INSTRUCTED THE QUEEN.

A hitherto unrecorded anecdote the Queen is the following: One autumn afternoon, many years ago, her majesty was going out to sit on a hillside and watch some of her relatives fishing in the river below her, when she found that she had no phimble in her pocket, so could not work, as she had nsended, at the sewing she was carrying. Turning out of her way to Mrs. Symond's shop, she bought the smallest thimble there, which was, however, many sizes too big for her. There was an old Scotch dame at the counter, impatiently waiting to make her own purchases. Not recognizing the Queen, he broke into the conversation with a Hoots, but it's a rare juss an jaddle you're makin'. Blow intae it weel an' t'll stick." That phrase, the latter part of the sentence, amused her majesty immensely and became quite a proverb in the royal family.-Scottish American.
