

THE WEEKLY OREGON STATESMAN

Issued every Tuesday and Friday by the STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY. R. J. HENDRICKS, Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—One year, in advance, $1; Six months, in advance, 50 cents; Three months, in advance, 25 cents; One year, on time, $1.25.

The Statesman has been established for nearly fifty-two years and it has some subscribers who have received it nearly that long, and many who have read it for a generation.

ing in advance, will have the benefit of the dollar rate. But if they do not pay for six months, the rate will be 31.25 a year.

Carnegie has converted his steel trust bonds into cash and now proposes to increase the gift for a National University from $10,000,000 to $25,000,000.

sufficient to meet the exigencies of the case. It is apparent that if either of these states enforces its law the danger complained of will be averted.

According to figures compiled by the Philadelphia Press the gifts to educational institutions this year will be in the neighborhood of $73,900,000.

The report from Shanghai of the massacre of a number of missionaries in China is not surprising to those who have watched the active military preparation that has been going on in the empire for the past few months.

Rapid transit is receiving attention in England and permission will be asked of Parliament to construct an electric line from London to Brighton, a distance of forty-seven miles.

Reports for the past few months from China have told how the people are working day and night in preparation for war. Arms and munitions have been taken in great quantities and the armies have been recruited to enormous strength.

The Alaska boundary dispute is to be taken up again soon, and it is hoped by both the representatives of the United States and England that a satisfactory settlement may be reached.

CHINA AND THE POWERS.

NOT ALARMED. Governor White, of North Dakota, does not seem to share the alarm over the combination of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern.

The United States Government does not propose to be a party to the footing of the Chinese Empire by the powers and will return $18,000,000 of the $25,000,000 awarded this country as damages to American citizens.

CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS. The Oregonian's comment on the conference of Governors in Montana is brief and to the point.

Richard Croker, Tammany's chief, unable to defeat the nomination of Perry Belmont for Congress in the Seventh district of New York, is making an active fight against his election.

YOUNG GIRLS

Are often engaged in doing the work of a home under the most trying conditions. Nature cries out against the neglect and lifting the running up and down stairs at times when labor should be as light as possible.

THE CUBAN ELECTION. The first election under the new constitution of the Cuban Republic was held yesterday for the selection of Governors for the six provinces.

N. C. "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good received from the use of his Favorite Prescription."

IT IS DISGUSTING. The suggestion to send a Congressional committee to England to be present at the coronation of King Edward has been received by Americans in London with surprise at least, if not disgust.

Cuban war for independence, but asked the privilege of home rule. The members of this party are Spaniards and Spanish sympathizers.

The Democratic leader is General Batoelome Maso. He lives at Manzanillo in the province of Sanhiago, and is a sugar planter.

Until quite recently Maso was a candidate for the Presidency, but when he realized the hopelessness of his chances of victory he withdrew his name.

The refusal of a strong minority party in Cuba to participate in the election, held a few days ago is regarded by some to mean that this party is holding itself in a position to stir up an insurrection against the new Government.

representatives of the American Army and Navy, yet to be named.

The members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, whose names have been mentioned as proper to compose such a delegation.

The great fight in Ohio between the so-called Hanna and Foraker factions seems to be a myth that is troubling everybody else more than it is either of the Senators.

All talk of war between Germany and America indulged in a few days ago in the press reports, was without foundation.

COLOMBIAN REBELLION.

The Colombian revolution is reported to be declining very rapidly in strength, the resistance to the Government's forces being very weak.

A TEXAS WONDER.

Half's Great Discovery. One small bottle of Half's Great Discovery cures all kidney and bladder troubles.

The stenographer must know how to read, write and spell. She must have quick eye and ear.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Situation in Cuba.

St. Louis Globe Democrat: The reports which are coming from Cuba these days show that a tumultuous time is probable at the approaching elections in the island.

How Canada Sees it.
