WILLIAM RICE WAS MURDERED

His Valet Confesses that Attorney Patrick Did the Deed.

THE MILLIONAIRE'S BIG FORTUNE

Was the Stake Played for by Patrick and Jones—Both Are in Prison Awaiting Trial.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The death of the wealthy William Marsh Rice, at his Madison Avenue apartments, on September 23d; the attempt of his New York attorney, Albert T. Patrick, to cash checks for large amounts which were purported to be signed by the millionaire; the refusal of one bank to cash the checks drawn on it, and the discovery by the bank's officials that Rice was lying dead at the time the checks were presented; the subsequent claim by Patrick that Rice had made him by will the trustee of his estate, which amounts to anywhere from $3,000,000 to $8,000,000; the charge of forgery, both as regards the checks and the will, placed against Patrick and Jones, and their lodgment in jail, have kept New York interested for over a month in what the developments of today promises to become one of the most celebrated crimes which the courts of this city have been called on to investigate.

The first incident which led up to today's climax was the fact, disclosed yesterday, that Valet Jones had been taken to the district attorney's office, and the subsequent rumor that he had made a confession to the authorities. Before the public had time to learn if the report of the confession was true, came the more startling news that, during the night Jones had, in his cell in the Tombs, attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a penknife, given him he says by Attorney Patrick, also confined in the Tombs, and for the purpose of getting rid of one witness to Patrick's alleged crime.

His crime, according to the confession of Jones, parts of which the district attorney's office gave out today, was nothing less than the murder of Millionaire Rice by Attorney Patrick, and the purloining of his papers relating to the estate. The taking off of Rice, says Jones, was done by internal administration of some poison, supposedly mercury, and the final application of some anesthetic, presumably chloroform. That portion of the confession, which has to do with the last moments of the old man, is given out by the authorities as coming from Jones, the scene taking place in the apartments of the millionaire, and he lying sick in bed.

READY FOR CROKER.

REPUBLICAN MANAGERS WILL PREVENT RIOTS.

Democratic Threats Met with the Statement that Voters' Rights Will Be Protected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Republican National Committee today issued a formal statement to the voters, as follows:

"Mr. Croker, head of the Democratic organization in New York, has ordered his subordinates to gather in force at the polls next Tuesday, and in case they see the result of the count going against them, to eject the election officers and take possession of the ballot boxes by force. This astounding anarchistic order has been approved and endorsed by Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Notwithstanding the announcement of this Democratic policy of terrorizing the voters and burglarizing the ballot boxes, the Republican National Committee desires to state to the public that the Republican managers, National, state and local, have taken measures to insure the rights of every voter in this election, and that every vote shall be properly counted and recorded as cast. The committee therefore admonish all voters that they must not be deterred by these threats of the Democratic leaders from exercising the right of suffrage, Tuesday next, and we shall see to it that his vote shall be protected at all hazards."

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

He Addresses Large Crowds—Nine Speeches Last Evening.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—William J. Bryan this afternoon began his three days' itinerary of this city, addressing a vast concourse at Randolph street and Michigan Avenue. The speaker's stand was at the side of the public library, and so dense was the throng around it that the Presidential candidate was literally dragged to the platform by a squad of policemen acting under the personal supervision of Mayor Harrison, who had ridden with Bryan from the railway station. "The hour was especially auspicious, as thousands of workmen and office employees had just completed their day's task and awaited the coming of the Democratic champion. After dinner he proceeded on his tour of the northwest side of the city, where he made eight speeches, all of them to large crowds.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Four eggs were thrown at William J. Bryan tonight, just as he left Central Turner hall, on Milwaukee Avenue, where he had concluded his address. The eggs were thrown by three or four young men, one of whom, John B. Myres, a sign painter, was placed under arrest. The other men escaped.

AFTER CROKER AND JONES

Roosevelt Shows the Democratic Leaders to Be in Favor of Riots.

He Warns Them that New York State Will Cast an Honest Vote, and that the State Machinery Will Protect the Voters in Their Rights.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Governor Roosevelt finished next to the last day of his New York state tour in this city, after having traveled through five counties and making fifteen speeches during the day. His speeches during the day, and at both of these cities were flavored with vigorous attacks on Richard Croker and National Democratic Chairman Jones, for their alleged attitude on the coming of the ballots, which Governor Roosevelt diagnosed as an incitement to violence. At both, Dunkirk and Jamestown, and especially in the latter place, tonight, there were immense audiences.

HE SLAPPED CROKER.

Albion, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The first stop of the Roosevelt train today was made at Batavia where the Governor said:

"Beyond all other issues are the issues of orderly liberty under the law and of civic honesty. Bryan's chief lieutenant, Croker, represents the forces which stand for civic dishonesty, and now they openly champion the cause of riot, mob violence, of upsetting by force of fraud the verdict rendered by the people at the polls. With the openly expressed encouragement and approval of Senator Jones, who is running Bryan's national canvass, Croker has now twice, in open statements, incited the violent and lawless to open riot on Election Day, next Tuesday."

Continuing Governor Roosevelt said: "Every power of the state will be exerted to see, on next Tuesday, that each man in this state shall cast his vote as he pleases and shall have it counted as cast. If Bryan has a plurality of but one vote in this state, its count will be protected by every force at the command of the executive, and the same measure of justice that we give to others we shall expect to have given us in return."

WOULD NOT HEAR HANNA.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Mark Hanna bowed to a storm of hisses, cat calls and cheers for Bryan, in the big circus tent at Halstead and Thirtieth streets, tonight, giving up his attempt to get

THE ELECTION BULLETINS

Returns Will Be Shown by Edison's New Vitascope

IN FRONT OF STATESMAN OFFICE

This Latest Electric Wonder to Be Used in Giving the Returns Hot from the Wires.

The election news will be bulletined from the Statesman office on Tuesday night next by the United States Vitascope Exhibition Co. The canvas will be across the street from the Statesman office, in the windows of Catlin & Linn and Horst Bros., and the instrument used will be the latest invention of Edison, the vitascope, operated by electricity. The returns will be taken direct from the wires, as furnished by the Associated Press and the Western Union Telegraph Co., and they will be full and reliable. There will be no politics connected with the returns, of course. Simply the news will be given. The Statesman and some of its Salem friends will bear the expense, and it will be free to all the people who can get within seeing distance, and no doubt there will be the biggest crowd that ever waited for the election returns in Salem, if the weather is at all propitious.

Many country people will be in to see how the election has gone, and they will be as welcome as the city people. Between the returns the living pictures will be exhibited, so that the crowd will be entertained as it waits.

STILL CONFINED IN JAIL.

Samuel Jackson, the Indian Boy, Has a Hard Time in His Efforts to Secure Liberty.

Judge R. P. Boise held a brief session of his department of the circuit yesterday. During the afternoon, the case of Samuel Jackson, the Chilocat Indian from Chawawa, again came up for argument in his petition for habeas corpus, and after the examination of some witnesses and the presentation of arguments, the further hearing was postponed to 2 p. m. today, Jackson being sent back to jail in the meantime.

The following docket entries were also made by the court:

Fannie M. Chittenden, plaintiff, vs. W. E. Chittenden, defendant; divorce granted; custody of children awarded to plaintiff.
Welch Bros., plaintiffs, vs. the Goodale Lumber Co., defendants; dismissed on agreement of parties without costs to either party.
Gilbert Bros., plaintiffs, vs. Wm. Cappel, et al., defendants; confirmation; confirmed.
John M. Olds, plaintiff, vs. Catherine Olds, defendant; divorce; demurre on motion of plaintiff.

ELECTRIC PLANT BURNED.—The Eugene Guard of Tuesday has the following from Cottage Grove: "The electric light plant of this city, caught fire this morning, and it is a total loss. Owing to a failure to secure a hearing until the police had restored order. For 45 minutes the mob had its innings, and then seventy policemen took a hand and cleared the aisles.

INDIANA IS SAFE.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Harry S. New, National Committeeman from Indiana, today said: "Indiana is safely Republican this year beyond a doubt, and McKinley's majority will be greater than in 1896."

McKINLEY AT CANTON.

Canton, O., Nov. 1.—President McKinley has decided to remain in Canton to receive the news of the election next Tuesday night, and he will return to Washington Wednesday.

BRYAN IN INDIANA.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—From reports which have come to me, and from my own observation, I am satisfied that Indiana is as safely Democratic as is Missouri."

Thus spoke Wm. J. Bryan as he alighted from the Monon train at the Dearborn street station, today, at 4:20 o'clock. He had just arrived from a tour of the state of Indiana, and from prolonged trips through various states farther Eastward. He added that the general outlook was encouraging, but did not go into details. Bryan's itinerary today covered a number of points between Indianapolis and this city, all of them being in the state of Indiana. Bryan left the private car "Rambler" for good upon his arrival here. He has occupied it for just five weeks, and traveled 7000 or 8000 miles in it.

Bryan ran into a Republican meeting at Bensenville. When he arrived at the meeting place there was a large crowd to greet him; but it was evident there was a good deal of McKinley sentiment there. Grasping the situation, Bryan said:

"I am sorry that it has so happened that my meeting comes on the same day as the Republican meeting, but in arranging this visit it was not possible to make it on any other day, and I am sure that here we can meet together as members of different parties, and that there should be no friction, between those who think as I do and those who are opposed to the opinions which I advocate."
