Creat bodies move slowly, and only act after mature deliberation. It may therefore be safely stated that governments and corporations did not employ avenarius carbelineum until fully convinced of its money saving as well as wood preserving qualities. Private individuals desirous of lengthening the lift of wood work and at the same time Salem, Oregon curtailing expenses, need not fear to follow the precedents established.

Recent local examples proving the wanting. The reconstructed Madison treated with avenarius carbolineum, as has also the pavement at the Intersection of four streets in that city where the heaviest street car and wagon traffic converge. The President lives any mental derangement and ordered stiest bridge in Portland has been about one and a half miles from the capitol and the Treasury is all of two miles distant. Other public institutions are still further away, and even the National Library is at least two blocks distant from the Supreme Court room. While here we visited the old homes of President Washington and Gen. Robt. E. Lee, distant ten and twelve miles respectively from the city.

Of all our American cities it would seem that New York, with her 4,000,first premium in almost everything. When the Chicago people got together and put up a building 21 stories high the New York, people went them ten better by constructing a 31 story building which is said to be the highest in the world. It is also conceded by well posted people that New York has more and better churches and theatres than any other city in the world, and its public art museum in Central park is a perfect wonder. By the way, Central park contains 862 acres and has over 40 miles of driveways. The Prooklyn bridge is another of New York's wonderful achievements. But before New York could boast of possessing the world's greatest eartoonist she had to import Homer Davenport all the way from Silverton, Marion county, Oregon. It is now conceded that young Davenport is the best cartoonist in the world, and he is receiving the largest salary that has ever been paid to any one in that profession. Of course the Statesman readers have already learned of the from this city, which destroyed over $22,000,000 worth of property and by which over 400 people lost their lives.
