FOR COUNTY ROADS. SUPERVISORS APPOINTED BY THE COUNTY COURT. Bicycle Tax for 1900 Levied Yesterday—Sheriff's Compensation Limited to 15 Cents. Several important orders were made by the commissioners' court, at its session yesterday, one of which, especially, being quite unexpected—the appointment of road supervisors for the various districts in Marion county.

FOR THE CREAMERY. Farmers Requested to Promptly Notify H. B. Thielsen of the Number of Cows Whose Cream They Will Contribute. Now that T. S. Townsend, of Portland, has decided to establish a creamery in this city, the responsibility of the farmer in this connection has just begun.

Mother's Story of Baby's Cure. Of a Most Distressing Humor by the Cuticura Remedies. When our baby was a week old, eczema appeared on the top of her head and spread all over her scalp, face, and forehead, forming one mass of sores. Our family doctor's treatment proved ineffectual, as the disorder, instead of abating, developed more.

BEEF IS SCARCE. Pendleton East Oregonian. There has probably never before in the last five or six years been such a scarcity of beef cattle as exists in this county today. By beef cattle is meant stock fattened and ready for the market.

ATHLETES AT MT. ANGEL. Fred Fontaine Gives Some Interesting Notes About the College Located There. Fred J. Fontaine, of this city, who is attending the Mt. Angel college, furnishes the Statesman the following notes concerning the movements of the students at that educational institution.

ONE SIGN OF GREATNESS. I believe the first test of a truly great man is his humility, says Ruskin. I do not mean by humility, doubt of his own power or hesitation in speaking his opinion; but a right understanding of the relations between what he can do and say and the rest of the world's sayings and doings.

A LOST TRIBE OF ESQUIMAUX. They Live on an Island in Hudson Bay, and Make Homes of Whales' Skulls. The strangest anthropological 'find' recorded in the last decade of the nineteenth century will soon be announced by the American Museum of Natural History.

CONTRAST OF OCCUPATION. Youth and ambition turn a blind eye to material obstacles—or, at least they used to, writes Edward Bright in the Illustrated American. Hawthorne thought nothing of doing his own housework (washing the dishes and cooking) while his wife was tending her new-born child.

SEVERE WIND STORM. The Dalles Chronicle, 7th. Wm. Vanbibber, who is out at all times of the night with his milk wagon says the storm of Monday night was the most severe he has ever encountered in The Dalles, compelling him at one time to stop his horse and get out of the wagon until its furor ceased.

ROBBERY. Forest Grove Hatchet. A strange story of robbery comes from Cedar Mill. Two masked men armed with revolvers, entered the farm-house of Vendel Seherchell last Saturday evening, and after binding the farmer and his hired man, proceeded to rob the house, taking nearly $40 and an old revolver.
