Major General Brooke, commanding the Department of the East called on Admiral von Baudissin shortly before noon, and was received with much ceremony. He spent some time with the German Admiral in the latter's private cabin. At 2 o'clock this afternoon Admiral Baker, of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, returned the call of Von Baudissin made yesterday.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

SANTOS-DUMONT'S AIRSHIP WAS WRECKED YESTERDAY

And the old Aeronaut Missed Death by Drowning in the Bay of Monaco by a Close Margin—His Balloon Is Wrecked.

MONACO, Feb. 14.—Santos-Dumont, the aeronaut, met with disaster today, and had a narrow escape from death. His airship is a total wreck, while tonight his motor lies at the bottom of the bay of Monaco.

Cheers greeted Santos-Dumont as the airship rose and its head pointed for the middle of the bay. It was soon noticed, however, that instead of maintaining its usual equilibrium, the balloon acted in a way that caused anxiety among the spectators. The aeronaut, however, kept on his flight, and pointing the ship to the left, continued to ascend until the guide rope was twenty feet out of the water. In turning the balloon the guide rope caught in the screw, and this, with the erratic working of the airship, created a situation of great danger. At 5 minutes past 10 o'clock the end of the balloon burst, and the Prince of Monaco, who was on board a launch, gave orders to rescue Santos-Dumont from his perilous position. The launch came alongside the half-deflated balloon of the airship, and Santos-Dumont clambered over the gunwale into the boat.

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little baby, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometime there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called

which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor, prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the girlish figure. An intelligent mother in Butler, Pa. says: "I would need Mother's Friend again, I would obtain 3 bottles if I had to pay $3 per bottle for it."

FLUNKEYISM IS CHARGED

Congressman Wheeler Denounces the Diplomatic Policy

OF THE UNITED STATES—SEVERAL REPUBLICANS DEFEND SECRETARY OF STATE HAY.

Governor Rehearses the History of the Visit of the Prince of Wales to America, in 1860, and His Reception by President Buchanan—The Clerk Evil Causes Trouble in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The monotony of the private pension legislation today, in the House, was enlivened by a very sensational speech from Wheeler (Kentucky) in denunciation of what he denominated "flunkeyism" to foreign countries. He took recent statements emanating from the continental cabinets, regarding the attitude of Great Britain during the Spanish war, as the text for a wholesale attack upon the trend of our recent diplomacy.

His speech aroused the House to a high pitch of excitement and elicited from Boutwell (Illinois) a spirited defense of Secretary Hay, whom he eulogized in high terms. Several other members on the Republican side took exception to the Republican side took exception, and later in the afternoon Grosvenor (Ohio) took Wheeler to task for the "inopportune protest," and rehearsed the history of the visit of the Prince of Wales to this country in 1860, and his reception by President Buchanan.

Wheeler excoriated what he termed the modern disposition toward "European flunkeyism." Until 1866, all Americans had gloried in the splendid isolation of the Republic and its determination to hold aloof from foreign entangling alliances. Less than five years ago, he declared, a President, "eager on by the pitiable flunkey in the State Department," had stretched his arms across the seas in adulation to the people of Great Britain, and today the Government was hurging to his bosom a Nation that since the battle of Yorktown had systematically and persistently plotted our downfall.

He sneered at the "shoulder-strapped, gold-lace flunkeys," who were to be dispatched across the Atlantic to bend the knee and to kiss the hand of the English King, whose Government he declared, had attempted to form a coalition of European Governments to thwart us while we were seeking to strike the shackles from Cuba. Hon. est, straightforward American diplomacy, had given way to European diplomacy.

He said he respected the present occupant of the White House. He was, he said, too straightforward for many of his party colleagues, highly quixotic, perhaps, and hasty tempered, but honest and brave enough, he thought, "to boot out the man in the State Department who had brought us to this humiliating position."

Turning to England's war in South Africa, he denounced her tyranny and the part we had in it in allowing war material to be shipped from our shores. If half that was said of "this man Fauncefoote" was true, he declared, he ought to be shipped across the water, and the sooner the better. Referring to the fact that a member of the President's family was to attend the coronation, Wheeler said it was perhaps unbecoming to allude to it. Nevertheless, he said, he considered it most unfortunate and unprecendented, and to be lamented by every liberty-loving American. It was but one more link in the chain.

Wheeler then turned to the prospective visit of Prince Henry. With a gesture of contempt, he declared that the "European menaces" were falling over each other to see the "little Dutchman." There were a thousand Americans following the plow who were as honest and as noble as he. "Why should the American people give heed to this flunkeyism of the present administration?" he asked. "We should treat our visitors politely, but why fall down and worship them?"

The whole House was aroused by Wheeler's philippic. Several times the Democratic side burst into applause. As he was concluding Grosvenor (Ohio) asked if Wheeler had been living at the time of the visit of La Fayette, as the representative of the King of France, whether he would have opposed the reception accorded the Frenchman by Washington.

ulate the military policy of the country and prepare comprehensive plans for National defense and for the mobilization of the military forces in time of war.

He thought the fight should take place before the club offering the largest purse.

"KING'S EVIL"
Those old English Kings made history. Those old English Kings were fast livers. Those old English Kings got sick.

One disease became so common to them as to be called "King's evil"—a royal disease. It is now among us—the well known scrofula. Those old English Kings handed it down, spread it through the nations, and here it is.
Too bad Scott's Emulsion was not made in time for those Kings. Scott's Emulsion is a positive cure for King's evil—or scrofula. It heals the sores, adds strength and flesh and brings good health.

THE ROLL OF HONOR

Report of the Army Board Containing Names of Those Worthy of Distinction—Medals of Honor and Certificates of Merit.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Adjutant-General Corbin today made public the report of the Army Board of which General MacArthur was president, appointed to consider and report the names of officers and enlisted men of the Army who distinguished themselves during the recent campaigns in Cuba, China and the Philippines, so as to entitle them to the award either of medals of honor or certificates of merit. The officers recommended for brevet rank for especially meritorious services during the same campaigns will be nominated to the Senate by the President in the regular way.

As has been stated, President Roosevelt has approved all the recommendations made by the MacArthur board for awards of brevet, medals of honor and certificates of merit, with the exception of the recommendation that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt be given the brevet-rank of Brigadier-General for valor and services at the battle of San Juan Hill. The list of brevets will be made public when it is sent to the Senate.

Medals of honor will be awarded by thirty-three cases, of which ten go to commissioned officers and twenty-three to noncommissioned officers and privates.
