NEW IMPORTATION,-Hon. David It FOUNDERED,-Late Wednesday H. Leoney, of Jefferson, one of the evening Simon Lendten, of Yaquina, most noted and successful breeders of fine Jersey stock in Oregon, has added South Beach to tow over the bay another valuable animal to his already tine herd. He recently imported a very fine bull calf, bred on the Island of Jersey. This is probably the only Jersey bull in Oregon that was bred on that famous island. He is sired by the stream the waves began to dash the famous bull. Sultana's Golden Lad high against the side of the scow (P. S. 2009 J. H. G.), owned by Dennis which so frightened the Chinese that Plampied, Trinity, Island of Jersey. The dam of the calf is Lucile of St. Helier, a cow that was highly commended on the island. This addition to the Looney herd is a most important and valuable one for Marion county, and shows that fine stock is appre clated, and that the enterprising stockmen of the valley will spare no pains or cost to make their herds the best in the land:

When well out into they made a rush to the other side. This swamped the craft and at once Mr. Lendten cut lose from it and after landing the nine he had on board hastened back to the rescue, He found most of the Chinese clinging to the seow, but some of them were swimming around in the bay. They were all picked up and taken ashore without the loss of one although it was a narrow escape for some of them. The baggage was all lost, but it is thought that it may be possible to recover some of it.

RESIGNATION OF JUDGE LYONS.

Press of Private Business the Only Reason for His Action—An Able Officers

The Roseburg Review, of Wednesday evening, in discussing the resignation of County Judge Joe Lyons, or Douglas county, mention of which was nude in yesterday's Statesman, says: "County Judge Lyons has tendered his resignation from that office, the papers having been forwarded to Governor Geer Tuesday, to take effect as soon as the Governor may see fit to act upon the same and name his successor. This comes as a surprise as it was not known that such action was contemplated. As was known, the judge's many business interests have been demanding more and more of his personal attention and he could not give proper supervision of the county's affairs without great personal socrifice, hence the resignation.

"The judge's administration during the past two years and a half has been conducted in an able, economical and besiness-like manner and it is to be regretted that he could not continue in the office to the end of the term."

TREMENDOUS

The rush to Friedman's New Racket, since the announcement of the cut in prices which became necessary to the change of firm, has seldom excelled and never equaled in the whole history of Salem.

> The way the people came on foot and horseback, in wagons and trains, boats and mud sleighs; and the way they carried the goods away, what amusing spectacle it was to see the sights how the motormen helped the ladies on with their packages and bundles which came out of Friedmun's New Racket; and to see the wagons loading up in tront of the store, is it a wonder because money talks and that the prices were placed so low that it came within reach of all who needed such articles as clothing, hats, shoes, furnishing goods, dry goods, embroidery, laces; ribbons, hosiery; table and pocket

The sale will continue until the 15th of January, and there is an immense lot of goods still left an at the prices heretofore given, we expect the rush to keep up. In some lines we will make greater reductions, we will put our $15 suits to $8 now instead of nine, passamenter trimining goes down to 40c on the dollar, ladies' capes and jackets reduced to 60c on the dollar, a few lines we run out of, several sizes of spool cotton we are out, but we make up a good assortment in a dozen that we sell for 25c, single spools, 4c; our 50c overalls that we sell for 38c are running low-come and get them while there is yet time. We have secured several hundred sample undershirts from drummers that are worth from 35c to $1.25 each that we will run for 25c each. During our sale a great many of our gents' collars have been mixed up, hence we have several hundred of them that are loose linen collars, we sell those loose ones for 5c each, worth from 10c to 35c each. We have a large stock of corset covers that are ranging in price from 25c to $1.50. The public may partake of them now for 20c each. For the boliday trade we have only staples. Good children's handkerchiefs for 1c each, and the higher price goods in the same preportion.

We also have a good line of albums. We have cut the price on our quilted satin that is worth from $1.25 to $2 per yard, that will be given to the public at 40c per yard. As an inducement we will give the fine embroidered infants' dresses for half price; children's white dresses at half price.

Remember, you can save largely by partaking of our bar. gains, for we still have to raise $4900, and the time is running short on us, and the customers have the benefit of the cut prices necessitating thereby.

It pays you now to make another rush for

ARRESTED AT JEFFERSON.-G. H, Ebbert was arrested at Jefferson yesterday, upon instructions from Chief of Police D. W. Gibson of this city. The authorities here were notified of the arrest, and Chief Gibson went to that place and brought his prisoner back to Salem. Ebbert was taking orders for emarging photographs, claiming that he represented the Portland Art Company as their agent. He took orders for the work, collecting 25 cents for every 50 cent 00 order taken. The Portland company 80 found out about his work and notified the police here that the man had no nuthority to act for them, and that he was pocketing the money collected, with no intention of performing the work he agreed to, in the contract he of furnished all those giving orders. A great many orders were taken in Salem and the small towns between here o and Jefferson. Ebbert will be given an examination today at 1 o'clock, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, which was preferred against him by the manager of the 25 Portland Art Company
