THOMAS HOLMAN HAS RETURNED TO THIS CITY.

Interesting Account of Conditions in the Far Northern Mining Camp. - The Courts Censured.

(From Daily Statesman, Sept. 29.) storm that visited Nome recently was Thomas Holman, a well known buslness man of this city, who went to Non e last spring, returned home, last evening, on the 6:15 train, having left Nome on the steamship Tacoma which arrived at Seattle Thursday. with 525 passengers on board. Mr. Holman expressed himself, last evening, when seen at his home by a repre entative of the Statesman, as being well pleased with his experience in the mining district around Nome. He, with a number of others, purchased a claim on Hungry Creek, soon after their arrival in Alaska, and went to work upon it. The result of their Edwin L. Chalcraft has been appointwork was highly satisfactory and it is quite probable that the party will ernment Indian Training Schools. He return next spring to continue the work on their claims. > SUCCESSFUL FISHING TRIP. Fred W. and W. H. Stensloff, the Salem butchers, remrised yesterday arternoon from a few days' fishing at Yaquina. They enjoyed splendid sport at the mouth of the Yaquina river and in the bay, trolling for salmon, and they were very successful, securing over a dozen of large Silver Sides. These fish are now running in that river, and are eagerly picked up by amateur dishermen. The fish brought to this city by the Messrs. Steusloff were big fellows, and were distributed among the friends of the gentlemen. The Statesman force acknowledges the receipt of one of the fish, a fine fellow, weighing about 18 pounds.

COUNTY TAXES .- Of the $217,095 $119,400 was paid on September 1st, by financial reverses. and during this month a little over $40,000 has been paid. It is safe to say that by tomorrow evening $47. 000 will have been paid this month, which will leave about $50,000 yet to be collected, Monday, when taxes unpaid are delinquent. It is probable that this amount will be cut in two before the property is advertised so the delinquent tax roll will not be so large as was expected.

WEBSTER'S FINE DISTINCTION.

The New York Tribune tells thist "Daniel Webster," said M. H. Gilman, of Boston, yesterday at the Murray Hill Hotel, "as all the world knows, had a penchant for looking on wine when it glowed rosy red. At one time he was driving to Cambridge from Boston. He was billed to make a speech at the home of Harvard, and was next taken up. John W. Roeder his companion in the old-fashioned gig was a member of the reception committee and a resident of the town. On the way to Cambridge Mr. Webster turned to his fellow traveller with an enquiry whether there was not some place in the neighborhood where they could obtain a drink. If you will drive a short distance out of the way to my house,' was the courteous response, 'I think I can promise you as good a drink of Jamaica rum as you ever tasted.' To the house the twain accordingly journeyed, and once there, the host, true to his promise, set before the statesman a decanter of ex-Chas, A. Wentsch, of the Fair Haven tremely fine rum. The great Massacharge, having concluded the second chuset's senator poured out a brimming beaker and quaffed it off with out wincing. His host tentatively pushed toward him the water jug, but Senator Webster, after eyeing it a moment, said: Thank you, no: 1 wanted a drink, but I am not thirsty." He then went on to Cambridge and delivered one of his masterly efforts."
