

One Woman to Another

From one who has suffered to all who are suffering. The words of Mrs. Nellie Cameron, of Lockport, N. Y., convey a broad meaning to every thoughtful woman. I had stomach trouble in the very worst form. Nothing at all would stay on my stomach, and I had to almost starve myself. My side pained rapidly; I dropped from 135 to 97 pounds, growing weaker all the time. There was not the slightest color in my face. I was simply a shadow of my former self. Able physicians treated me, but failed absolutely. I was a complete wreck when a friend told me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. One box greatly improved my condition; it was astonishing how quickly they built me up. I believe.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People saved my life.

I was enabled to sleep, and in the morning I felt refreshed and rested. My stomach was strengthened, what I ate benefited me, my weight increased, and I soon regained all I had lost. I am now well and strong. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 12th day of Decr. 1899.
STACY D. BEHRE, Notary Public.

All womankind should know and understand the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Sold by all druggists. Prepared only by THE DR. WILLIAMS MEDICINE CO., Schenectady, N. Y.

IN LOCAL POLITICS

CANDIDATES FOR THE VARIOUS OFFICES ARE APPEARING.

They Are Pressing Their Claims for Recognition—Many Desire to Be County Judge.

(From Daily, Jan. 20th.)

Things political in Marion county, preparatory to the campaign that will end at the June election, are beginning to assume a state of activity. It will be noticed that the populist party central committee has had a preliminary meeting and while they have done nothing definite, the opposition to the republican forces is beginning to get into line. There seems to be a fair air of confidence in the republican ranks. For the dominant party there has been no call yet for any meetings, excepting club meetings, and it will probably be the first of March or thereabouts before any other meetings are held.

Up to a few weeks ago there seemed few candidates for the various county offices, but this aspect of affairs has radically changed since, and now various names are mentioned in connection with the paying places in the gift of the electors of "Old Marion."

It is said that the friends of Frank T. Wrightman have been urging that gentleman to become a candidate on the republican ticket for county judge. Mr. Wrightman has many well-wishers throughout the county who are confident of his abilities, and who regard him as deserving of any honor which he may seek, or rather which may seek him.

For the same office John H. Scott's name is mentioned. Mr. Scott is a rising young attorney and a very vigorous and straightforward business man. He has grown up here, and has by his strict adherence to correct principles secured for himself a firm place in the public esteem.

The present incumbent, Judge G. P. Terrell, is understood to be a candidate for re-election.

It is reported that John M. Watson, of Turner, ex-county commissioner, would not be averse to accepting the nomination for county judge on this ticket.

Ex-Judge W. C. Hubbard is also said to be a candidate for the same place.

Some of the people of the north end of the county connect the name of Hon. W. T. Grimm with this distinction.

For county assessor there are several candidates in the field. The friends of the present incumbent, J. W. Hobart, assert that his good record should entitle him to another term in this important office.

Henry C. Porter, of Aumsville, is mentioned in this connection. His neighbors say that he is especially qualified for the duties of the place and they think he is deserving of the honors thereof.

There seems no one to dispute the claims of either A. L. Downing, county treasurer, or J. H. Roland, county recorder, to a re-nomination and re-election.

For the nomination for the office of sheriff there are several candidates. It is said that Alonzo T. Wain would not hesitate to make the race again, if called upon to do so by the republicans in county convention assembled, and it is promised by his friends that if he is so called upon he certainly will make a successful run.

Hon. David H. Looney, of Jefferson, is said by some to be in training for this nomination, but this is not stated here as a certainty.

Lieut. Chas. A. Murphy, of this city, is also said to be a candidate, his friends basing his claims for consideration upon the fact that he went to fight for his country in the Philippines.

Prof. George W. Jones will certainly succeed himself as county school superintendent, if he so desires. There is no one to dispute either his ability or his deserving qualities.

Various names are mentioned in connection with the legislative ticket, but the rumors are so many and uncertain that the reporter defers the mention of any or all of the candidates until such time as things in this particular contention shall have become somewhat more settled.

FOR FUTURE WORK

POPULIST CENTRAL COMMITTEE IN SESSION YESTERDAY.

Every Precinct in the County Represented—Vacancies in the Committee Were Filled.

(From Daily, Jan. 20th.)

The Marion county central committee of the populist party held a meeting at the city hall yesterday for the purpose of discussing the political situation, and preparing for the spring campaign. Among those matters attended to, the committee filled vacancies of committee men in the various precincts, where those chosen two years ago had vacated their positions.

Chairman George W. Weeks presided and John M. Payne acted as secretary. The preacher-politician of Salem No. 3, B. J. Sharpe, was conspicuous and made his presence known early by insisting that matters discussed should be kept from the public, which brought out the statement by a good-natured populist, that a political party which advocated the initiative and referendum could not afford to hold star chamber proceedings, and should do nothing that its members need be ashamed of. However, it was decided to permit no reporters to take the proceedings in detail.

Several resolutions were introduced and a warm discussion was had, but all matters were finally deferred until the next meeting, which will be held on Thursday, February 15th, at the city hall. One resolution by R. R. Ryan of North Salem, was to the effect that the people's party fuse with no other party, but put up its own ticket, and remain in "the middle of the road." The precinct committeemen for the various precincts are:

Aumsville—M. H. Speer.

A BIG CREAMERY

INDEPENDENCE MAY SECURE SUCH AN INSTITUTION.

Board of Trade Is Considering the Proposition—Salem Should Have One Also.

(From Daily, Jan. 20th.)

The need of creameries in the Willamette valley is too apparent to require any argument in support thereof. The value of such institutions to the valley has long been advocated, but until quite recently no active steps have been taken towards securing the re-establishing of these manufacturing in the valley.

During the past few weeks, however, a number of propositions for the location of creameries have been submitted to various communities in the valley and in many instances the propositions are receiving consideration.

It has been within the power of the Salem Chamber of Commerce to secure for Salem a creamery for which the usual large bonus has not been demanded, the only provision being the assurance of the daily delivery of a quantity of milk at the plant. Secretary Thielsen incidentally made inquiries soliciting pledges from several farmers for the delivery of milk in the event the creamery was established, but he was unable to interest those seen in the proposition. As a consequence, the promoter of the scheme was obliged to seek another location.

This is an important matter and some public spirited citizen should be found in this city who would volunteer to take the matter in hand and personally make a thorough canvass among the farmers in the country contiguous to Salem and secure pledges for the delivery of the required quantity of milk.

The Independence Board of Trade has interested itself in securing for that enterprising city a creamery. Concerning the matter, the last issue of the Enterprise contains the following: "A meeting of the Independence Board of Trade was held at the city hall on last Friday afternoon. President J. W. Kirkland called the meeting to order, and Frank Wilson explained thoroughly the creamery proposition. "David Calbreath then explained the process of butter making, after which Ira Smith, of Monmouth, spoke of his visits to creameries in Southern Oregon. George Skinner has had experience in sugar factory, etc., and addressed the board on the subject under consideration."

"A committee was appointed to solicit the remaining number of 300 cows, 155 having already been pledged. The committee consists of the following well-known men of Polk county: Frank Wilson, Alex. Turnbull, W. W. Percival, John Hoyster, J. B. Knowles, Geo. Skinner, David Calbreath, J. B. Parker, J. L. Stockton, A. Nelson, B. F. Whiteaker, A. L. Spurling, J. R. Cooper, Independence; E. N. Hall, Geo. McLaughlin, Buena Vista; I. M. Simpson, Airlie; Frank Laughry, J. B. Stump, Wm. Riddle, Ira S. Smith, of Monmouth; Wm. Fugua, Parker; I. A. Allen, Rickreall; O. A. Wolverson, Suver; T. W. Brunk, Eola."

"At the same meeting a proposition was read from the Salem board of trade soliciting funds from Independence, to be used in exploiting Oregon in the East."

"J. M. Mitchell also presented a proposition from John Lemmon and I. Claggett, who wish to raise $2,000, and as security give a mortgage on the sawmill to be established with this fund."

PRICES FOR HOPS

O. H. G. A. FINDS EASTERN MARKET NOT QUITE SATISFACTORY.

A. J. Ray, the Association's Agent, Returns from New York—An Interview with Him.

A. J. Ray, who was employed by the Oregon Hop Growers Association in the capacity of sales agent, and who accompanied the president of the association, M. L. Jones, of Brooks, to New York City to arrange for the sale of the hops pooled by the association, has returned to Portland. In an interview had yesterday with a Telegram reporter, Mr. Ray said: "The terms we secured for hops are not entirely satisfactory to the executive committee of the association which is negotiating further in the matter. I did not find the situation very encouraging for high prices. The best policy of the association, it seems to me, would be to accept all reasonable offers. My own position in the matter is in finding orders and not in making prices. I found a large number of orders, but the prices were not such as the association hoped to secure."

"Mr. Jones devoted considerable time to the passage of a pure-food-and-liquor law, and we secured the endorsement of the United States Breweries Association for the proposed bill. The secretary of the association declared that the alleged use of substitutes for hops in beer was not founded on fact, and that no such substitutes were now used. He also declared it in the interest of hopgrowers to cease the agitation, which has a tendency to restrict the sale of beer. In fact, because of this agitation, the consumption during the last year in the United States was 1,000,000 barrels less."

"I am more firmly convinced than ever that Oregon is the best hop section in the United States, and find our hops are constantly growing in favor. But the secret of success of the industry lies in production, not in marketing. With proper spraying, cultivation and harvesting, the grower in Oregon can raise the best hops in the United States. But the last year's crop is a detriment to our industry, and it will take us several years to regain the ground we have lost by reason of putting on the market poor hops."

James Winstanley, who has charge of the Salem office of the association, has returned from a business visit in Portland where he conferred with other officers of the association, but when seen yesterday afternoon, declined to make any statement, explaining that it was purely of a personal nature.

THE CITY SCHOOLS

BOARD OF DIRECTORS HELD A SESSION LAST NIGHT.

There Are 2619 Children of School Age in the District—Some Probable Recommendations.

(From Daily, Jan. 21st.)

The annual school meeting of the taxpayers of District No. 24 to be held in the city hall on Monday evening, the 20th inst, will be an interesting and important meeting.

The board of directors has not yet completed the preparation of its annual report showing the financial condition of the district, together with an estimate of the expenses for the ensuing year, to be submitted at the annual school meeting. It is understood that the report will show a saving to the district during the past year, of about $3000 over the expense of last year.

Among the recommendations to be made by the board at the annual meeting will probably be, that a special levy of one mill be levied for the purpose of placing a steam heating plant in the East Salem school, to replace the furnace that is now in use there and which is a constant item of expense in the matter of repairs.

It is understood that a majority of the board is in favor of and will recommend that an additional year be added to the present high school course, which embraces but nine grades.

At the regular meeting of the board of directors last night the bill of W. H. Savage for $30 for taking the school census was allowed. A certified statement from County Clerk W. W. Hall showing the valuation of taxable property in School District No. 24 to be $2,221,381, was read.

The board briefly considered the matter of levying a special tax of one mill for supplying the East school with steam heaters.

A summary of the school census, just completed, shows that there are 2619 children of school age residing within the district as follows: Boys 1289, girls 1330.

The salary of Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, as principal of the two central schools, upon motion of Director Cherrington was raised from $55 to $60 per month.

Upon motion the board adjourned to 7 p. m. Thursday evening, when a report to be read at the annual school meeting on the following Monday evening will be submitted.

NEEDED IN BUSINESS.

(Chicago Times-Herald.)

"I've decided," said the dignified old man, "to let you have that young Britely after all, if you are positive that you can't be happy without him."

"Oh, father!" the beautiful girl cried, "you don't know how happy you have made me. Now I can see the gates of paradise opening. Dear, dear, good old papa! Let me kiss you for those sweet words. Oh, I can hardly wait to fly to him and tell him the glorious news. He will be so glad! We shall all be so happy now. It seems almost like a lovely dream! I can hardly believe that I am awake. But, tell me, what has made you change your mind? Yesterday when I tried to plead for him you said you could never permit us to see each other again. Ah, if you had known how those words bruised my heart! What has happened, father, to make you relent?"

He kissed her fondly, and then, with tears in his eyes, replied: "I sat in a little game of poker where he happened to have a hand last night, and if we don't get that money back in the family some way my business is going to suffer."

BIG CONVENTION.

(Eugene Register.)

The representation for the republican county convention will be 184 delegates. We believe in large conventions. The more good solid republicans we have at the naming of the men who are to conduct county affairs for the next term the better. The enthusiasm of the county central committee yesterday indicates that the party will be on deck for a winning campaign this year.

CAMP MEETINGS CONTINUE.

Efforts of Brigadier Marshall in Connection with the Local Salvation Army's Missionary Work.

Brigadier and Mrs. Marshall have conducted some remarkable meetings in Salem the last few days and no doubt much good will be the result. Like good soldiers, they have fought the enemy of men's souls since coming to help and inspire the local workers.

Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church Brigadier Marshall gave a heart searching talk to a large congregation. In the afternoon he spoke at the Y. M. C. A. room to an audience composed of young people, and at night he led an inspiring meeting at the Army hall. Standing room was at a premium and those that attended expressed themselves as delighted. Five persons knelt at the penitent form at the close of the meeting and made their peace with their God.

Tonight reinforcement in the shape of Lieutenants Roshrock and Bowles, of Albany, will arrive, and Rev. J. J. Evans, of the First Christian church, will preach a sermon. It is said Lieutenant Bowles is a fine singer and musician, and is known in the Army as the Salvation nightingale. As the meetings are full of life and many are being blessed it is desired that those who have not attended as yet, will avail themselves of the privilege and attend the meetings.

CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY

Substantial Revival of Lumber Manufacturing in This State—A Paper Mill.

There are indications of great activity in the tall timber of both the Cascades and the Coast Range of mountains. There are rumors of big sawmills to go in at Astoria and south of there on the Nehalem River and on Tillamook bay.

The Curtis Lumber Company is making things hum up in the Santiam country with prospects of increasing their output a great deal in the near future.

At a great many points in Western Oregon, new mills are talked of. This talk includes a mammoth wood pulp paper mill on the Nehalem by the Hammond people.

The biggest mill operators of them all in Oregon, so far, are the Booth-Kelly people. The following from the Eugene Guard gives some news of their latest extensive operations:

"Ed Wegman came down from Wendling yesterday. The Booth-Kelly company's men are taking a few days lay off and will resume work Monday. They are waiting for arrival of balance of machinery. They will be ready to start the mill within the next three weeks."

"They have fifty-five men at work in and about the mill under direction of Mr. Wegman who is foreman of construction."

"From 90 to 100 logs are being put into the mill pond every day. By the time the mill is ready to start there will be a good run of logs on hand."

CABLES DEWEY CUT.

(N. Y. Sun.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—The president today transmitted to congress the claim of the Eastern Extension Telegraph company, amounting to $4,334, for compensation on account of expenses in repairing the cables between Manila and Hong Kong, and Manila and Ilioli, cut by orders of Admiral Dewey during the Spanish war. The claim is presented by the British government through the department of state, and Secretary Hay, in transmitting it, appends an opinion of the attorney general that it has no standing in law. The secretary, however, turns the claim over to congress in order that it may determine whether or not, as an act of comity and equity, the company should be reimbursed for actual expenses in repairing the cables.

PRESS PERSONALS.

J. M. Long was in Salem this week, and says a letter just received from Thos. Kay, who is now in California, conveyed the pleasant news that his health was improving.—Brownsville Times.

A. W. Giesy, special adjuster for the Norwich Union Insurance Co., was in the city yesterday to adjust the loss of Jack Chapman, whose residence was burned on the 10th inst. The full amount of the policy, $2,000, was allowed. The policy was written by V. C. London, of this city.—Roseburg Review.

Fine Printing, Statesman Job Office.

PRIVATE SOLDIERS' SECRET MESSAGES.

Light-heartedly as Tommy Atkins may seem to enter into war service, it is invariably the rule that a certain number of men in each regiment leave with the adjutant, the senior sergeant major or one of the company officers, packages which are only to be opened or forwarded in the event of the writer meeting his death.

An officer who served in the last war in Burma told the present writer that he himself had half a dozen of these packages entrusted to him, and forwarded them to an official at Calcutta, lest he himself should be laid low. It came about that only two of the packages had to be opened, one of the men being killed and the other dying of fever. One of the men, it then came out, was the son of a rich Lancashire merchant, and had left a wife and child in the charge of his father, none of them knowing what had become of him. In the other case the man was the third son of a baronet, the latter a gentleman living in dire poverty, who had once been an officer in the same regiment.

In the case of a man killed at Maidwand, and who had fought with distinction, a package he had given to the captain of his company, and which had been forwarded to higher quarters, was, on being opened, found to contain a confession of murder, done under circumstances of great provocation, at Hull some years before.—London Tit-Bits.

AUTOMOBILE CABS IN PARIS.

(N. Y. Herald, 17th.)

The Herald's European edition publishes the following: "Automobile cabs today made their reappearance on the boulevards. Some months ago the Compagnie Generale put sixty automobile cabs on the streets. They proved so popular that the fares were at once raised, and they were turned into first class cabs for which no fixed tariff exists and for the use of which high prices are asked. The new vehicles, however, take their place among ordinary cabs. Four only were ready today; twelve more will be ready at the end of the month, and thirty-four more before the opening of the Exposition."

BEFORE THE COUNTY COURT.

Two Well-known Citizens Take-Naturalization Papers—Orders Made in the Probate Department.

Two well-known citizens, who came to the United States with their parents while children and who have heretofore always enjoyed the rights of citizens on the strength of the naturalization papers taken out by the parents, appeared before County Judge G. P. Terrell yesterday and asked for final papers, asserting that they were unable to secure copies of the papers of their parents, and they were promptly supplied. They were Squire Farrar, a native of England, and E. H. Stege, who was born in Germany.

Orders were made in the probate court as follows: Mrs. Ellen Smith, widow of Francis S. Smith, deceased, was appointed as guardian of the persons and estates of Stephen and Rose Smith, minor heirs of the deceased. The property is valued at $2,000, and the guardian was required to file a bond for $400, which was promptly presented and approved.

W. G. Westcott, administrator of the estate of Toy Sam, deceased, petitioned the court for an order discharging him from further liability in the premises. Judge Terrell ordered that the administrator be discharged.

O. T. Storaasli, administrator of the estate of Knud O. Storaasli, deceased, was ordered to sell a quantity of personal property, in order to secure funds to pay indebtedness of the estate.

Upon petition of James Farley, administrator of the estate of Richard T. McNichols, deceased, County Judge G. P. Terrell ordered that certain real property belonging to the estate be sold.
