LIQUID FUEL IN STEAMERS.

A Vessel Travels to London From Borneo, Using Only Oil to Fire Its Furnaces.

In October the steamship Covrie steamed all the way from Koetel in Borneo to London, a distance of 9,235 miles, using nothing but liquid fuel. When the steamer reached London the boilers for supplying steam for the unloading machinery were fired by the same material. The oil was not burned by a thin layer of incandescent coal, as is the case in some systems, but was reduced to a spray by means of a steam jet at the furnace door where it was delivered from tanks above the boilers.

The Covrie was formerly fired with coal and her owners say that her conversion to liquid fuel has been attended with advantageous results. Only six stokers are now required, though sixteen were necessary when coal was used. A great deal of bunker space is also saved. The consumption of oil at sea is only twenty-two tons a day while the daily consumption of coal used to be thirty-five tons, and a ton of oil occupies only thirty-four cubic feet against forty-five feet required for coal. The oil is also taken on board much more quickly than coal, and recently 300 tons were pumped into a German steamer in an hour.

The oil yielded by the Borneo oil fields is said to make an excellent fuel just as it comes from the ground, and it is beginning to be much used for this purpose by the Hamburg-American and other steamers that are engaged in the Eastern trade.

A YOUNG MURDERER.

Chicago Lad Convicted Yesterday—Goes to Reform School.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Richard Novak, aged 14 years, was today found guilty of murder. Novak stabbed and killed his companion, Albert Olson, during a quarrel on September 17th. Novak is said to be the youngest murderer ever convicted in Cook county. He will be sent to the reformatory under the indeterminate act, where he will be confined until he is released on parole, or sent to the state prison when he is of age.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—The general council today unanimously adopted a resolution that the French Government should take the initiative in the endeavor to bring about an arbitration of the issues between Great Britain and the Boers.

QUICK WORK.

A Convict, an Expert Safe Blower, Borrowed to Open a Safe.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—A special to the Tribune from Columbus, O., says: In order to immediately secure valuable papers belonging to her dead husband, the late Colonel F. J. Pickard, a girl, an expert safe blower, now a convict in the state penitentiary here, was loaned to Mrs. Pickard by the warden long enough for him to open the strong box in which the important papers were kept. The entire affair was kept secret, and the prisoner was conveyed through the city in a closed carriage to the safe, which he blew open and was returned to his cell before daylight this morning.

All private papers were locked up in Colonel Pickard's safe, the dead man alone having known the combination. The town was searched in vain for an expert to open the safe, and the novel plan of securing the services of a convict was adopted. It took the convict twelve minutes to open the safe.

MAYORS IN COUNCIL.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 28.—The mayors of the different cities of the state of Arkansas began their session here today. They will prepare plans for the furthering of legislation before the next Legislative Boards of trustees, business men's leagues and commercial organizations have delegates in attendance.

WILL GO TO ASIA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—It is considered likely in naval circles, says a Herald special from Washington, that Rear-Admiral Frederick Rodgers, president of the Inspection Board, will be assigned to duty on the Asiatic station. It cannot be ascertained that he is to succeed either Rear-Admiral Remey or Rear-Admiral Kempff, though there are rumors that he will relieve the latter. It is intimated that with the large force of American warships in Asiatic waters there should be a Commander-in-Chief and two subordinate flag officers.

SUBSTITUTE FOR PLUM PUDDING.

Cheaper, More Easily Made and as Good as the Popular Christmas Dinner Dessert.

Plum pudding, the traditional Christmas pudding, is expensive, and few people can afford either the time to make it or the cost of the materials. Substitute a Saratoga pudding, and few will know the difference. To make one, roll and sift one pint of stale breadcrumbs; add one cupful of flour, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, half of a grated nutmeg, a cupful of brown sugar, a pound of seedless raisins, a quarter of a pound of shredded citron, four, and half a pound of raw suet, freed from membrane and chopped fine; mix thoroughly. Dissolve one teaspoonful of baking soda in two tablespoonfuls of water, and add it to one cupful of New Orleans molasses; add one egg well beaten, the juice and grated rind of one lemon, and pour it into the dry ingredients. Work all carefully together until it is moist, not wet, and pack it down into a greased kettle or mould. Cover and boil continuously for four hours. Lift the lid of the mould until the pudding is cold, then cover and stand aside. Reheat at serving time. An ordinary hard kettle may be used in place of a mould. This pudding may be made a week before Christmas and heated for Christmas dinner. Serve hot with hard sauce.—Mrs. S. T. Rowe, in the December Ladies' Home Journal.

SENIOR REAR ADMIRAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Rear Admiral Frederick G. McNair died at his residence, in this city, today, from a stroke of apoplexy. He was the ranking rear admiral of the navy, and the officer next in line to Admiral Dewey.

SUDDEN ILLNESS.—Miss Evaline Geer, private secretary to, and daughter of State Land Agent L. B. Geer, became seriously ill in the State Land Office, at the Capitol, yesterday morning. She had a fainting spell, and a physician was hastily summoned, who soon gave her relief, and the patient was removed to her home on Capital street. She was reported somewhat improved last evening, and she is expected to soon recover.

BEAUTIFUL TOMBSTONE THAT TELLS A ROMANCE.

This is a Monument of Love, Hewn Out by a Devoted Husband to Perpetuate the Memory of His Wife and Two Infant Children.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Recent inquiry, by relatives, concerning a man who once made Philadelphia his home has revived interest in a beautiful monument in South Laurel Hill cemetery.

One would scarcely look for romance among the little mounds that mark the beds of the quiet sleepers, and yet a story from real life may be read in Laurel Hill by any passer-by. Overlooking the river and East Fairmount Park Drive there is the statue of a woman bearing two babes in her arms. This is a monument of love, hewn out by a devoted husband to perpetuate the memory of his wife and two infant children.

The story of Henry Dinichowski has passed from the recollection of most Philadelphians, but there are a few still who remember it.

Dinichowski was a Polish patriot who wed one Helena Ashaaf in the pretty Rhine country of German fifty years ago. It was his intention to live in Poland, but, unable to free his native country from the Russian yoke, he was exiled after the uprising of 1846 by governmental authorities. With his wife he came to America and took up his residence in the Quaker City, assuming the name of Saunders. In a short time he was well known as a sculptor of ability.

In 1857 his wife died at the birth of twin children. The children also died, and with the passing of the dearest object of his life and her two pretty babies the artist seemed to lose interest in his work and did only enough to bring him a scant livelihood.

After a time he began to work at night and his neighbors, when they saw his light burning, said that the "foreigner" was picking up his courage again and was ambitious to earn money, as he had been of old. For many nights from the "foreigner's" cellar there came the sound of chisel and hammer.

But the curions were wrong. The sculptor was not working late to earn money. He was hewing out from the cold white stone an image of his wife and children. In a short time after its completion it was placed over the grave in Laurel Hill, where it still stands.

On one side of the great stone block that forms the pedestal appear the words: "We live in deeds, not years—in thoughts, not breaths—in feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best." On the back one reads in Latin: "Henry Dinichowski Saunders with his own hand made this exact image of his most beloved wife, and consecrated it to her memory in 1858."

The tools with which he worked and a likeness of the sculptor's face are done on other parts of the stone. When his task was finished, Dinichowski disappeared as completely as though he had never existed. Whether he killed himself or went to some foreign land has never been learned.—St. Louis Republic.

Those who are always seeking praise rarely get it.

DELICIOUS CHRISTMAS JUMBLES AT SMALL COST.

Old-fashioned Christmas Jumbles are expensive; simple ones, when well made, are good. Mix half a cupful of carefully rendered suet, or any of the hard substitutes, with two tablespoonfuls of butter. Dissolve a teaspoonful of soda in two tablespoonfuls of water; stir it into one cupful (half a pint) of New Orleans molasses. Which foaming, add a cupful of strong boiling coffee; add this to the shortening; mix, and add a teaspoonful of cinnamon, a tablespoonful of ground ginger, and sufficient flour to make a soft dough, about three cupfuls. Roll the dough half an inch in thickness; cut with a round cutter, and bake in a moderately quick oven for fifteen minutes. This receipt, omitting the soda, and rolling the dough thin, may be used for snaps. Snaps must be baked in a slow oven.—December Ladies' Home Journal.
