BIG FOREST FIRES

Destroying Timber and Other Property in Colorado.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 16.—A special to the News from Alamosa, Colo., says a forest fire is burning east of South Fork, from five to twenty miles wide, and is destroying valuable timber, mining machinery and buildings. It has already traveled thirty-five miles, and the damage will run into the millions of dollars.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for ear-ache troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

RACE RIOTS IN NEW YORK

Mobs Attempt to Lynch Peaceable and Unoffending Negroes.

POLICE COMPELLED TO USE CLUBS

In Dispersing the Rioters on the Streets—Noisy Crowds Create Trouble in the City.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Many fights between whites and blacks occurred in this city tonight. Alexander Robinson, a negro, and a colored friend, were on a Thirty-fourth street car. Someone set up the shout, as the car neared Eighth Avenue, that the negroes ought to be lynched. A man with a clothesline appeared from some-evening with many others, in a reception given in the state capitol grounds, which partook more of the nature of an official function.

JOHN J. INGALLS DEAD.

HISTORIC FIGURE IN KANSAS POLITICS HAS PASSED AWAY.

The End Came in New Mexico. Where He Had Gone to Seek Relief from Disease.

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. H., Aug. 16.—Ex-United States Senator John J. Ingalls, of Kansas, died this morning, and his remains were started for Atchison, Kansas, this afternoon. John James Ingalls was born in Middleton, Massachusetts, December 29, 1833. He was graduated from Williams College in 1855, studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1857. He removed to Atchison, Kansas, in 1858, where he practiced law. He was a member of the Wyandotte convention of 1859, secretary of the Territorial Council in 1860, and of the State Senate in 1861, and a State Senator in 1862. In the same year he was an unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant Governor. After his defeat he accepted the editorship of the Atchison Champion, which he retained for three years. He was again defeated for lieutenant Governor in

THE MINISTERS ARE SAVED

Unofficial Advices from China Indicate the Relief of Foreign Legations

By the Allied Forces at Pekin—Pathetic Appeal of Li Hung Chang to Washington for an Armistice Received Scant Courtesy.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—(Friday, 3:45 a. m.)—A cablegram to Vienna from Hongkong announces the capture of Pekin; but the Austrian Government, like the other European powers, is still without confirmation of this report. An official telegram, dated Taku, August 14th, has been received at Rome, which asserts that the attack on Pekin began Monday, that Sir Claude MacDonald, the British Minister, had opened communication

American Government is that, if there is to be a halt—an armistice—it must be at the walls of the Imperial city. The latest dispatch from Minister Conger was scoured with eager interest, but it brought little information beyond that already at hand.

In one respect, however, it gave the Government strong encouragement, as it was almost a categorical answer to the inquiries of the State Department. This was the first definite knowledge that we were in direct touch with our Minister, for all of his dispatches, up where, and the two negroes were pulled off the car. The rope was thrown around Robinson's neck and with fifty men and boys pulling, the mob started for a lamp post.

A squad of police appeared before the mob had gone far, and with much clubbing dispersed the crowd. The two negroes got away. Several other noisy crowds were dispersed.

A favorite Chinese weapon is a native-made rifle of one-inch caliber, requiring two men to handle it.

BRYAN AT HOME.

Greeted by the Citizens of Lincoln—A Reception.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 16.—Lincoln today tendered a very handsome welcome to W. J. Bryan upon his return to his home after an absence of ten days. He was met at the station by a large concourse of people, who escorted him to his residence and who, after listening to a speech there and shaking hands with both Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, only dispersed to meet in the 1864, but was elected to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1873, and re-elected in 1879 and 1885. In 1891 he was defeated for re-election in the Legislature which was controlled by the Democrats and Populists. Since that time he has devoted himself to journalism and has lectured widely. He was among the ablest debaters in the United States Senate during his service in that body, and his work in journalism is unrivaled. He recently went to New Mexico for the benefit of his failing health, but sank rapidly and died as indicated above.

THEY ENDORSE BRYAN.

THE IANTIS PROPOSE TO SWALLOW FREE SLAVER.

In Order to Fight the Expansion Views of the Administration—A Noisy Crowd.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 16.—The Liberty Congress of the American League of Anti-imperialists today endorsed the candidacy of Wm. J. Bryan for President. The convention did not adopt the platform as submitted by the resolutions committee without a long and heated debate, but when the previous question was ordered, less than a score could be marshaled to vote against the Bryan endorsement. The vote was viva voce, and the exact result will never be known, but the sentiment was shown in favor of an endorsement of Bryan, as the most effective manner of checking the alleged imperialistic policy of the administration.

The most vigorous opponents of the Bryan pronouncement in the platform were members of the "National" third ticket convention, who were also admitted as delegates. They were led by Thos. M. Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., as chairman, and Everett V. Abbott, of New York, secretary. A motion was made and carried that a convention be held in New York City, September 5th, for the purpose of nominating a ticket. It is said the third party men offered the Presidential nomination to Moorfield Storey, of Massachusetts, but that he declined. Wm. L. Heald, of Colorado, was reported to be their choice for Vice-President.

After the adoption of the resolutions endorsing Bryan, the representatives of the third party met and selected Thomas Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., as chairman, and Everett V. Abbott, of New York, secretary. A motion was made and carried that a convention be held in New York City, September 5th, for the purpose of nominating a ticket. It is said the third party men offered the Presidential nomination to Moorfield Storey, of Massachusetts, but that he declined. Wm. L. with the relieving forces, and that the allies have established their headquarters at Tung Chow.

The Chinese officials in Shanghai are reported as admitting that the allies inflicted a heavy defeat on the Chinese Imperial troops around Tung Chow, on Sunday, and then marched direct on Pekin. This, if true, carries the Japanese official advice, announcing the capture of Tung Chow one step farther.

The Western Powers, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express from Kobe, have accepted the proposals formulated by Japan, for arranging an armistice, dependent upon the immediate delivery of the foreign Legations to the allies, or the granting of permission to the allied forces to enter Pekin and to guard the legations. Upon this basis the correspondence says Japan has already begun to negotiate.

Shanghai dispatches declare that the Chinese had intended to make a final attack upon the legations last Sunday, but whether the plan was carried out is not known there.

The appeal of China and the prompt response of the American Government were the subject of supreme importance throughout the day. Coming at a moment when the allied armies were in the shadow of the great walls of Pekin, the circumstances in which the correspondence occurred were of a peculiarly momentous character.

The consensus of opinion, expressed by the morning papers, tends to the belief that the Legations are now safe with the allies.

LI'S APPEAL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—At the close of a day of intense anxiety, the State Department tonight made public the latest correspondence between the United States Government and China, constituting not only a remarkable series of state papers, but at the same time dispelling all doubt and uncertainty as to the American policy in the present critical juncture.

The urgent, almost pathetic appeal of Li Hung Chang, submitted early in the day, that the victorious march of the allies stop at Tung Chow, and that the military commanders on the field be instructed to arrange an armistice at that point, was met with the response that General Chaffee already had been given complete instructions empowering him to carry out any arrangement, in concert with the other commanders, for the delivery of the Ministers and persons under their protection, to the relief column, not at Tung Chow, as had been suggested, but at Pekin. Furthermore, it was known to China that General Chaffee's instructions left him a free rein as to whether he should insist upon entering Pekin and going to the Legations, or should receive the delivery of Legations at the gate of the inner Tartar city or at the outer wall.

In short, China, through her peace envoy, besought a halt and armistice at Tung Chow, twelve miles from Pekin, whereas the response of the to today, had conveyed the information without reference to the repeated inquiries of the Government. That the situation is desperate is shown by his statement that one of the attacks upon the Legation occurred the night before the dispatch was sent. It is evident that the Minister is informed as to the approach of the column, as he says: "The hearing of the allied forces gives us hope."

Beyond the important diplomatic exchanges of the day and the receipt of the Conger message, the chief interest is centered in the exact whereabouts of the allied army. Whether the allied forces actually were in Pekin was the all-absorbing question of which everyone, in official and international life, awaited the word with keen anxiety.

A dispatch was received during the day, from Admiral Remoy, conveying the Japanese report of the occupation of Tung Chow, and adding the statement, also on Japanese authority, that the attack on Pekin was expected to be made yesterday.

FROM CONGER.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The Acting Secretary of State has made public the following extract from a dispatch from Conger. It is undated, but would seem to have left Pekin between August 5th and 11th:

"Our cipher is safe. There was continued artillery and rifle firing until July 17th, only rifle fire since, but daily, with frequent desperate attacks. The French, Italian, Belgian, Austrian and Dutch legations, and all other foreign property in Pekin, are destroyed.

"Dr. Inglis' child is dead. Marines Fanning, Fisher, Turner, King, Tutcher, Kennedy and Thomas are killed. All other Americans are alive. The hearing of the allied forces give us hope."

A RUSSIAN VICTORY.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—General Reetnenkamp, according to advices to the Russian war office, while pursuing the Chinese from Algu, found 4000 infantry, 5000 cavalry and twelve guns in a strong position at San Ishan. Although the Russians were inferior in numbers, they made combined front and flank attacks on the Chinese on August 10th. The Chinese succeeded in breaking up the flank movement, but eventually were compelled to evacuate the position and withdraw the guns.

ENDED THEIR LIVES.

Two Women of Portland Committee Suicide Yesterday.

Portland, Or., Aug. 16.—Two women committed suicide here today. Mrs. F. E. Woodworth, the wife of a locomotive fireman in Albina, shot herself through the heart, with a revolver, and Mrs. Mary Richards took poison in the Narrow Gunge lodging house. Their orner suicide is said to have been caused by sickness, and the latter by unrequited love.
