismiss appeal overruled.

J. L. Lewis, respondent, vs. John Craft, et al., appellants; motion to dismiss appeal overruled.

A. G. Brauer, respondent, vs. City of Portland, appellant; appellant's petition for a rehearing of the case denied.

The Northwest Door Company, appellants, vs. S. Tomlinson, et al., respondents, and H. J. Fisher, et al., appellants, vs. S. Tomlinson, respondent; rule on clerk to supply omission in transcript allowed.

The case of W. H. Saylor, respondent, vs. Christy Oakes and Thomas Duffy, appellants, and the Dundee Mortgage & Trust Company, respondent, vs. John H. Goodman, appellant, both appeals from Multnomah county, were argued and submitted.
