

IS THE RECORD-BREAKER

Roosevelt's Wonderful Campaign Completed at Oswego, N. Y., Last Night.

Bryan Addressed Crowds in Chicago Yesterday--He Submits to an Interview Which May Look Funny After the Election on November 6th.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 2.--Governor Roosevelt completed tonight, at this point, one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States.

This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled, and more territory covered, than that of all other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States, of all other parties, for the last 100 years.

Roosevelt finished his tour in excellent health and in good spirits, and as he said tonight, "with a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks or more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops.

Just as the train was pulling out of Wayveo, a stone was thrown, breaking the glass in an observation window in Governor Roosevelt's car.

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Nov. 2.--W. J. Bryan's program in Chicago today comprised twelve speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of yesterday and last night.

disturbance manifested. Two men in the audience asked almost simultaneously: "How about North Carolina?" and Bryan was replying when one questioner insisted on asking a question concerning the trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him.

The Republican campaign has been a failure. The full dinner pill argument has been repudiated by the workmen, and the Republicans are compelled to confess that a large proportion of the labor vote will be cast for the Democratic ticket.

The poor are coming to the Democratic party because they want a chance in the race for life, and many of the well-to-do are coming because they realize that the Democratic party affords better protection to the honest wealth than the Republican party.

most thickly populated portion of the city of Stockport, England, stands an immense four-story brick building, at once the pride of the town and the Mecca of Sunday school pilgrims from every quarter of the globe.

This famous institution dates back to 1784, four years after Robert Raikes began his notable experiment in Sooty Alley. It was originally established for the children of the laboring poor, whose condition was at that time pitiful in the extreme.

ADDRESS BY MARK HANNA

He Devotes His Time to Discussing Imperialism and Trusts.

THE FANATICISM OF W. J. BRYAN

He Says, Is Laying the Foundation for Socialism and Anarchy--Stevenson at Fort Wayne.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.--United States Senator Mark Hanna addressed three meetings tonight. Bryan spoke in this section of the northwest side last night, and Senator Hanna devoted most of his time to a discussion of imperialism and trusts, on which Bryan dwelt chiefly.

"It amounts almost to fanaticism and chicanery," said Hanna, "for a man who aspires to the high office of President, to raise a question so foreign to the principles and future of our Government, to talk about imperialism as an issue. It is but another bogey man to frighten the people."

STEVENSON IN INDIANA.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Nov. 2.--Adlai E. Stevenson received today the greatest ovation ever given any candidate in this city, eclipsing even Bryan's reception in 1896.

GOOD ROADS CONGRESS.

To Be in Session in Chicago During This Month.

Chicago, Nov. 2.--Martin Dodge, director of the office of the Road Inquiry, of the Department of Agriculture, and W. H. Moore, president of the Interstate Good Roads and Improvement Association, arrived in Chicago last night after an extended tour of the West in the interest of good roads and other internal improvements.

Delegations will come to Chicago to attend the congress from all parts of the United States. There will be considerable discussion of the construction of good roads to bring farmers and city people into closer contact with each other, and of the dredging of international streams and the extension of irrigation work throughout the country.

PLAN OF THE POWERS.

Empress Dowager Must Be Deposed by the Chinese.

Washington, Nov. 2.--It was stated today in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs, that outside of the question of indemnity, punishments, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz:

First, the removal of the Empress Dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisers, from all participation in the Chinese Government.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio Society, the American Fine Arts Society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum Association and the American Geographical Society.

committee of seventy was appointed to organize the opposition to Tammany Hall, to frame a platform and select candidates for office, and it was this committee that selected Mr. Strong to run for mayor on the reform platform.

FIGHT WITH A WILDCAT.

Man and Beast Have an Awful Struggle in a Well.

Susquehanna, Pa., Oct. 27.--Samuel Felton is thanking his lucky stars that he is alive today. His experience one night recently has made him reflect upon the uncertainty of things mundane.

With a savage yell the beast sprang from the limb and landed upon Felton's shoulders, and immediately began operations on his clothing and person. Felton defended himself as best he could, but was fast becoming beaten when there was a sudden crash, and man and cat fell through some rotten boards and into a well twenty feet deep.
