ACCIDENT IN A BOWLING ALLEY

Fletcher Long Falls and Sustains a Fractured Limb While Enjoying an Innocent Sport.

Fletcher Long, a young man about 17 years of age, who resides with his parents on South Commercial street, broke his leg last night while bowling in the bowling alley belonging to Otto Klett, at the corner of Commercial and Ferry streets. The boy was in the act of throwing the ball when his foot slipped causing him to fall heavily to the floor which fractured the bone of his left leg about 4 inches above the knee.

For a moment he lay upon the floor, laughing, but his companions soon discovered that he was unable to get up and came to his assistance. He was helped to his feet and it was found that he was seriously hurt. Dr. John Reynolds was summoned, and he made known the nature of the injury and the young man was taken to his home where the fracture was reduced and all done that was possible to make the sufferer comfortable.

Fletcher Long was for many years a news boy and is well known all over the city. For the past few months he has been driving the delivery wagon of E. C. Cross' meat market.

HOPS LYING IN NEW YORK.

Awaiting Shipment to Foreign Ports—Room on Ocean Vessels Not Available.

Valentine Lowie, the pioneer hop broker of New York, in discussing the condition of the market, says in his "Producers' Price Currents" under date of November 17th:

Bales, Receipts for week.....12,729
Receipts from Sept. 1.....51,578
Exports to Europe for week.....3,488
Exports from Sept. 1.....16,248
Imports for week.....160
Imports from Sept. 1.....1,042
There is continued free buying in the interior of the state, with 20c. promptly paid, and 20c. bid for especially desirable lots while few if any now obtainable below 10c. unless of exceptionally poor quality. The large discrepancy between receipts and exports is explained by the fact of a scarcity of suitable ocean freight room and thousands of bales are reported here awaiting shipment. Brewers are showing very fair and increasing interest. Reliable advices from the Pacific coast report only 6000 to 8000 bales left unsold in first hands in Oregon and about the same quantity in Washington, though the warehouses on the coast are filled with hops that have been sold and await shipment. London advices report a more active demand from brewers at well supported prices. We raise price of highest grade state 1900 hops a trifle but make change in other grades, though the market is in quite firm shape all around. Comparatively few 1890 hops in first hands and desirable grades held firmly.

A DIVORCE DENIED.

The Case of Steele vs. Steele on Trial in the Circuit Court Yesterday.

In department No. 2 of the state circuit court, Judge R. P. Boise put in the entire day yesterday in hearing evidence and argument in the contested divorce case of Nettie G. Steele vs. Chas. E. Steele.

The plaintiff alleged cruel and inhuman treatment in numerous charges which were each denied by the defendant. After hearing the evidence and argument for plaintiff by Attorneys R. J. Fleming and W. T. Kaiser, and for the defense by B. F. Bonham and Carey F. Martin, the court rendered quite a lengthy opinion, denying the divorce sought by Mrs. Steele.

In the divorce case of H. H. Henline vs. M. O. Henline, Judge Boise ordered a decree of divorce yesterday, giving the plaintiff one-third of his wife's property together with costs and disbursements of the suit.

In the divorce case of Fannie Z. M. Melky vs. Samuel A. Melky, a default of the defendant was noted and the case set for trial at 10 o'clock, Monday, November 26th. A number of other equity cases are also set for trial at the same date.

FROM ST. MICHAELS.—Hon. E. T. Hatch, formerly of Polk county,

but for the past three years collector of customs at St. Michaels, Alaska, was a Salem visitor yesterday, having left his post on the last steamer, on October 21st, in response to orders from Washington, to report in Portland for orders. He expects to be assigned to duty on the coast until spring, when on June 1st, he will be sent back to his post, that being the time of the opening of navigation. He is enjoying the visit in Oregon, the first one in three years, very much. He reports an enormous business at his post, having passed $2,000,000 in merchandise through the custom house for Dawson last season, while $7,500,000 in gold from the Klondike passed through the custom house, on the way to the outer world.

HIGHER EDUCATION.

Provided by American Catholics for Ambitious Women.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Triality College, the newly founded Catholic institution for higher education of women, was dedicated today. The institution is one of the most ambitious projects of higher education that has yet received attention of the Catholic authorities. Cardinal Gibbons, in giving his first blessing to the project, said it would relieve the university from the embarrassment of refusing admission to women, many of whom had applied for its higher instruction, and would complete and crown the whole system of Catholic education.

CHANGED THE NAME.

The Monitor Connecticut Now Called the Nevada.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Monitor No. 8, formerly known as Connecticut, building at Bath, Me., has been renamed the Nevada by Secretary Long. The state authorities of Connecticut decided that their commonwealth was entitled to the dignity of a battleship in the naval nomenclature.

FREED BY PHILIPINOS.

American Officer, a Prisoner of Rebels, Set at Liberty.

MANILA, Nov. 22.—Lieutenant Frederick W. Alstetter, of the United States Engineers, who was captured by the insurgents early last September north of San Isidro, has been released. He entered the American garrison at Gahan, province of Nuevas Ecija, Tuesday evening, his appearance there being a great surprise as Aguinaldo's order for the release of American soldiers included only enlisted men.
