WEEKLY OREGON STATESMAN, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1909.

American Government Declines the Proposal of Germany to Punish Chinese.

New Principle Laid Down by the Administration -- A Country Cannot Be Called Upon to Surrender Its Citizens to the Powers for Punishment.

WASHINGTON, Sepit. 21 .- The Unit- will be a withdrawal of all but one ed States Government has made full regiment of American troops from and complete answers to the various important inquiries that have been addressed to it by the powers relative to the Chinese trouble. Moreover, it has gone further and has made a disclosrve of all its purposes, and, as a member of the Administration put it! It has thrown its hand open on the table.

Minister Wu called upon Acting Secretary Hill and was handed a memorandum embodying the response of the United States Government to the request of Prince Ching, that Mr, Conger or some other person be immediately empowered to begin negotiations with the Chinese authorities for a final settlement. The Minister went away with a dissatisticil expression upon his face.

Next came M. Thienbaut, the French charge. A few minutes' conversation sufficed to impart to him orally the answer to his verbal inquiry.

Then Baron Sternherg, the German make answer to the German note. called, and was given that answer, to the Russian inquiry, forwarded by messenger, and wired cablegrams containing the substances of the answers 10 interesting and important planses of the Chinese entanglement.

The State Department absolutely refused to make any statement as to the nature of the answers, taking the ground that to do so would be a violation of the diplomatic proprieties, However, it was promised that the text of the communications should be given to the press tomorrow.' It is known that the German proposal, that negotiations with China be deferred until the Chinese responsible for the Pekin outrages had been surrendered cral Wilson will move on San Hal Tien to the Allies, has failed of approval by our Government. The declination has been conveyed in a manner that cannot give offense, but it is believed that day, and it is doubtful if they co-operthe United States Government cannot ated in the taking of Pel Ta Chu. Jarecognize the principle that a country may be called upon to surrender it own citizens to a foreign power or powers word has been received from the Sixth for punishment.

The idea of a commission to adjust alleg in the Nattheast. the differences with China is again in brought forward, and it is suggested LI'S RECEPTION. that a commission on the part of the China to Manila, where they can be held ready to return in an emergency.

RUSSIA ACTS BADLY.

London, Sept. 22.-It seems to be generally believed throughout Europe demand that the anti-foreign leaders should be surrendered before negotiations were commenced, with a view of event, with Count Von Waldersee jour- ated. His brother, "Rube," ringing with the story of the massacres fair.

by the Russians in Amur. The Mos-The Department then sent an answer cow correspondent of the Standard, reverting to the subject of the massacres 80.VS:

its diplomatic representatives regions, it is learned that massacres troops that are over-running Manchuria."

AMERICANS THE VICTORS.

Pekin, Sept. 17, via Taku, Sept. 20.-Gen. James H. Wilson, the American commander, took Pel Ta Chu this morning. No details of the affair have been learned, but the British officials have received a dispatch announcing that "the temples were taken according to arrangement." It is said Genand destroy the Chinese arsenal at that place.

The Germans' moved westward topancee scouts report that the surrounding country is free of the enemy. No United States cavalry, which is oper-

ANSWERS FOR THE POWERS manifesfed, although the walt was somewhat tedions. During the afternoon, between the more enthusiasm than any of the pre-transfer the funds, now on hand, for lions, entered for premiums amon; the exhibition stock. They Prince, the big English Shire stallion, weighting, 2020 pounds, the largest animal among the premium horses, and Tom Thumb, the Shetland pour stallion, weighing 220 pounds, the smallest horse of his class on the ground. Prince the giant English torse proudly bore the blue ribbon of the prize-winner in his mane, and looked like a Goliath alongside his little brother, . Tom Thumb, The horses were received with long condid style. tinued cheering by the spectators, all of whom expressed their admiration of the splendid animals-the two extremes in size-in unmistakable terms. The trick bicycle-riders, "Rube" and Frank Shields, amused the crowd immensely. Frank is a performer of the first class, when he places his wheel on two high office chairs in the centre of the race track, then mounts his wheel and performs tricks that the ordinary trick bleyclist would not that Germany purposely proposed her undertake on a clear track. His-appearance is always the signal for en thusiastic applause, and all are delaying any general appliance of her His work yesterday, between the friendly to the clever blcycle rider. proposal until Field Marshal Von Wal- heats of the pacing race, was especdersee should arrive at Pekin. In any ally fine, and was greatly appreci neying northward, and Li Hung Chang seed bicyclist and clown, has captur conducting negotiations from Tien ed the hearts of all. His ludicrous Tsin, matters must soon reach a crisis. performances must be seen to be ap The manner of Earl Li's reception preciated. He creates roars of langh scenes to confirm the suspicions in ter while performing on the track of Shanghal regarding his close relations on the front rail of the grand stand with Russia. About 4000 Russian and the appearance of his "Buffalo troops and all the principal Russian sBill" head of hair is always the signa officers met him at Chung Liang Shen, for applause and for good-natured half way to Tien Tsin, and a long con- and familiar greeting and raillery ference was held, at which the repre- He is a trump card, and very popul sentative of no officer power was pres- lar, and the officers of the State Fair charge, who has been notified of the ent. This remarkable friendship exists made no mistake in securing this odd readiness of the State Department to at a time when the two continents are genius for an attraction for the 1908

The track had, during the day, been scraped and harrowed, and three teams were at work on it during the afternoon, between heats, and before "From a recent visitor to the Amar, the day was half done, it was an idea! drive-way causing excellent time to abroad. Thus closed one of the most are the order of the day with the be made. Today it will be in condition for record breaking.

PACING, 2:25 CLASS, PERSE $400

When the judges called the first race of the day, the pacing, 2:25 class, best 3 in 5, for a purse of $400, the crowd was enthusiastic and ready for the sport of racing. Four horses were en tered in the race and appeared for this first heat as follows: Geo. E. Perringer's Dowey Ann, Perringer, driver C. P. Webb's Prince Tom; E. C Staatz's Almolene, Staats, and 'Amos Wilkins' Al Me. Trion. The horses tried hard to get an even start, but Staats with Atmolene persisted in coming under the wire either ahead or fac in the rear of the other horses. Final y, the horses got a good start, except but Almolene was 20 feet behind the others when the word "go" was given The borses went around the track in splendid style, the first three making a splendid quarter, but Almolene, af ter getting a bad start, stood no show in the contest, Dewey Ann manie a break, falling back from first f third, and Prince Tom took the lead with Al Mr. sqcond. On the third quar ter Al Ma made a magnificent, sprint took the first place, leaving Webb's horse a close second. When the three quarter post was passed the horses were straining every nerve, and downclosely, until Dewey Ann broke again and Al Me came under the wire it splendid style, with Prince Tom seeoud, and Dewey Ann a bad third while Almolene was distanced. Time 22. The time for the quarter was 419, 1:10, 1:44, 2:22, When the second heat was called the horses came out for a good race. Perringer, after making so bad a finish with Dewey Ann, sent his mare on the track with Heller on the sulky. The borses scored a number of times, be fore they finally got off, and they remained closely bunched -nearly all around the track. Al Me again took the first heat, with Dewey Ann a close second and Prince Tom a bad third. Fime, 35, 1:10, 1:44, 2:19%. When the horses started for the third heat all was interest and excitement in the grand stand. When the horses started neck and neck speculation was rife as to which would be the winner Al Me, the winner of the first fwc. hears being the favorite with the towds and in the betting ring. Around the first quarter they went with A? Me heading and Prince Tom and Dewcy Ann fighting for second place. On doorways. the second quarter AF Me broke, and Prince Tour took the lead with Dewey Ann second, and on the third quarter. Deatey Ann closed in ou the leader. while Al Me, necovering her feet, soon losed in. When the horses entered the stretch and made the grand rush for the wire the grand stand went wild with excitement, for Dewey Ann was making a splendid spurt with Al Me and Prince Tom contesting desperering of the ploneers. The day was, dairy department during the day, ad, ately for second place. About 150 yards from the wire Al Me took secbreeze from the north, with bright chinery, the fine exhibits of butter and and place, and from then on she made desperate efforts to take the lead. Dewey Ann, however, held her lead, and she made a splendid rush under the wire, amidst the thundering cheers of the grand stand, with Al Me'a close second, and Prince Tom, third. Time, kept coming to the grounds on foot, farm, her daughter, a sweet 16, and 2:24%. The time by quarters was, 35, 1:12, 1:48%, 2:23%. It was 4:20 o'clock before the pacers appeared for the fourth heat, with the admiration of the grand stand equally divided between Al Me and Dewey by the "Blue and the Gray" as an Ann, with Prince Tom's admirers fering blue. The horses got a time start, going under the wire exactly even, but During the afternoon the crowd in- 100 feet beyond Al Me spurted ahead, creased in density, and long before the and from that point, clear around the hour set for the beginning of the races, wile she held first place, winning the Tom took second place, leaving Dewey follows: quarter. Perringer's mare drew up and ed an animated appearance. Fully contested for second place with Prince heats of the pacing race, the State Fair Board earned the gratitude of the grand stand by ordering an uni-que parade, that of two splendid stal-Capital City stake of $1000 on tion of their life membership budges. Wednesday, and the 2:18 pace for the This plan. if comsumated, will prac-Chamber of Commerce stake of $1000, tically end the life of the old Society on Thursday. The race was indeed an as an organization. New officers exhibition of the sport in its best were elected by the society as folphases, and will long be remembered lows: with pleasure, and a warming up of the blood by all who witnessed it, especially the Eugene contingent, which ferson Myers; treasurer, A. Bush. had most of its change and some of its clothing staked on Amos Wilkins' Al Me, which the great foot racer.

Trion. drove to victory in such splen-

RUNNING % MILE. HANDICAP. The second race for the afternoon was the running, % mile, handlcap, for a purse of $200. There were five horses entered in this interesting event, but only four appeared on the track, James Boyd's Tennessee Maid The horses participating moment. were Mrs. E. Starkey's Jim Bozeman arrying a weight of 120 pounds; ohn Agnew's Aborigine, 112; C. A. "line's Barnato, 124; J. R. Crooks" New Moon, 126. The horses jogged to he 1/4 post, where the start was to be made but here 40 minutes of time was wasted in an effort to get away. and the crowd in the grand stand became disgusted with the miserable action of the jockeys. Finally, when he patience of judges and spectators was well-night exhausted, a good start was had, and around the course he flying steeds went, closely bunchsd for the first quarter, and apparently straining every nerve for an advantage. At last Jim Bozeman drew away from the others, and down the stretch he came at a swinging galt. under whip and spur, and passed unler the wire in 1:17 with Aborigine arged on to second place, while Bariato and New Moon, running easily came third and fourth, the riders ap arently making no efforts to win the race. When the riders had weighed u and the horses had been taken to heir stalls, the judges announced their decision, giving the race to Jim Boze nan, with Aborigine receiving second place, while the riders of Barnato and New Moon were each fined $5 for not rying to win, and all bets on the race were declared off. This caused howl of protest among certain of he "gang." but a large majority of the crowd was well pleased with the fairness and justice of the judgment.

RUNNING % MILE, 2-YEAR OLDS. The third race, a running 3% mile for 2 year-olds, weight for age, purse $150. was next called. There were four starters as follows: U. S. Whitstone's Gracie W, carrying 115 pounds; Silas tones' Leola 2d, 115; S. J. Jones' Our Choice, 118, and L. H. Whitmore's Selma, 115, The colts scored several imes when a splendid start was had. and the prettiest contest of the day was seen when the youngsters sped around the track and down the stretch making a most beautiful and exciting tinish, Gracie W, passing under the wire in 1:051/2, with Selma, second

Our Choice, third, and Leola 2d fourth.

HUNT FOR A JOCKEY

fuced and

President, John G. Wright: vice president, John Minto; secretary, Jef-

HOW THE FIRST WOMAN WAS MADE. The Receipt Given in a Hindoo Legend.

s the proper origin of woman: Twash- become angered at the jockey's action, tri, the god Vulcan of the Hindoo my- and to have discharged the young man, thology, created the world. But on his and late last evening, while the old commencing to create woman he discovered that with man he had ex- gentleman was passing through the hansted all his creative materials, and Fair-Grounds past his stalls, he was having been scratched at the last that not one solid element had been struck down with a blunt instrument, left. This, of course, greatly perplexed Twashtri, and caused him to fall in a profound meditation. When he arose from it he proceeded as follows; by his assailant, and his condition was He took

The roundness of the moon, The undulating curves of the serpent,

The graceful twist of the creeping plant.

The light shivering of the grass blade and the slenderness of the willow.

The velvety softness of the flowers, The lightness of the feathers, The gentle gaze of of the doe, The frolicsomeness of the daucing sunbéam.

The tears of the cloud. The inconstancy of the wind, The timidness of the hare. The vanity of the peacock, The hardness of the diamond, The sweetness of honey, The cruelty of the tiger. The heat of the fire.

The chill of snow, The cackling of the parrot.

The cooing of the turtle dove. All these he mixed together and formed woman, Then he presented her to the man,

MRS. SHELLENBERGER A MOTHER AT THIRTEEN.

Little Girl Rocks Her Babe and Slugs Lullibies in Womanly Fashion.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 15.-Mrs. Alerdié R. Shellenberger is proud to be the youngest mother in the state, but That's one of those rescally millionas she sits on the portico of her father's home, on Queen street, and skip without feeing the help they're sings to her habe, it seems as though on to his little game, though .- Harlem some one should be rocking her instead Life. of she a little one. Mrs. Shellenber-ger is only 13 years of age, and her gown reaches scarcely to her slice ops. After the ceremony which united her to Shellenberger who is 22 years old, about a year ago, she weut back home and played with her dolls. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snell, the parants of Mrs. Shellenberger, come of sturdy Pennsylvan'a Dutch stock, and tion is dense or sparse it ought to be were averse to the wedding of their remembered that the country produces daughter to young Horace Shelleuber- rice. Countries which produce rice ger of Lower Pottsgrove. With the yield at least two crops a year. Coun-

(From Daily Statesman, Sept. 23.) . Jack Garrison, the jockey riding for J. R. Crooks, and who was fined by the judges at the race track on Friday for holding back his mount in one of the races, is reported to be in serious According to a Hindoo legend, this trouble. Mr. Crooks is said to have supposed to have been a bay hook, and left lying on the ground unconscious serious at a late hour last night though not necessarily critical.

The cowardly assailant of the horse man was believed to have been Jack Garrison, the discharged Jockey, and the officers of the city and county searched for the fellow all last night, but were unable to find him. The jockey probably skipped out on last night's overland, but should Mr. Crooks' condition become critical, the young fellow will doubtless be arrest. ed and brought back to face a serious. charge. It might terminate in a murder triat.

RIPPLES.

"Plowhard has a big opinion of himelf."

"How big?"

"Well, he's beginning to imagine he's annoyed by camera fiends."-Puck.

He-What do you think of the idea of adopting the sunflower as the national flower?

She-It's typical of quite a numerous lass of Americans. It makes a big spread all summer and is seedy in the all.-Chicago Chronicle.

Guest-What's that? Some stranded ictor trying to beat you out of his hoard? Hotel Proprietor-No; those fellows don't give us any trouble, aires-paid his bill, but he's trying to

The Rev. Dr. Fourthly-I have now been your pastor, Mrs. Upjohn, five full years. And yet it seems only a short time, after all.

RICE AND POPULATION.

In deciding whether China's populairl it was a case of love at first sight, tries which produce corn, on the other this purpose, or, in the event of the men under a Cossack guard. His refailure of an effort to secure joint acception here was a repetition of his rement. from a military point of today's action, part in it.

United States may either form'n part . Tion Tsin, Sept. 20., via Shanghai, of a joint International Commission, Sept. 21. 4.4 Hung Chang has arrived which it is hoped will be appointed for here, and is domiciled in his own yation, then the members can go on and ception at Tong Ku, only the Russian deal directly with China for a settle- and Japanese, officers calling on him, It is believed that the outcome, those of the other nations not taking

Enormous Crowds Enjoyed Pioneer Day at the State Fair and Race Track.

State Fair, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by many thousands of people. not only the residents of Salem, and Great Interest was also manifested. Marion and Polk- county, but by stany hundreds upon hundreds of vise settlers of Oregon, the men and women, who came to the strange and un-Bay Company, were present in large to help swell the crowds and to enjoy just and fair, the Oregon State Fair, and the gathone long to be remembered.

and throughout the day the people consisting of a staid matron from the on horseback, on street cars, in car- a boy of 8, were seen standing at the as they realized that, if attendance sweet fluid. was a criterion. the fair was certain-Iv a success.

From one end of the ground to the other the visitors passed, viewing the exhibits the live stock, the refreshment tents etc., and all enjoyed the day as their hearts, of the crowd strayed toward the stock are more so than the ladies-and The judges declared Al Me the win-stalls, where the live stock, the blood- everything was received with cheers her of the race, with Dewey Ann com-

"ittrie

(From Daily Statesman, Sept. 22.) | conducted. The sale did not cause Yesterday was an ideal day for the much excitement, however, as the bidding was not spirited, the animal sold going for less than half of their value.

in the county exhibits, in the pavilion. The decision of the judges suddenly opened the eyes of the public to the itors from every portion of the state. fact that Marion county's exhibit was It was "Ploneer Day," and the okl really an excellent one, and crowds surrounded Clyde LaFollett's booth in the pavilion all of yesterday, admiring his monster vegetables, his time settled Oregon country in the days of fruits and other products, and congra-Dr. McLaughlin and 'the' Hudson's tulated the young man on his success. The opinion of one and all was that the decision of the judges was good. numbers, every portion of the state and that their award of the blue rib having contributed of their numbers bon to the Marion county exhibit was

A large crowd of the old pioneers and their friends was around the as said before, an ideal one, a light miring the beautiful creamery masumlight, a bainy air and a large cheese and the splendid butter milk, crowd on p'ensure heat mak n ; the day and barrels of the latter were conentting off considerable trude from Large crowds came early in the day, the refreshment booths. One party.

riages, and by every way possible, pitcher for a solid 20 minutes, drinkand the faces of the officers of the ing butter milk, and they consumed, State Fair Board wore broad smiles, by actual count, seven quarts of the onty a people. thoroughly satisfied the people crowded to the grand stand race with case, and in-a magnificent with themselves and their suround- at the race track, filling the seats in stride. On the first quarter Prince can do. Good nature and satis- the stand and waiting eagerly for the faction was apparent on all faces, and royal sport to begin. The grand stand, Ann in third place, and on the second the State Fair had a warm spot in viewed from the press box, present-

AT THE RACE TRACK.

Everything was enjoyed, from the two-thirds of the people in the seats Tom, and from then on it was a conreturning rubber ball" at were ladies mostly young ladies- test between the two until the end of which no one took "offense except old dressed in bright colors, and flowers the stretch was reached, when Dewey maids and school ma'ams" to the and bright ribbons were everywhere Ann spurted ahead and followed close traction engine race and the stock in evidence. It was by far the bright- behind Al Me, heaving Webli's imrade, and there was scarce a thing est crowd yet seen in the grand horse, Prince Tom, in last place, the in the big fair but wimt contributed stand this season, and was a picture finish being tame. Time, 2:2714. The to making the day one of pleasure. worth the price of admission to view. time by quarters was, 35%, 1:15, 1:51. Prof. Whiting. During the forenoon a large portion 'And they were good-natured-none 2:2712.

ed horses and the sheep, goats and and a waving of handkerchiefs and ing in for second money, and Prince State Agricultural Society held a meet-Tom, third. This was a remarkably ing in the secretary's office. A good judges, and later in the day, a mole The grand stand had been pretty good finish for Dewey Ann. consider- attendance of members was had, and surrounded the horse stalls, where a well packed before the races were ing her bad finish in the first heat, the matter of continuing the organisale of Percheron horses was being called, but there was no impatience when she saved herself from being zation was discussed at length.

RUNNING 51/2 FURLONGS.

The last face was called just before anset. It was the running 51/2 furlongs, purse, 150, weight for age. The horses entered in this event, together with the weights carried by each. were: C. E. Moltgrieve's Sunset arrying 113 pounds; L. H. Whitmore's Wallowa, 113; F. O. Whitmore's married at an early age," she' finally Marengo, 119; II. L. Adams' Give-toconsented? . . . Me. 113; A. Lester's Almendral, 113; I. F. Donaime's Red Spinner, 126; W. 1000 E. Milam's Jimmie G., 121. The horses were kept at the post until long after Sir William Pailey, the head of the sunset, but at last a good start was had, and a splendid race was the result. Marengo winning the race, with Almendral, second, and Give-to-Me.

third. Time 1:11. EVENING OF PIONEER DAY. The evening of "Pioneer Day" saw he largest crowd on the grounds and in the pavilion that has yet been seen here. It seemed as though nearly the entire population of the city had rowded to the grounds, together with nany hundreds from the surrounding country and the various cities of the calley and state. Everywhere were crowds, and, with the single excep tion of yesterday afternoon, it was perhaps the largest crowd that has visited the State Fuir during the present meet, The musical program en joyed by thousands, who thronged, the pavilion and crowded around the

Mrs. Hinges' singing was beautiful as usual, and met with the hearty and proval of the audience. She same

'Hearts and Flowers" and in response to an encore sang "Ben Bolt". Her vocalization was simply perfect, ante she was as usual, the favorite of the large audience.

An interesting feature of the program was some very neat work performed by the Benjamin Beno, of Port land, on the trapeze. His performances were accompanied by music by Brown's orchestra.

The outside illustrated singing by Chas. H. Whiting was exceptionally good and listened to by a large audi ence. The songs sung were "My Old New Hampshire Home" and "Just as the Sun Went Down."

Chas. H. Whiting is becoming great favorite. His singing merits He was the most hearty applause. recalled twice last evening. His first selection was the "Lullaby," followed > encore. Brown's Orchestra continues to be one of the great attractions of the fair. Seldom have the people who attend the fair had the opportunity of listening to such a grand treat in music. Last evening's program was one of the best of the fair and was as > Offenbacher No. 2. Offenbach. Trupeze waltz.

Ray melodies, Coon songs, Mrs. Hinges.

Selection by Brown's band, Il Trovator, by request. "Asleep in the Deep," by Rev. D. V Polling, of The Dalles. Pand, Serenade, by Herbert.

"Lulkaby" and "Blue and Gray," by Star Spangled Banner, Orchestra.

During the evening the old Oregon and as she prattled to her dolls she hand, only yield one crop a year told them of her affection for Horace. Therefore, apportionately to its ex-When she remarked to her parents that she was going to be married they ought to support twice as large a popregarded it as childish talk. However, the met Shellenberger frequently, and corn. her love for the young farmer grew. He pleaded with Mrs. Spell to consent to the marriage, and, as she had been

MUMMY CLOTH.

Albion works at Salford, England, told at the present day they employ by this story the other day; "A certain Manchester merchant saw a mummy in Egypt and brought away a portion of the mammy cloth. This was handed to a buyer of a large Manchester warehouse, who was asked if he could tell where it was woven. After examning it carefully with his glass, be said he thought he could put his finger on the mill where it was produced if tucky is expected to come and Join, he could borrow the piece for a few days. Afterward he reported that it was made where he had thought, near

Oldham, and was called by the manufacturer his 'No. 85.'

CHINA'S FOREIGN DEBT.

No statement of the revenues and expenditures of China ever has been made public, but it is estimated that she collects and spends about $45,000, 000 annually. China has an outstand-ing foreign delit of about $270,000,000.

PUBLINESS VIEW OF NEW ZEAL AND.

A Chinese writer thus describes New Zealand: "The people live months without eating a mouthful of rice. They cat bullocks and sheep in enormotts quantities, with knives and prongs. They never enjoy themselves by sitting quietly on their ancestors' graves, but jump around and kick talls."

CLEVELAND'S BOULEVARD DEC ORATIONS.

"No, you can't fail to find my house. Ever been out our way?" "Nop.

"Well, you get off the car at the Bin gleburn bonlevard, and go straight ahead until you reach the seventeenth billboard."

"Yes." . "My house is behind the eighteenth." -Cleveland Plain Dealer.

One morn a Perl at the gate Of Eden stood, disconsolute, cent, a country which produces rice ulation as a country which produces 14142

CHINESE AS INVENTORS.

The Chinese consider themselves our superior on many grounds, but largely because they were the inventors of various arts which are fundamental 'in our own civilization. They were the first discoverers of ink, though even preference what is commonly known as India ink.

TO AID FORAER.

Urbana, O., Sept. 21.- The Republian campaign in this section will be opened this evening by Senator For-Ex-Governor Taylor, of Kenaker. Foraker here and continue with him on a stumping tour of the state.

SUPJECTS TO QUEEN VICTORIA.

Queen Victoria rules over more Mohanemedans than the Sultan of Turkey, over more Hebrews than there are in Palestine, and over more Negrors than any other sovereign who is not a native of Africa.

A Few Pointers.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases, Price 25c. and 50c. For sale by all druggists.

It has been decided in England that, if a person keeps bees, he does it at i's own risk, and that he is liable in damages if the insects revolt and invade the premises of other people.

Mrs. Upjohn (with a far away gaze) No. five years does not seem so long except when I recall the fact that I eave had thirty-seven different hired girls in that time.-Chicago Tribune.

Experience has (proved that a , cow will give more milk if she is fresh in the fail than she will if she calves in the spring.

DA JORDAN & CO., 1051 Market St . S

