

BEST EVER HELD

PROSPECTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL STATE FAIR WERE NEVER BETTER.

Entries in Live Stock Department Will Be Made By Breeders from California, Washington and Idaho.

The outlook for a successful state fair were never more encouraging than they are this year. The press of the state is united in support of the fair. The Portland Telegram of recent date contained the following article:

"Oregon's livestock interests will be well represented at the state fair this year. In fact, the management intends to make this one of the principal features, and there will be stock of fancy breeds from California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Secretary M. D. Wisdom has been corresponding with different National livestock breeding associations with the result that a few have furnished substantial support in the matter of prize money for the premium list. Others remain to be heard from."

"According to present indications the fair this year will be something more than a fair in name. It will be a representative exhibition of the state's resources, teaching a valuable industrial lesson from which the exhibitors will profit. Cheap excursions from every part of the Northwest will be run, and it is expected the attendance will be immense and tax the accommodations of Salem to the fullest extent. The large fair grounds will be scarcely large enough for the world of exhibits in the lines of agricultural, horticultural, timber, fisheries, mineral, livestock, dairying and other branches of Oregon's industrial life."

"The people of Salem are fully alive to the energetic efforts of the fair board to make the fair one of the largest held in the Northwest. The Capital City Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to render whatever assistance lies in the power of the city, financial and otherwise. The members propose to co-operate and work hand in hand with the state fair board."

"The fact that the National Breeding Livestock Association is evincing an interest in the fair is proof that that branch will be a star attraction. There will be a dazzling array of fancy stock, worth coming a long distance to see. The state fair boards of the different states having arranged the dates so that exhibitors in one state may attend fairs in the others, further agree to co-operate with one another in making each fair a success. Apropos of this subject, Secretary Wisdom has just received a very interesting letter from P. J. Shields, secretary of the California state agricultural society, which is as follows:

"I am much pleased to learn that dates have been arranged in California, Oregon and Washington in harmony; and also very much pleased to learn that you maintain your enthusiasm for a great livestock show, through the co-operation of California and Oregon. I will be very glad to work with you to accomplish this result, and believe that a number of our breeders can be induced to show in Oregon. As exhibitors likely to go there I would name the following:

"Jerseys—Henry Pierce, 728 Montgomery street, San Francisco. "Holsteins—W. S. Hobart, 532 Market street; F. H. Burke, 626 Market, and M. H. Hotaling, San Francisco. "Herefords—John Sparks, Reno, Nev.; D. S. Cone, Red Bluff, Cal.; John Mackey, Del Paso, Sacramento county, Cal.; Joseph Marzen, Lovelock, Nev.; Robert Ashburner, La Reville, Cal.

"Swine—George Bement & Son, East Oakland; J. P. Ashley, San Joaquin county, Cal. "Berkshire and Poland China—S. P. Lindgren & Son, Los Angeles, and W. R. McCaslin, Savannah, Cal. "Angora goats—C. P. Bailey & Sons, San Jose, Cal.

"Poultry—Mrs. F. H. Snow, San Jose; A. P. Schmittgen, Sacramento; L. E. Brainard, San Jose; Coffey Bros., Sacramento, and S. P. Lindgren & Sons, Kingsbury, Cal.

"As regards horses, I do not believe you could secure many here, and suppose you have sufficient at home, anyhow. A few fine draft horses might be secured, but I do not know of any now, but will aid you when the time comes. I have no doubt that our board will adopt a rule permitting persons who intend to exhibit at the Oregon and Washington fairs to depart from our grounds in time for the purpose. We shall take the matter up with the Southern Pacific railroad and try and obtain freight concessions from them. Let me know in return what kind of stock and about the number you think Oregon will show at our state fair. You have some very choice Shorthorns and Jerseys there, of which we would like very much to secure an exhibition.

"Whom are you going to get for your expert livestock judge? We have had for the last two years Dr. Withycombe, of the Agricultural College at Corvallis, Oregon, and had the greatest possible satisfaction from his services, and would be most pleased again to secure him, but I learn that he is likely to go East. If that is so, we could act together and try to procure the services of some distinguished Eastern judge whose reputation would advertise our fairs."

"It is probable that Charles Ladd, who has fine Shorthorns; D. H. Looney, who possesses fine bred Jerseys, and William Ladd, whose specialty is fine bred Berkshire swine, will be represented at the California state fair. There are several other breeders in Oregon that no doubt will attend."

A BIG MINING COMPANY.
Filed Articles of Incorporation Yesterday—Will Operate in Oregon and Alaska Territory.

In the state department, yesterday, two new corporations filed articles, as follows:
Monarch Gold Mining & Dredging Company will engage in mining in Oregon, Alaska and elsewhere, and do a general development and merchandise business. The city of Portland is named as the headquarters of the company. The capital is fixed at $12,000, divided into shares valued at $10 each. I. M. Arneson, I. Beeman and A. C. Smith are the incorporators.
The Transfer Railway Company of Portland will engage in conducting a street railway in Portland. The company has a capital of $10,000, divided into shares valued at $10 each. F. M. Batchelor, E. W. Gassett, and W. H. Merrick are the incorporators.

ANCIENTS DIDN'T TEMPER COPPER.
The allegation that ancient Egyptians tempered copper and bronze to carry a razor edge is not borne out by investigation. Thomas Harger, of Bellevue, Pa., challenges any one to produce a piece of metal tempered by the ancients that cannot be more than duplicated by any metal worker today.

He says that in examining hundreds of specimens alleged to have been tempered to the degree that steel is tempered, he failed to find any, nor had he discovered any one who had seen such work, and the fable which has been implicitly believed for centuries is being shattered in the light of modern research.
The ancients were children in mechanical knowledge as compared to the people of today, and if there was a demand for any particular building or piece of work such as was produced by the ancients, it could be duplicated and improved on by the skilled artisans of the nineteenth century.—American Manufacturer.

A WILL ADMITTED.
TESTAMENT OF JOHN L. EOFF, DECEASED, PROBATED.
Estate Divided Among Natural Heirs and an Executor Named—Text of the Document.
(From Daily, March 8th).

George W. Eoff, one of the heirs, yesterday filed a petition in the probate court, in the matter of the last will and testament of John L. Eoff, deceased. The petition is for the appointment of James King as executor of the will, in accordance with the provisions of that document. The will is dated, February 1, 1892, and its text is as follows:

IN TROUBLE AGAIN

HILDA HOBSON, ALIAS MARIAN ANDERSON, IS ARRESTED.

Engaged a Livery Rig at Corvallis and Failed to Return Same—Detained on Charge of Larceny.

(From Daily, March 8th).
Hilda Hobson, alias Louise Davis, alias Marian Anderson, is having no end of trouble. This is the woman whose escapades with a local Celestial and other admiring friends in this city, were chronicled in a recent issue of the Statesman.

Upon leaving Salem the Hobson woman "worked" Portland for several days until the city authorities had discovered her game when she was ordered to leave the city on last Friday. She took passage via boat to Corvallis where on the following day she engaged a livery rig ostensibly to drive to the rural home of her uncle, but she failed to return the conveyance at the appointed time. She was finally located at Coburg, where she was arrested, charged with larceny, and will be taken to Corvallis for examination on the charge.

The Corvallis Times of Tuesday has the following report of the woman's visit in that city.
"Hilda Hobson alias Louise Davis fared in three states or more, has been to Corvallis. She hired a horse and buggy of Liveryman Elgin Sunday morning and the latter has seen neither woman nor rig since. Yesterday she was arrested at Coburg by a constable, and this afternoon Sheriff Rickard will arrive with her. The warrant is out of Justice Holgate's court, and it charges her with larceny of the Elgin horse and buggy."
"Hilda is a black-eyed young woman who has of late been accorded much space in the newspapers. She rides crutches and sometimes calls herself a cousin of Lieut. Hobson of the navy. In Corvallis she said she had a silver hip, and that she was wounded at the battle of Santiago. She had been to Spokane, Portland, San Francisco and all intermediate points, and is supposed to have made her crutches and tongue provide traveling expenses. Hilda arrived in Corvallis by boat Sunday morning and at 7 o'clock was at Elgin's livery stable, asking for a horse and buggy in which to go to her uncle's, four miles south of town. The proprietor had suspicions, and proposed to supply a driver. She said that wouldn't do, because she might want to stay longer away than would the driver, or that her cousin might want to return with her. All this said with a bright smile and a smooth tongue fixed the liveryman, and Hilda soon sailed out of town in the barn's best rig. The latter was left at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at a Harrisburg livery stable, where Mr. Elgin sent a messenger for his outfit "yesterday."

A correspondent of the Statesman, writing from Monroe, under date of March 6th, says of the same case:
"A lady whose name is unknown here, made a bold and successful attempt at stealing in broad daylight at Corvallis yesterday. After stealing several articles, such as she could easily secrete, she went to the livery stable hired a team and buggy, and departed for Harrisburg. Later it was learned that four warrants for her arrest had been issued in Oregon and two in Washington. The liveryman, learning this started in search of his team, first going to Harrisburg where he found the horses in the feed barn. The woman, however, had disappeared, having, it is reported, gone south on the overland trail. No information has yet been secured as to her whereabouts."

It was yesterday learned in this city that the Celestial cook of whom the woman is enamored, is employed in a logging camp near Coburg and it is presumed that the object of her trip up the valley was to again meet her friend from whom she is said to have received liberal contributions in money during her stay in Salem.

BOX MATERIAL.
Corvallis Times:
Two cars of cottonwood and fir lumber were shipped to Salem Monday from the Corvallis sawmill. The lumber is to be used in making boxes. On Wednesday two cars of cottonwood lumber from the same establishment went to Albany, to be used by an Albany factory in making chairs. Monday the mill shipped by boat to Portland 40,000 feet of hard-wood lumber for use in making water school desks. The mill has a contract for supplying 250,000 feet of lumber for the same purpose.

Dr. Leyds, who has been visiting Berlin, is thus described by Paul Forster: "His figure is tall, slender and flexible. Two dark, intelligent and friendly eyes look out from a sharp, well-cut, expressive and energetic face. In his black or dark-brown hair there is no trace of old age. He appears to be much more than 40 years old. He has the manners of a complete man of the world." Dr. Forster discerns beneath a rough style of speech the qualities of a diplomatist, and a considerable amount of diplomatic reserve.

The great playwright and novelist, Dumas, once found a man fast asleep in the Theater Francaise during performance of a play by his friend Soumet. "You see that?" he said. "That is your work." Next evening a Dumas piece was being played and the two friends again went to the theater. Once more they found a sleeping man. "You see, my dear Dumas, that your works can produce sleep," said Soumet. "Do you refer to that man?" asked Dumas. "Why, he's the man you noticed last night and he's not awake yet!"

A young woman named Erika Paulasz has applied to the Budapest board of examiners for a certificate to practice as an architect. She already has her certificate as a draftsman and as a master mason, but now she must demonstrate her ability in practice to control bodies of men, and therefore must undergo a public trial. If she succeeds she will be the first woman architect of Austria-Hungary.

DICK WAINWRIGHT'S NEW STATION.
If the new head of the naval academy at Annapolis, Commander Wainwright, can turn out sea officers of his own stamp he will be a wonder. It was he who took the little Gloucester into the fight at Santiago and sank those vaunted fighters, the Pluton and Furor, avenging amply the Maine, of which he was the first officer at the time of her dastardly destruction.—Kennebec Journal.

AN INVALUABLE CLERK.
"I ran across a clerk today who is worth his weight in gold, or at least in gold bricks," said a guest at one of the hotels, as he lit a fresh cigar and settled himself comfortably in a lobby chair. "If I was in business in New Orleans I would get that man if I had to chloroform and strangle him. The way I discovered his merits was this: I was standing in my wife to decide what she didn't want, when a tailor-made girl walked up and asked to see some golf clubs. The young man behind the counter showed her several, and in a few moments she found one that suited her, and went away with it under her arm. 'Are there many players in New Orleans?' I asked, after she had gone. 'Oh, yes; quite a number,' replied the clerk, affably. 'Have you golf links here?' I continued, getting interested. A look of real pain crossed the young man's face. 'I am sorry,' he said; 'very sorry, but the fact is we sold our last golf link this morning. However, we have ordered a new stock,' he added, brightening up, 'and they will be here in a few days. Which did you wish—the plain or the—fancy links?' A clerk like that is beyond price, sir, perfectly invaluable. Ten years hence I expect to find him a merchant prince."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

SCARED HIM OUT.
"It is the unexpected that happens," wisely observed Mr. Staylate to Miss Gabby.
"But," said that young lady, "if it be the unexpected that we may expect to happen, then it necessarily becomes the expected. That is, if we expect the unexpected to happen, then the unexpected will really be what we expect, and the expected will be the unexpected."

But Mr. Staylate said he had to hurry to catch a train.
After he had gone, Miss Gabby looked at the clock, and murmured: "Well, the unexpected did happen. I didn't suppose I would get rid of him for two hours, anyway."—Baltimore American.

OLD INDIAN JEWELRY.
Indian jewelry is renowned the world over. The kind of which we see most is the gold and silver hammered designs of the Hindu gods and fitigree silver work. The beautiful enamels and art work of the goldsmiths are rarely on view. There is an all-prevailing fad in India of owning jewels, not for wearing purposes, but because they are safe investments, and if necessary can be easily hidden or buried. The famous Nana Sahib's wealth when dug up filled wagon after wagon.—Chicago News.

THE ETERNAL FAILURE.
She could drive her team of ponies With consummate grace and skill. She could drive a man distracted With her charms, when dressed to kill.
She could drive a clever bargain At most any kind of sale, But she never was successful When she tried to drive a nail.
—Chicago Record.

The notorious Esterhazy is said to be in the service of the Boer army, having been reported that he arrived in Lourenzo Marquez about eight or nine weeks ago. He is now believed to be at Magersfontein, having obtained a place of responsibility through a letter of recommendation given to him by Dr. Leyds, the European agent of the Transvaal government. He says he is animated by no feeling of enmity toward the British, but that his sword is his sole stock in trade, and he sells it to the highest bidder.

THE COUNTY COURT

COMMISSIONERS MEET FOR THE MARCH TERM.

Tax Roll for 1899 Turned Over to Sheriff Durbin for Collection—Bills Audited.

(From Daily, March 8th).
The Marion county commissioners' court was convened at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the March term, and considerable routine business was found on the docket awaiting the action of the court at this time.

County Clerk W. W. Hall presented the tax roll for the year 1899 to the court, and was ordered to deliver it to the sheriff, with a warrant for the collection of the taxes, and he promptly delivered the roll on the sheriff's counter, placing the warrant in Sheriff F. W. Durbin's hands. The first receipt issued by the sheriff, for the 1899 taxes, was No. 1, to Willis Bros., and was for the taxes on their stock of merchandise, $154.20.

During the afternoon the court disposed of considerable routine business. The petition of H. G. Guild and others for the establishment of a county road at Morningside, was read, and Wednesday, February 14th, at 10 a. m., was the time fixed for viewing the road, D. L. Green, A. F. McAttee and H. E. Smith being appointed as viewers to act with County Surveyor B. B. Herrick in viewing the road.

County Surveyor Herrick also reported the re-survey of the road connecting the United States Indian training school with the Salem and Brooks county road, and the same was approved.

A. J. Patton, of Macleay, was appointed nightwatch and janitor, at a salary of $60 per month, to succeed Thos. McNary, who left some time ago, and is reported to have gone to Rhode Island. Mr. Patton has supplied the place for Mr. McNary for the past two months, and has been found very satisfactory.

Cost bills were audited and allowed on the criminal account in the following cases: State of Oregon, vs. Ross McCormick, J. D. Newman, Pete Mack, Ed. Long.

The following bills were also audited and allowed, after which adjournment was had until 9 o'clock this morning.

Stationery Account.
Claimed. Allowed.
George F. Rodgers, $123 75 $123 75
R. E. Moores & Co., 140 61 140 61
F. S. Dearborn, 15 60 15 60
Patton Bros., 24 45 24 45
J. W. Hobart, 1 60 1 60
Henry Pape, 45 50 45 50
Woodburn Independent, 15 00 15 00
W. W. Hall, 55 55

Postage Account.
J. H. Roland, $ 3 00 $ 3 00
W. W. Hall, 5 00 5 00
G. P. Terrell, 2 25 2 25
G. W. Jones, 6 25 6 25

Clerk's Account.
R. W. Terrell, $ 24 00 $ 24 00
Ed. N. Edes, 24 00 24 00
E. J. Swafford, 48 00 48 00

Sheriff's Account.
F. W. Durbin, $ 92 36 $ 92 36

Criminal Account.
J. J. Murphy, $ 26 00 $ 26 00
F. W. Durbin, 56 20 56 20

Supervisor's Account.
R. W. Tasker, $ 11 00 $ 11 00

IMPROVING A ROAD.
COUNTY COURT ASKED TO ASSIST IN THE WORK.
Petitions and Other Business Acted Upon by the Commissioners at Their Session Yesterday.

The Marion county commissioners' court was in session all of yesterday, the day being spent, principally in auditing bills. H. J. Workman and Geo. E. Allen, of East Salem, appeared before the court with a petition for the improvement of the Reeves hill on the road leading from this city to the Wald hills. The petition is numerously signed, and the signers have agreed to do 300 days work with teams on the road, provided the county court pays $1 for each day's work, thus at $3 a day for man and team, the signers furnishing two-thirds of the work while the court provides the other one-third. Messrs. Workman and Allen laid the matter before the court, and asked favorable action, and the members of the court promised to consider the matter and ascertain the cost of making the improvements.

The petition of O'Neill Bros. & Callaghan, and others, for the establishment of a county road near Mill City, was read and continued.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Marion, Department No. 2:

Salem Building and Loan Association, Plaintiff, v. H. C. Downing, Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, and Geo. W. Watt, Defendants.

To H. C. Downing: In the name of the State of Oregon you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you, in the above entitled suit, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of summons, made herein, to-wit: the twentieth day of April, 1900, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against H. C. Downing and Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, for the sum of $1,575 gold coin of the United States of America, with interest on said claim in like gold coin at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the date of said judgment until paid, together with the sum of $56.41 taxes paid by plaintiff, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum on $42.35 from the first day of May, 1899, and on $1,495 from the fourth day of December, 1899, and for the further sum of $100 attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree of this Honorable Court, that plaintiff's mortgage be declared a first lien upon the following described premises, to-wit:

Lot four (4) in block one (1) in Watt's addition to the city of Salem, Oregon, as shown and designated on the plat of said addition now of record in the office of the recorder of conveyances for Marion county, Oregon.

And that plaintiff's mortgage lien be foreclosed and that the above described premises be sold by the sheriff of Marion county, Oregon, as by law provided and that the money arising from said sale be applied to the satisfaction of plaintiff's judgment, attorney's fees and costs, and for such other and further relief as is equity may be just; and further that you be foreclosed of all right, estate or interest in or to said above described premises and of all right to redeem the same, except as by law provided.

This summons is served upon you by order of the Hon. R. P. Boise, judge of the above entitled court, for department No. 2, said order bearing date the seventh day of March, 1900, directing the same publication in the Weekly Oregon Statesman, for six consecutive weeks, and the date of the first publication of this summons being on the 9th day of March, 1900, and the date of the last publication thereof will be, and the same will expire on the twentieth day of April, 1900.

F. A. TURNER, Attorney for Plaintiff.

WANTS TO KNOW.—Gov. T. T. Geer yesterday wrote to Judge Arthur P. Taft, of Portland, requesting that gentleman to suggest the names of some representative Oregon ladies, for appointment as honorary members of the woman's board of managers of the Pan-American exposition to be held in Buffalo, New York, in 1901. As soon as the governor can secure the names of a couple of ladies, who will take an interest in the exposition, and aid in furthering it, he will make the appointment.

A PAINFUL DISLOCATION.—Willie G. Hendricks, a young assistant at Wiggins' Bazaar, while playing yesterday afternoon, fell and sustained a very severe dislocation of the thumb of his right hand. The injury was treated by Dr. J. N. Smith, and with the exception of a very sore thumb Willie will be all right in a few days.

BABY EYES.
In an article entitled "Through Baby Eyes," which has appeared in "Trained Motherhood," Frances Esmond asks mothers if it has ever occurred to them to wonder in what light they are regarded by their children. The writer says: "Now and then we see a few pitiful jokes of the imitation of older folks by the children, and they serve to make us think. For instance, I am reminded of one of a mother who said to her little girl, 'Why, Mabel, what makes you scream and talk so loud, when your little brother is so quiet at his play?' to which the child made answer, 'Oh, mother, he is the grocer boy, and I am you scolding him for bringing the meat so late for dinner.'

We do not know how closely we are watched by these little ones, and thus the necessity arises to watch ourselves, that we lead no; these little imitators into the paths that are aside from those of quietness and peace. Even a very young baby seems to know intuitively just the mood of the mother. When she is worried, nervous, irritable, in some unaccountable manner her mood seems to be reflected in the baby to a certain extent. Speak gently to a little one; it is quieted; speak sharply, the little lips quiver, the sweet eyes fill with tears, and the baby heart is hurt. A woman who was fond of children was visiting a friend who had a particularly nervous and excitable baby. The mother complained that she could not get the baby to take a mid-day nap, and as a result the little one was cross and fretful the whole afternoon. She said she had tried in every way to get the baby to sleep, but always ended in a fret for both the baby and herself. At noon the visitor took the baby and the little fellow kicked, twisted, cried and fidgeted as usual, but the new nurse gently coaxed, crooning a quiet lullaby, until the blue eyes closed and the curly head sank to rest on her shoulder. The mother was amazed.

"How did you do it?" she asked.
"Simply by being quiet," answered her friend.

A wee tottler was once discovered taking long strides in the freshly fallen snow. The father came up behind him and watched his little son curiously to see what he was doing. The father had gone out early that morning, and his footprints led to the nearest bar-room. The little fellow was trying to walk in his father's footsteps. With a prayer for help, the father bowed that his steps should thereafter be worthy of being followed.

WEDDED A PORTLAND MAN.
Green-Harritt Nuptials Celebrated in This City at 2 o'clock Thursday Afternoon.

The ceremony that united in marriage Miss Adele Frances Harritt, of Salem, and Mr. Harrison A. Green, of Portland, was performed at the home of the bride's father, J. W. Harritt, at No. 307 Church street, in this city, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The pretty ceremony of the Methodist church was pronounced by Rev. F. J. Brown, of this city, and was witnessed only by a small company of special friends. The rooms of the Harritt home were very prettily decorated, the happy couple standing beneath a floral horseshoe during the ceremony. When the knot had been tied securely, the wedding party repaired to the dining room where an elegant wedding breakfast was partaken of.

The bride is the second and youngest daughter of J. W. Harritt, the Commercial street grocerman, and is one of Salem's prettiest and most popular young women. She was attired in a beautiful traveling costume of gray broadcloth with white trimmings, and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Marion, Department No. 2:

Salem Building and Loan Association, Plaintiff, v. H. C. Downing, Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, and Geo. W. Watt, Defendants.

To H. C. Downing: In the name of the State of Oregon you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you, in the above entitled suit, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of summons, made herein, to-wit: the twentieth day of April, 1900, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against H. C. Downing and Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, for the sum of $1,575 gold coin of the United States of America, with interest on said claim in like gold coin at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the date of said judgment until paid, together with the sum of $56.41 taxes paid by plaintiff, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum on $42.35 from the first day of May, 1899, and on $1,495 from the fourth day of December, 1899, and for the further sum of $100 attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree of this Honorable Court, that plaintiff's mortgage be declared a first lien upon the following described premises, to-wit:

Lot four (4) in block one (1) in Watt's addition to the city of Salem, Oregon, as shown and designated on the plat of said addition now of record in the office of the recorder of conveyances for Marion county, Oregon.

And that plaintiff's mortgage lien be foreclosed and that the above described premises be sold by the sheriff of Marion county, Oregon, as by law provided and that the money arising from said sale be applied to the satisfaction of plaintiff's judgment, attorney's fees and costs, and for such other and further relief as is equity may be just; and further that you be foreclosed of all right, estate or interest in or to said above described premises and of all right to redeem the same, except as by law provided.

This summons is served upon you by order of the Hon. R. P. Boise, judge of the above entitled court, for department No. 2, said order bearing date the seventh day of March, 1900, directing the same publication in the Weekly Oregon Statesman, for six consecutive weeks, and the date of the first publication of this summons being on the 9th day of March, 1900, and the date of the last publication thereof will be, and the same will expire on the twentieth day of April, 1900.

F. A. TURNER, Attorney for Plaintiff.

WANTS TO KNOW.—Gov. T. T. Geer yesterday wrote to Judge Arthur P. Taft, of Portland, requesting that gentleman to suggest the names of some representative Oregon ladies, for appointment as honorary members of the woman's board of managers of the Pan-American exposition to be held in Buffalo, New York, in 1901. As soon as the governor can secure the names of a couple of ladies, who will take an interest in the exposition, and aid in furthering it, he will make the appointment.

A PAINFUL DISLOCATION.—Willie G. Hendricks, a young assistant at Wiggins' Bazaar, while playing yesterday afternoon, fell and sustained a very severe dislocation of the thumb of his right hand. The injury was treated by Dr. J. N. Smith, and with the exception of a very sore thumb Willie will be all right in a few days.

BABY EYES.
In an article entitled "Through Baby Eyes," which has appeared in "Trained Motherhood," Frances Esmond asks mothers if it has ever occurred to them to wonder in what light they are regarded by their children. The writer says: "Now and then we see a few pitiful jokes of the imitation of older folks by the children, and they serve to make us think. For instance, I am reminded of one of a mother who said to her little girl, 'Why, Mabel, what makes you scream and talk so loud, when your little brother is so quiet at his play?' to which the child made answer, 'Oh, mother, he is the grocer boy, and I am you scolding him for bringing the meat so late for dinner.'

We do not know how closely we are watched by these little ones, and thus the necessity arises to watch ourselves, that we lead no; these little imitators into the paths that are aside from those of quietness and peace. Even a very young baby seems to know intuitively just the mood of the mother. When she is worried, nervous, irritable, in some unaccountable manner her mood seems to be reflected in the baby to a certain extent. Speak gently to a little one; it is quieted; speak sharply, the little lips quiver, the sweet eyes fill with tears, and the baby heart is hurt. A woman who was fond of children was visiting a friend who had a particularly nervous and excitable baby. The mother complained that she could not get the baby to take a mid-day nap, and as a result the little one was cross and fretful the whole afternoon. She said she had tried in every way to get the baby to sleep, but always ended in a fret for both the baby and herself. At noon the visitor took the baby and the little fellow kicked, twisted, cried and fidgeted as usual, but the new nurse gently coaxed, crooning a quiet lullaby, until the blue eyes closed and the curly head sank to rest on her shoulder. The mother was amazed.

"How did you do it?" she asked.
"Simply by being quiet," answered her friend.

A wee tottler was once discovered taking long strides in the freshly fallen snow. The father came up behind him and watched his little son curiously to see what he was doing. The father had gone out early that morning, and his footprints led to the nearest bar-room. The little fellow was trying to walk in his father's footsteps. With a prayer for help, the father bowed that his steps should thereafter be worthy of being followed.

WEDDED A PORTLAND MAN.
Green-Harritt Nuptials Celebrated in This City at 2 o'clock Thursday Afternoon.

The ceremony that united in marriage Miss Adele Frances Harritt, of Salem, and Mr. Harrison A. Green, of Portland, was performed at the home of the bride's father, J. W. Harritt, at No. 307 Church street, in this city, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The pretty ceremony of the Methodist church was pronounced by Rev. F. J. Brown, of this city, and was witnessed only by a small company of special friends. The rooms of the Harritt home were very prettily decorated, the happy couple standing beneath a floral horseshoe during the ceremony. When the knot had been tied securely, the wedding party repaired to the dining room where an elegant wedding breakfast was partaken of.

The bride is the second and youngest daughter of J. W. Harritt, the Commercial street grocerman, and is one of Salem's prettiest and most popular young women. She was attired in a beautiful traveling costume of gray broadcloth with white trimmings, and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Marion, Department No. 2:

Salem Building and Loan Association, Plaintiff, v. H. C. Downing, Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, and Geo. W. Watt, Defendants.

To H. C. Downing: In the name of the State of Oregon you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you, in the above entitled suit, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of summons, made herein, to-wit: the twentieth day of April, 1900, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against H. C. Downing and Theodosia A. Downing, his wife, for the sum of $1,575 gold coin of the United States of America, with interest on said claim in like gold coin at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the date of said judgment until paid, together with the sum of $56.41 taxes paid by plaintiff, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum on $42.35 from the first day of May, 1899, and on $1,495 from the fourth day of December, 1899, and for the further sum of $100 attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree of this Honorable Court, that plaintiff's mortgage be declared a first lien upon the following described premises, to-wit:

Lot four (4) in block one (1) in Watt's addition to the city of Salem, Oregon, as shown and designated on the plat of said addition now of record in the office of the recorder of conveyances for Marion county, Oregon.

And that plaintiff's mortgage lien be foreclosed and that the above described premises be sold by the sheriff of Marion county, Oregon, as by law provided and that the money arising from said sale be applied to the satisfaction of plaintiff's judgment, attorney's fees and costs, and for such other and further relief as is equity may be just; and further that you be foreclosed of all right, estate or interest in or to said above described premises and of all right to redeem the same, except as by law provided.

This summons is served upon you by order of the Hon. R. P. Boise, judge of the above entitled court, for department No. 2, said order bearing date the seventh day of March, 1900, directing the same publication in the Weekly Oregon Statesman, for six consecutive weeks, and the date of the first publication of this summons being on the 9th day of March, 1900, and the date of the last publication thereof will be, and the same will expire on the twentieth day of April, 1900.

F. A. TURNER, Attorney for Plaintiff.