

A COMPLETED CHRISTIAN

Some Things Beyond Baptism Are Required

INTERESTING SERMON BY REV. GEORGE C. RITCHEY AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Delivered at Last Night's Revival Meeting—His Subject Illustrated by a Wheel One Part of Which, Alone, Being Practically Useless.

(From Saturday's Statesman.) In the First Christian church of this city, revival services are being conducted by Rev. George C. Ritchey, the pastor, and great interest is being manifested in the work. At last night's meeting he delivered an interesting and stirring discourse on the subject "Some Things Beyond Baptism, or the Completed Christian." He said in part:

"To illustrate and simplify our subject tonight we will use the representation of the blackboard of the large wheel. The wheel has a hub, four spokes, five felloes and a tire. It is asked to name the most important part of a wheel, if one part of a thing can be said to be more important than another, where all are required for safety and perfection, we would say, 'the hub.' What next? 'The tire.' But by these answers we would not mean the felloes and spokes are of such insignificance that they can be spared from the wheel and yet the same remain a wheel. It might properly be called a broken or unfinished wheel, but not a wheel. So with our subject tonight. While the life lived after baptism may make our final destiny either heaven or hell, yet baptism and the steps that lead up to it are not without importance in assuring us of the way in which we are traveling and where we will spend our eternity. So we have filled the hub with our text, Matt. 28:20, 'Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you all ways, even unto the end of the world.' This is Christ's instruction to his Apostles as to how they are to instruct converts they have baptized. It is the very essence of Christian principle, that of strict obedience to our Lord's commands. The early church learned the faithful in the Apostles' doctrine, in fellowship, in the breaking of bread (communion service) and in prayer. "And, next we notice this completed wheel or a disciple of Christ is bound round with a tire of 'Christian character and good works wrought in the name of Christ.' But what can we avail with the parts of our wheel, said to be most important, without the felloes and spokes? So it is with many good people out of the church (body of Christ). They have lived in the midst of churches and have heard so much preaching that they conform to many things that church members must do to be saved, and possess often a very good hub of church attendance, and contribute to the work and thus have fellowship and some even pray and others, though they improperly break bread at the Lord's table and are of good character, are busy with many kind deeds and yet have not the spokes and felloes to complete the wheel. Many make the mistake of calling the tire the wheel in Christianity. "Let us now set the four spokes and fasten in the felloes that our wheel may be complete. Our first spoke is Faith in Jesus, as the Christ and Son of God. We will ask Jesus himself to name the spokes. The Apostles would gladly do it and their words would be a repetition of what Jesus says, for they learn it of him. Acts 4:13. Jesus mentions this spoke of faith in John 14:18, Mark 16:16. Our second spoke is Repentance. Jesus names this one in Mark 1:14-15, Lu. 13:1-5 and Lu. 24:46-47. Next he names a spoke of Confession. The confession that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, which includes all others, that should be included. Matt. 10:32-33, and Matt. 16:16-18. Well we have them all in but one. With Jesus command that one? Read him in Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:14, John 3:5, where he names this fourth spoke, Baptism, as we have it in our English Bibles. We have these all from Jesus and he makes all necessary for the salvation of souls. Also our wheel made on the plan of four spokes is not complete nor safe with only one, two or three, but is only safe with four. So since Jesus has said it, let us believe we are only safe when we have done all these things. "With ideas of Christian principle and life which we have gained from our fortunate surroundings from earliest childhood in a land blessed with the Word of God, and churches, and all their wholesome influence has brought, and now with the spokes commanded by Jesus himself we can begin fitting in the felloes of the gift of the Holy Spirit, which God has promised, when we have in all the spokes.

Our second is Prayer. In this the disciple draws nearest to his Lord. Prayer belongs to the Christian. He that fails to use this privilege cannot grow spiritually. Third, we will name Loyalty to Jesus, or rather Jesus has named it. John 8:20-22. Fourth, Service in Christ's name. Rom. 12:1, and last of the felloes, but no smaller than the others by any means, is 'This grace also.' II Cor. 8:7. Liberty. Now we set the time of Christian character and good works by a life long endeavor to be like our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. And with this strong wheel who will doubt but many golden sheaves may be rolled into God's everlasting city?

"Who is there, but would want a wheel of Christian character and service as this one we find in the Gospel of Christ? Who is there that would jeopardize the safety or diminish the strength of his wheel by leaving out a spoke or felloe or by leaving off the tire or probably more foolish yet, omit the hub? Surely no one will after closer study of God's Word. Why should we find fault with God's way of saying us since it is only because he loves us that he saves us. We do not of ourselves deserve it. Only through Christ can we hope for salvation. Acts 4:12 and John 14:6. Accept him now. Come to Jesus. How? By faith, by repentance, by confessing him as Christ and Son of God, and being baptized in His name. How simple! How easy! Why not tonight?"

Elder Ritchey's subject for tonight will be "The Devil, Who is He?" All are invited.

ARID LANDS.—The State Land Board held a brief session yesterday, at the Capitol, when the officers of the Pilot Butte Development Company, of Crook county, were given a hearing on the proposal of that company to contract for the reclamation of arid lands east of the Cascade Mountains. The company has signed the contract, and the Board was also asked to sign it, but this was taken under advisement until today. This is the first contract to be entered into under the new law for the reclamation of arid lands, and the Board will act with great care, lest a mistake be made. The contract with the company will be carefully considered before it is signed by the state officers.

ACTION IS BROUGHT

BY MRS. O. M. SMITH TO SECURE THE PROPERTY

Transferred by Her and Her Husband to the Salem Building & Loan Association as Security on a Note.

(From Sunday's Statesman.)

A new action was begun, in department No. 2 of the State Circuit Court for Marion county, yesterday, wherein Ella M. Smith is plaintiff, and the Salem Building & Loan Association, a corporation, and Mrs. A. A. Bashor and children, are defendants. The plaintiff alleges in her complaint that the defendant corporation, on July 19, 1934, charged the plaintiff's husband, O. M. Smith, formerly secretary of the defendant corporation, with the defalcation of the sum of $57.35, and demanded of the plaintiff and her husband the execution of their promissory note for the above amount and security therefor. O. M. Smith denied that there had been any defalcation of any amount but, on the contrary, claimed that the defendant corporation was indebted to him as its secretary in the sum of $96. The defendant corporation insisted that there was a defalcation and as a result of the negotiations the plaintiff and her husband executed the promissory note promising to pay to the corporation, sixty days after date, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, the sum of $57.35, and also, providing their real property as security, providing the accounts between O. M. Smith and the defendant corporation be examined in the meantime and it developed that O. M. Smith was indebted to the defendant corporation in the amount claimed. She alleges that the accounts were examined before the expiration of the sixty days and it developed that no defalcation existed and that, as the husband had claimed, the corporation was still indebted to her husband in the sum of $96.

On September 14, 1936, the defendant corporation brought action in the Circuit Court for Marion county, for the purpose of obtaining judgment for the purpose of obtaining judgment for the payment of the note and that the court rendered a decree against the corporation and in favor of the plaintiff and husband, as defendants in the action. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant corporation is still in possession of the plaintiff's real property, being lot No. 1 and part of lot No. 2 of block 27, of this city, which property the defendant corporation had transferred to A. A. Bashor on December 29, 1939, and now the plaintiff prays that a guardian ad litem be appointed for the minor defendants; for a decree directing the re-conveyance to plaintiff of the said property; decreeing that the conveyance made by her husband was a mortgage and not a deed absolute, and directing the surrender and cancellation of the deed O. M. Smith executed to the defendant corporation, and for her costs and disbursements in the action. George H. Durham, W. H. Holmes and Webster Holmes are the plaintiff's attorneys.

NO HOPE FOR DALTON'S LIFE

Governor Geer Refuses to Interfere in Court's Judgment

CONFESSION OF THE DEFENDANT DOES NOT ENTITLE HIM TO EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.

The Governor Refuses to Offer a Pardon for Informers, but Will Let the Law Take Its Course.

(From Sunday's Statesman.)

Clarence Veazie, attorney for Dalton, and J. T. Logan, attorney for Jack Wade, appeared before Governor T. T. Geer yesterday afternoon. Mr. Veazie made a plea for commutation for his client, while Mr. Logan's purpose was to ask for a reprieve for Wade, in case Dalton's sentence was commuted, to enable him to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Veazie's plea for clemency for Dalton was based upon the allegation that while the state's officers did not exactly promise an extra consideration in return for a confession, yet he was allowed to proceed with the undoubted belief that he would receive it as a result. Mr. Veazie's plea was confined to the claim that clemency was due Dalton as a reward for his confession, and that it is good public policy to thus encourage informers in order to secure the detection of criminals. Governor Geer replied that there was another view to be taken of this phase of the question. He said:

"When two men start out with guns and a purpose to commit robbery, they agree with themselves before starting to murder, if necessary, in order to save their own lives. That is what the guns are for. If the rule is established that the Governor will commute the sentence of the informer in such cases, then it will be an incentive to such as are planning robberies to proceed, with the renewed hope that if murder does accidentally result from the adventure, the one who can get to the District Attorney's office first, will be saved from the gallows. This would be a loophole through which a gleam of hope, and therefore of encouragement, would shine to strengthen those who might be faltering through lack of the necessary courage. This loophole should be closed. It might make it somewhat harder for the detectives, but this can be endured, if it should tend to lessen the number of victims of this utterly worthless class of our people—not only worthless, but dangerous. "When these young brigands started out on this midnight raid for the earnings of others, and their blood, if necessary, they agreed to keep faith with each other, no matter what happened. When it resulted in murder, they were equally guilty before the law, and when Dalton confessed, with the hope of getting at least a part of the reward and saving his life from the gallows, he merely added to his former guilt that of perjury to his fellow criminal. That it was Wade's pistol that went off 'accidentally' instead of Dalton's was the result of mere chance as to which one was at the moment doing the thing they had both agreed to do. This class of hoboes should not be encouraged to believe that when an 'accident' of this kind occurs, clemency is held out to him who can make the quickest time to the District Attorney's office. The certainty of the gallows will surely deter more of this class from their murderous adventures than would be the case if the state holds out the banner of hope of clemency in the manner suggested.

The interview lasted an hour and the Governor told the attorneys that there was no hope for Wade and none for Dalton, unless District Attorney Chamberlain and the trial judges unite in recommending executive clemency, as the result of the state's honor being pledged in order to secure his confession. In such case the Governor would make no promise other than to take the matter under further advisement.

WORK ON THE NEW ASSESSMENT ROLL

Is Temporarily Abandoned Awaiting the Levies to Be Made by Several School Districts—Will Soon Be Completed.

The work on the 1937 assessment roll is now practically complete until after February 1st. All levies which have been received so far have been extended upon the roll but the school districts and incorporated towns throughout the county have until February 1st in which to make their levy and file it with the county clerk and as there are four districts which have not yet filed their levy and as it is not probable that they will all be in until the time expires the work has been postponed until that time.

County Clerk W. W. Hall and his two assistants, Wm. Bushey and Charles Elgin, have been working very arduously upon the task and the work has been done more rapidly than has ever been known before in this county. A special effort is being made to have the work complete so as to be ready to turn it over to the next meeting of the county court, February 5th, but as it will require at least five more days to complete the roll, Mr. Hall is doubtful as to whether it can be finished in time.

VARIOLOID.—Miss Evelyn, the 12-year-old daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. J. F. Calbreath, of the Oregon Hospital for the Insane, was yesterday taken with a mild attack of varioloid. Immediately upon discovering the nature of the child's malady, Dr. Calbreath quarantined the apartments occupied by his family, to prevent the disease from spreading, and a thorough examination was made to discover if the malady had appeared anywhere else among the officers and employees or patients, but no evidence of it was found. It is believed the little girl was either exposed to the disease on her way to and from school, or it was brought out by some one visiting at the institution. There is no danger from a spread of the disease at the Asylum, as the best of care and the strictest quarantine will be observed.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS VICTORIOUS

Two Games of Basket Ball Resulted in Defeat for Visitors—The Monmouth Girls and the McMinnville College Students.

Yesterday was basketball day at the Willamette University, two contests being on with outside colleges.

At 4:30 p. m. yesterday the girls' basketball teams of the Oregon State Normal School, of Monmouth, and Willamette University faced each other in a match game and after two hotly contested ten minute halves the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the W. U. girls.

At 8 p. m. the husky lads from McMinnville College met defeat in the W. U. gymnasium. The visitors were quick in passing and had good team work but the strength and accuracy of the home team overwhelmed them. The score was 20 to 9 in favor of W. U. Rah! Rah! Rah! Zip! Boom! Ah! AN ACTION FOR DAMAGES

Duncan C. Ross Brings Suit Against Street Car Company

FOR INJURIES ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN RECEIVED IN A COLLISION LAST SUMMER

Between a Trolley Car and the Plaintiff's Wagon, Resulting in Mr. Ross Being Thrown to the Ground and Injured—A Suit for the Recovery of Money Also Filed.

(From Tuesday's Statesman.)

Duncan C. Ross yesterday began suit for damages against the Salem Light, Power & Traction Company, in department No. 1 of the Circuit Court, for injuries alleged to have been received on September 10, 1931, as a result of having been struck with one of the defendant's street cars as he was driving over a crossing. Plaintiff alleges that the car was running at a high rate of speed and that no warning was given of the approach of the car, and that the car struck the wagon, in which the plaintiff was riding, in such a violent manner as to throw him to the ground and causing him to receive numerous internal and external injuries from which he has not, and claims he never will fully recover. The accident occurred on the crossing at the intersection of Capital and State streets, and the plaintiff alleges that he has been damaged thereby in the sum of $300 and special damages in the sum of $29, and he therefore prays for judgment against the defendant for $329 and his costs and disbursements. R. J. Fleming is the attorney for the plaintiff.

T. M. Hurd yesterday filed an action in the first department of the Circuit Court, against Ilma B. Hurd and E. M. Hurd, for the purpose of recovering the sum of $103.75 and his costs and disbursements in the suit.

Plaintiff alleges that the defendants at different times purchased goods from divers mercantile firms in this city and upon failure to pay the amounts the several accounts were taken up by the plaintiff, and he seeks to collect them. R. J. Fleming is the attorney for plaintiff.

F. A. Turner, attorney for the plaintiff in the partition suit entitled Mary A. Sweet, plaintiff, vs. Allie G. Farnham, et al., defendants, which was recently decided in favor of the defendants in the second department of the Circuit Court and the costs taxed to the plaintiff, yesterday filed a motion to retax the costs on the ground that the costs as specified in the defendant's cost bill are excessive.

Judge Boise's Department.

Department No. 2 of the State Circuit Court for Marion county was in session all day yesterday. Judge R. P. Boise presiding. The case which took up the greater portion of the day and in which the most interest was centered, was that of J. A. Baker, plaintiff, vs. The Williams & England Banking Company, defendant, wherein Ladd & Bush, as creditors, had filed objections to the allowance of the claims of Phil Metcham, E. C. Giltner, E. J. Swafford, W. H. Odell and J. A. Baker, on the grounds that the money which they had deposited with the defendant corporation before its insolvency and upon which sums they seek to collect the interest, was state and city funds and state school funds, wrongfully deposited and not subject to interest. It required the entire afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5, to take the testimony on both sides of the case, and the argument was postponed until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Orders were made in other cases upon the docket, as follows: W. E. Her, plaintiff, vs. Thurston Grim, et al., defendants, application for sheriff's deed; application allowed. Hester G. Thompson, plaintiff, vs. G. F. Thompson, defendant; divorce; default as to defendant. Charles E. Steele, plaintiff, vs. Nettie G. Steele and Caroline Morton, defendants; divorce; default as to defendant Nettie G. Steele.

CONSTIPATION

Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; until I was cured by using CASCARET.
