

TUB TRUTHS.

A DROP of ink will color a whole glass of water. It is an inch of yeast which makes a pan of bread rise, and a single cake of soap containing unabsorbed alkali can ruin a hundred times its cost in laces and fine embroidery. After all, is it wise to take such risks with common soap? Of course you can get along without Ivory Soap. So can a wagon without axle grease—but it goes hard.

HOP MARKET IS ADVANCING

A Local Firm Yesterday Paid the Highest Prices

YET REPORTED DURING PRESENT SEASON—TWO HUNDRED BALES WERE SECURED

From Four Growers in Yamhill County, at Twelve and One-half Cents per Pound—New York Advances Indicate a Strong Market, and the Abundance of Stock in Brewers' Hands.

(From Saturday's Statesman.) The hop market is booming, and prices are advancing at such a rate that a 15-cent market is still holding for those growers who are still holding their hops.

The P. G. Horn & Lachmund Company, of this city, yesterday bought 200 bales of hops at 12 1/2 cents a pound. They were purchased from Dick Phillips, J. H. Benson, and Levi Bennett, who jointly transferred 148 bales to the firm, and George Bradwell, who sold 52 bales, the parties being all residents of the North Yamhill and McMinnville neighborhoods.

Manager L. L. Lachmund, of the company, in speaking of the condition of the hop market last night, said that his advices from the New York market of the firm, stated that Oregon hops in the New York market were selling at 17 cents; that the market was higher, with an upward tendency, and that hops were steadily advancing. There is a national shortage of 50,000 bales, and many brewers are buying from hand to mouth.

Mr. Lachmund stated that there was no doubt but the remaining growers who are holding their hops now will, in a short time, realize 15 cents a pound for their hops, if they will only hold on to them, as the brewers are compelled to purchase, and the great demand for the product, in both the domestic and the foreign markets is such as to warrant the prediction of higher prices for the Oregon hops.

Other dealers in Salem have been buying heavily during the past week. Among them H. J. Othelheimer, who is said to have purchased 600 bales during the past two days.

The hops still remaining in the hands of Oregon growers, at this time, are estimated to be about 2500 bales, and at the rate they are being picked up this week, the prospects are that in a few weeks all will be sold.

Dr. M. S. Skiff, who went to Portland on Thursday for the purpose of disposing of the remainder of his crop of hops, about 150 bales, prime to choice, returned last evening and reported that he had been offered considerable better than 12 cents and that the offer was still pending a consultation with his partner. He also stated that offering was quite free at 12 cents for good primes.

THE CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

Program for the Work in Interest of Old Willamette

EMINENT EASTERN DIVINES WILL BEGIN THE CANVASS IN SALEM ON FEBRUARY 2D.

Popular Meetings to Be Held in this City and Throughout Western Oregon—Prominent Men Will Preside Over the Convention's Session in Salem

(From Saturday's Statesman.) All arrangements for the educational campaign of the Methodists in Oregon, and especially in Western Oregon, have been completed, and success is assured, for the reason that the workers in the interests of Willamette University—and it is in the interest of that great institution that the campaign is being inaugurated here—are enthusiastic and earnest, and certain to meet with the desired success.

The campaign will begin on Sunday, the 24 day of February, and will last about two weeks. The chief speakers will be Bishop Earl Cranston, D. D., Rev. W. F. McDowell, D. D., Rev. M. E. Mills, D. D., and President J. H. Coleman, D. D.

On Sunday, February 24, Dr. McDowell and Coleman will be in Salem, and the Bishop and Dr. Mills will be in Portland. The program for all the meetings within the bounds of the Portland district to be arranged by the Presiding Elder, Dr. Rockwell. The Presiding Elder of the other districts will be responsible for the meetings held in their respective districts.

Educational Convention. The convention to be held in Salem will open Monday, February 24, and close Wednesday, February 27. Bishop Earl Cranston will be president of the convention. The program follows: First session, Monday, 7:30 p. m.—Governor T. T. Geer, presiding; address by Bishop Cranston and Dr. Mills.

Tuesday 7:30 p. m.—Hon. C. P. Bishop, mayor of Salem, presiding; address by Dr. McDowell and President Coleman.

Wednesday 9 a. m.—Meeting in the chapel with the students, Dean W. C. Hawley, A. M., LL. D., presiding.

Wednesday 7:30 p. m.—General W. H. Odell, president Board of Trustees, presiding; address by President J. H. Coleman, D. D.

The following topics will be discussed at the day sessions: "The Duty of the Methodist Episcopal Church to Higher Education in Oregon," T. B. Ford, D. D.

"Importance of Christian Culture in our Educational System," Rev. J. H. Bennett.

"Value of the Institution of Higher Learning to the Municipality and to the State," T. T. Geer, Governor of Oregon.

"Origin, Growth and Present Outlook of the University," Prof. J. F. Matthews, A. M.

"The Alumni of Willamette University," N. M. Newport, A. M.

"How to Build Up the Student Body," G. M. Booth, A. M.

Some of the above speakers will address the people of Woodburn on Thursday, February 28, and others will address the people of Hillsboro, Friday, the 7th.

Dr. Mills is expected to spend the Sabbath, February 9th, in Eugene. It is expected that the other members of the speaking force will spend the second Sabbath and Monday in Portland and vicinity.

Roseburg and Grants Pass will be visited by Drs. Mills and McDowell Tuesday and Wednesday. Other meetings may be arranged.

The above is subject to revision as circumstances may demand. Pastors and interested laymen are cordially invited. Those desiring entertainment please report to Rev. John Parsons, D. D., Salem.

The committee on arrangements, and through whose efforts the program was arranged, consists of Gen. W. H. Odell, Rev. John Parsons, D. D., and Rev. D. A. Watters, Presiding Elder.

A YEAR'S EXPENSE

COST OF MARION COUNTY'S GOVERNMENT IN 1901

First Annual Statement Filed in the Department of State at the Capitol—Required by a Law Passed at the Last Session.

(From Saturday's Statesman.) County Clerk W. W. Hall yesterday filed his report, with the Secretary of State, for the expenses of Marion county for the year 1901. This is the first report of its nature that has ever been made and is in compliance with the new law enacted during the last session of the Legislature which requires the clerk of each county to make a tabulated statement of the previous year's expenses, excluding the proceedings of the January, 1901, term of the county commissioners court and including the January, 1902, term of the same for the first year. The road and highway expense, which amounted to about $8000 last year, is also excepted and excluded. As this is the first time that an annual expense statement has been compiled it is impossible at this time to make an accurate comparison of the 1901 expenses with those of previous years, but the yearly expenses for the past three years have not varied $600 and the total amount, $44,882.49, is considered a very creditable showing, taking into consideration the large sum expended for the construction and repair of bridges throughout the county, and in comparison with the expenses of other counties in the state. The following is the statement in full, showing the separate amounts of the several departments:

Clerk's office 1,435 40
Circuit Court 2,720 48
Justices' Courts 2,103 23
Sheriff's office 2,959 97
Clerk's office 2,949 97
Recorder's office 4,133 46
Treasurer's office 967 72
Coroner's office 333 95
School superintendent's office 1,088 96
Stock Inspector 275 00
Assessor's office 3,099 96
Assessment and collection of taxes 1,212 47
Tax rebate 76 15
Current expenses 2,049 43
Courthouse expense 2,700 00
Jail 842 35
Poor, care of 4,504 68
Indigent soldiers 640 24
Insane 218 85
Bridges 8,400 54
Election expense 200 49
Scalp bounty (156) 52 00
Total expense for the year 1901, except for roads and highways $44,882 49

Perhaps You Wonder

If the tormenting cold that made last winter one long misery will be as bad this year. Certainly not, if you take Allen's Lung Balm when tickling and rawness in the throat announce the presence of the old enemy. Do not expect the cold to wear itself out. Take the right remedy in time. Allen's Lung Balm is free from opium.

THIS YEAR'S RACES

NORTHWEST ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED AND DATES FIXED.

The Oregon Meet and State Fair Will Be Held During the Week of September 15th to 20th—A Strong Organization Perfected

(From Saturday's Statesman.) A meeting of the horsemen of the Northwest was held in Seattle on Wednesday for the purpose of forming a Pacific Northwest Racing Association. Delegates were present from the following named organizations: Washington State Fair Association, Spokane Inter-State Fair Association, Lewiston Inter-State Fair Association, Boise Inter-State Fair Association, Vancouver B. C. Jockey Club, Whatcom County Agricultural Association, Snohomish County Agricultural Association, Portland Racing Association, Oregon State Board of Agriculture, and King County Agricultural Association. The morning session was devoted to the organization of the Pacific Northwest Racing Association, and to a general discussion of racing matters. Various standing committees were appointed, and the following schedule was adopted: Seattle, August 18-20; Vancouver, B. C., August 30-September 1; Whatcom, September 2-6; Everett, September 8-13; Salem September 15-20; Portland, September 22-27; North Yakima, September 29-October 4; Spokane, October 6-14; Lewiston, October 15-18; Boise, October 20-25; New Westminster, October 30-November 4; Victoria, November 7-12.

An examination of the above schedule shows that eleven race-meets will be held, and that the circuit includes many of the principal cities of the Northwest. The fact that a satisfactory schedule has been arranged, and that the new association is in the hands of competent men, will draw many fast horses from California and the East, and the horsemen anticipate one of the most successful seasons on record. President W. H. Wehrung and Secretary M. D. Wisdom, of the Oregon State Fair, were in attendance.

"NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS"

The Oregon Fire Relief Association has been a success ever since it began business in January, 1895, and is now growing faster than ever before. It issued over 3000 certificates of insurance in 6 months from February 1, 1901, to August 1, 1901, of which 761 were issued in the month of July. It is strictly a mutual institution which furnishes the best of

A SALEM BOY WAS SHIPWRECKED LAST WEEK

Chester Cox Writes of His Experience When the Steamer Fairhaven Went Down in Puget Sound—He Was Freight Clerk on the Vessel.

Chester Cox, who was freight and mail clerk of the steamer Fairhaven that was wrecked in Puget Sound Wednesday morning, writes his parents in this city of his first experience in shipwreck. They were going under stow bell, in a fog so dense that the pilot could not see the prow of the boat, and just off the town of Utralydy they struck a reef and in five minutes the boat was under water above her freight decks. The company think they will save the vessel if no storm arises. Should a heavy south wind blow she will go to pieces on the rocks. In the meantime the company will put another steamer on the run.

WADE CONFESSES—Last evening's Portland Telegram says: "Jack Wade today confessed that he fired the shot which killed James B. Morrow. The confession was made to Clarence R. Veazie, Dalton's attorney. Wade said that he discharged his gun by accident, and that he had no intention of killing Morrow."

GONE TO HIS REST

SKETCH OF THE LATE FATHER ADAM GOODE'S LIFE.

He was a Veteran of the Civil War and a Home-builder in the West—Leaves a Large Family, with Four Sons in the Ministry.

(From Sunday's Statesman.) Father Adam Goode, the subject of this sketch was born of Jacob and Sarah Goode, Dec. 27, 1818, and departed this life January 2, 1902, aged 83 years and 5 days. His birthplace was in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania. During his 16th year his parents removed to Richland county, Ohio, while that county was yet a wilderness. While living there and in his 20th year, his father died. He then removed to Coshocton county, where he was married to Miss Dellea A. Wycoff on October 2, 1819. This union was blessed with the following named offspring: Eliza J., James F., David J., Adam P., Henry J., Mary A., Malinda A., Ida A., and Wilbur E., all of whom are living except Mary A., who died in infancy, and Malinda A., who died in womanhood.

From Ohio he, with his little family, emigrated to Lawrenceburg, Lawrence county, Illinois, thence to Evansville, Vanderburg county, Indiana, where they remained about seven years, at the expiration of which time they moved to Jefferson county, Iowa, at that time a "new country." He and his sons built him a good home, remaining there until the year 1874, then following the rush of emigration westward, to Phillips county, Kansas, then the extreme west of Kansas civilization. There he again made a good home.

In the year 1890 he brought his family to Salem, Oregon, where he has made his home until his decease. Father Goode was raised by Quaker parents and under their teaching a solid foundation for a moral character was laid. About the year 1850 he united with the M. E. church and in the year 1868 he was wonderfully converted to God and united with the Free Methodist church at Cross Lane church, Jefferson county, Iowa, under the labors of Rev. W. F. Manley. Feeling the call of God upon him to labor for souls, he began preaching the Gospel of Christ; and was ordained an Elder by the Rev. B. T. Roberts, at Alma, Kansas, in the year 1889. Many there are who will rise up and call him blessed, who were saved under his labor.

Of his family living, his wife, the bride of his youth, Dellea A., still survives him and only awaits the summons to again meet her departed husband. The surviving children are: Mrs. W. B. Gould, of Lacombe, Or.; J. F. Goode, a merchant of Salem; Rev. D. J. Goode, of Stoughton, Or.; Rev. A. P. Goode, of Eureka Junction, Wash.; Rev. H. J. Goode, of Pruitland, Or.; Mrs. Ida A. Orey, of Fruitland, Jr., and Rev. W. E. Goode, of Roseburg, Or.

During the Civil War Father Goode enlisted in E Company, 37th Regiment Infantry, Iowa Volunteers, "Grey Beard Troops," and while engaged in active service became disabled and was discharged from service. Just twenty years previous to his decease, he was stricken with paralysis, and since that time has been helpless, but has proven by practical experience that the same grace he so often preached to others was able to keep and satisfy even to the shadow death, as verified by his triumphant spirit-baptized words of consolation, admonition and prayer found it to be a heavenly benediction while gathered around his couch when his soul was taking on its plumage for the skies, and when the hour came the messenger found him ready and anxious to be translated. Among his last exhortations to his sorrowing friends around, in speaking of the power of the grace of God to keep, he said "Let your faces show it, let your faces tell it," with a blessing for all his children, grand children and great grand children, a smile upon his face, he sleeps in Jesus. He leaves behind a wife, five sons, two daughters, fifty grand children, and thirty-nine great grand children.

The funeral services were held in the Free Methodist church of Salem when the writer spoke to a large and attentive congregation from Psalms 37:37. Rest Father Goode, thy warfare's o'er, Thy bark now rests on the evergreen shore, Thy battles are fought, the victory's won, Thou shalt hear the Lord say, "Child, well done."

R. H. DOLLARHIDE, Salem, Or., January 16, 1902.

THREE EMPLOYES OF CHEMAWA RESIGN

Mr. T. M. Thompson, Mrs. E. T. Adair and Miss Juniata Laufman, Retire from the Work at that Institution.

Three employees of the Salem Indian Training School have resigned their positions during the past few days. They are all employees with years of service to their credit, and their retirement is universally regretted at the school. They are T. M. Thompson, shoe and harness maker of the school; Mrs. E. T. Adair, assistant matron, and Miss Juniata Laufman, seamstress. Mr. Thompson's reason for retiring was old age and his physical disabilities, he having suffered a paralytic stroke about a year ago, which partially disabled him. Mrs. Adair and Miss Laufman have resigned for the purpose of going to Des Moines, Iowa, where they will take a course in Osteopathy, and fit themselves for the practice of that profession.

MR. BLACKBURN ILL.—Attorney General D. R. N. Blackburn has been ill for several days, and was yesterday confined to his bed. His malady is not believed to be serious, however, and it is expected Mr. Blackburn will be able to be at his office in the Capitol on Monday.
