

BUSY DAY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Three Criminal Cases Tried Before Judge Barnett

THIRTY-SIX JURORS LOCKED UP TO DELIBERATE ON VERDICTS AT ONE TIME.

The Jury in the W. R. Smith Stabbing Affray Was Out Nearly All Day Without Rendering a Verdict—Two Men Tried for Stealing a Coat.

(From Saturday's Statesman.)

Yesterday was a busy time in the State Circuit Court for Marion county, Department No. 1, and at one time three juries—thirty-six men—were locked up deliberating on verdicts.

At 9 o'clock a. m. when the court convened, the taking of testimony in the case of the state against W. R. Smith, the Silverton stabbing affray, was continued, and at 10 o'clock, the testimony being in, the case was argued by the attorneys. It was 11:20 before the judge concluded his instructions to the jury, and the latter retired to deliberate upon a verdict, and the jurors remained in their room all day, being unable to agree. The jury consists of J. L. Steiwer, Alex. Dawson, M. A. Barber, D. H. Looney, T. W. Rutherford, John Brock, F. A. Mangold, O. E. Thompson, J. B. Seeley, S. W. Jones, C. L. Weaver, Frank Smith. At 6 o'clock last evening the court called out the jury, and ascertaining that no verdict had been reached, Sheriff F. W. Durbin was instructed to take the men to supper and afterwards to return them and lock them up for further deliberation.

At 1 p. m. the case of the State vs. John Daly and Frank Smith, was called. These men were accused of stealing an overcoat from a room in the Salem lodging house, on Christmas Eve, 1921. The men had demanded separate trials, and the case of John Daly being chosen to try the case: Newton Cook, J. L. Calvert, M. A. Wade, N. Mickel, Frank Wade, B. E. Gesner, Chas. Long, W. R. Townsend, H. J. Workman, L. D. Kelly, L. C. Cavanaugh, W. M. Murphy.

The case consumed several hours of the court's time, and a searching investigation was made into it. The defendant claimed he was a tailor and had worked at Vancouver Barracks for a time, whence he went to Portland, and came to Salem by steamer a few days before Christmas. On Christmas he and his partner were arrested charged with stealing the coat. He claimed he had bought the coat from a stranger. The state showed that the defendant testified to a different story from the one told at the preliminary hearing. At 3:30 o'clock the jury was charged and retired, and as the regular jury room was occupied by the twelve men deliberating on the verdict in the W. R. Smith stabbing case, the attorney's room in the northwest corner of the building was used for the jury.

The case against Frank Smith, on the same charge, was called immediately after the Daly jury retired, and as the regular jury venire was nearly exhausted, a special venire was called and the following twelve men were sworn in to try the case: Jon. Bennett, F. B. Dayton, Ed Jory, Charles Benson, Walter D. Low, D. T. Fitts, W. T. Stolz, H. W. Barry, O. H. Fay, Fred W. Steusloff, Robert Downing, James Vaughn.

The testimony in this case did not differ much from that of the preceding trial, and at 5:30 the jury retired to deliberate upon a verdict, they being given quarters in the old Grand Jury room, adjoining the court room.

The jury in this case reached an agreement in about two hours, and returned a verdict into court, finding defendant guilty as charged.

In the W. R. Smith case S. L. Hayden and W. H. Holmes represented the defendant, while E. C. Judd appeared for the two defendants in the last two cases, and District Attorney J. N. Hart and Deputy John H. McNary appeared for the state in all three cases.

Sheriff F. W. Durbin and Deputy Sheriff B. B. Colbath were both sworn in to act as bailiffs, as the two regular men had more juries on their hands than they could conveniently handle.

ORATORICAL CONTEST AT WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Resulted in the Selection of Mr. Wilkins as the Representative of the School in the Coming State Contest.

The local oratorical contest at the Willamette University, last night, drew a large crowd of the friends of the "old school," as well as the students in large numbers, the occasion being the try-out of the orators of "Old Willamette," the victor to be chosen to represent the University in the state oratorical contest to be held in this city next month.

There were three contestants for the honors, R. B. Wilkins, whose subject was "The Spirit of Progress; Miss Sophia E. Townsend, with "The Maker of History" as her subject, while W. E. Keyes discussed "Arnold, the Traitor." The work of all three was excellent, and thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all present. "The Spirit of Progress," by Mr. Wilkins, was given first place by the judges, and that gentleman was consequently the choice of the University for its representative in the state contest.

The musical numbers of the evening's entertainment were all excellent, and the audience enjoyed the entire program to the full.

Scrofula THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAINT.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and oftentimes white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seale, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and burst. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

SSS makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage. Send for our free book and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge whatever for medical advice. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

tar was tonight chosen the representative of the Agricultural College, in the state oratorical contest, to occur at Salem next month.

A Wretched Millionaire. The story is told of the owner of several railroads who was unable to buy relief from the nerve-twisting agony of neuralgia. It is an unlikely tale. The sick man must have known that Perry Davis' Painkiller would help him at once, as it has helped so many thousands of sufferers in the past sixty years. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

REGISTER TO VOTE

THE WORK OF LISTING THE ELECTORS BY COUNTY CLERK

Is Proceeding Slowly on Account of the Apparent Indifference of the Voters—All Are Urged to Call and Register.

(From Saturday's Statesman.)

The work of registering the voters is being carried on very slowly and although there remains about three months in which one can register it seems the better policy to attend to the matter at the present time instead of putting it off until the last hour or minute and run the risk of getting into a rush and being shut out as was the case with many before. Up to last evening 527 voters had been registered an increase of one more than 100 over the previous day. This, of course, applies only to those who have registered in the county clerk's department in this city and it is a very difficult matter to make even a rough estimate of the number of registrations throughout the county, as outfits have been sent to every precinct in the county except those in the immediate vicinity of Salem and it is quite probable that there is better progress being made in the outside precincts than in those of the city and vicinity. As evidence of this W. Scott Taylor who has charge of the registration of the voters of Gervais precinct informed the Statesman about a week ago that he had, up to that date registered an even 100, which is no doubt the banner precinct of the county. Salem No. 2 precinct up to last evening has registered 102 voters, being far in the lead of any precinct in the city or neighborhood, Englewood being second with 56 registrations.

County Clerk Hall is very anxious to have the work finished at the earliest possible date, and is so anxious that every voter he registered that he requests anyone who knows of a voter who through illness or infirmity will not be able to come to the office to register, will kindly call at his office and leave that person's name and address he will call upon him in person before the books close and see that he is properly registered. The registrations by precincts, as shown by the books in the clerk's department up to last evening, follow:

Aumsville 3, Aurora 1, Brettenbush 1, Brooks 13, Butteville 3, Elkhorn 4, Englewood 56, Fairfield 3, Gervais 1, Horeb 2, Howell 5, Hubbard 1, Macleay 12, Marion 3, Mehama 1, Mt. Angel 5, Prospect 27, Salem No. 1, 49; Salem No. 2, 103; Salem No. 3, 41; Salem No. 4, 45; Salem (East), 22; Salem (North), 20; Salem (South), 22; Scotts Mills 1, Sidney 14, Silver Falls 1, Silverton 3, Silverton (South), 3, Silverton (North), 1, St. Paul 2, Stayton 4, Sublimity 7, Turner 25, Woodburn 2, Yew Park 22—527.

A GYMNASIUM.—The officers and clerks at the state house have fitted up a gymnasium in the old State Library, where, after business hours, many of them spend an hour in taking exercise and enjoying sport of handball, basketball, etc. They are much taken up with this new departure and find the taking of the exercise most healthful. They are now industriously practicing basketball, and expect to challenge all the good teams of the state for contests in another week or ten days.

LITTLE CHANGE IN LOCAL GRAIN CIRCLES

The Local Price is Still Fifty-two Cents a Bushel—Uncertainty is Existing as to What the Season Will Prove to Be.

The local wheat market is, and has been for the past few weeks, very quiet with little or no change in the price. The Eastern and foreign markets have been in a somewhat disturbed and fluctuating condition, but no particular influence has been made upon the local market and the price, 52 cents per bushel, has been maintained steadily although millers have been obliged to pay from 1 to 1½ cents in excess of that price in order to secure material on which to run. A letter from the firm of George Morrow & Co., of San Francisco, defines the condition of the market in that district and the world generally. It follows:

"Market conditions are somewhat peculiar. The showery weather of the present week has been added to the uncertainty heretofore existing as to what the season would prove to be, and while showers have been frequent, we have not been favored with anything approaching an old-fashioned southeast rain storm. The light rains we have had, have of course tended to keep the crops alive, but there is great need of a heavy soaking rain, not only to bring relief to the minds of the farmers, but to stimulate business generally throughout the state.

"The decided drop in the price of foreign freights within the past month has had a natural tendency to advance the price of wheat and, at this writing, shippers are fairly free buyers at our quotations."

JEFFERSON WILL HAVE A BANKING INSITUION.

All Arrangements Completed for the Enterprise, and It Will Be Launched Soon—Farmers Will Appreciate the New Venture.

Jefferson, Or., Feb. 14.—Editor Statesman: It has been an open secret here for several days that the wide-awake town of Jefferson is soon to have opened in its midst a banking establishment, which fact makes the business people of this place feel especially jubilant, as it means that much other business will follow as a result. Mr. J. A. Appert, of the Jefferson flouring mills, is one of the prime movers in the matter, and will have associated with him Mr. E. W. Hazard, who will act as cashier of the bank. Mr. Hazard spent several weeks here, and finally decided to cast his fortunes with Marion county. He has canvassed all the business men and most of the farmers round about, all of whom have agreed to support the bank with their good will and patronage. Mr. Hazard was for many years cashier of an Iowa bank, where he was most successful, and made a good record as a straight business man. Some local capital has been secured to take an interest in the enterprise, and it is expected that a good business will be worked up. All farmers selling wheat and other produce here will appreciate being able to get their cash instead of checks and orders as in the past, and it is thought this fact will be a considerable advantage to all the business interests of the place. The capital stock will probably be $20,000 to begin with, but this may be increased as the business demands.

NEGRO IS CAUGHT

ESCAPED PRISONER WAS FREE JUST THREE HOURS

When He Was Picked Up by an Oregon City Officer on the Road Near That Place—Deputy Sheriffs Thielsen and Matthews Were Near Him, and on His Trail.

(From Saturday's Statesman.)

Frank Jackson, alias George Gray, the negro convict, who escaped from R. M. Thompson, near New Era on Thursday evening, by jumping off the train, was captured near Oregon City, on the road leading into the town, about four hours after his sensational escape. He had wandered around until about 9 o'clock, when he struck the road leading toward Oregon City. He came face to face with Henry Cooke, brother of Sheriff Cooke, of Clackamas county, and realizing the futility of running gave up without a struggle. Deputy Sheriff Thielsen, of Portland, was within a quarter of a mile, watching the same road, and had Jackson dodged Henry Cooke he would have fallen into Mr. Thielsen's hands. It seems Jackson did not hear the officer coming until they were face to face. He undertook to pass Cooke, hoping to be taken for an ordinary pedestrian. As he approached the officer halted him and ordered him to hold out his hands. The negro complied, and there were the steel bracelets, and Jackson's freedom had again vanished. In the meantime men had been stationed on all the roads, and the escape could not have gotten away by any of them.

Deputy Sheriff H. W. Thielsen brought the negro to the penitentiary last night, and saw the fellow safely placed behind the bars. In telling of his escape and capture the negro said: "After I got on the train I began to think of jumping from the train. I looked for a good place, and when we reached a timbered country, I thought my chance had come. Thompson was looking the other way and I made a run for the door. He started, but I had the lead, and jumped before he reached the platform. I landed in a pool of water, waist high, but scrambled out and went into the wood.

"They backed up the train, but as they could not see me, pulled out again. They were within 100 yards of where I was lying in the brush, and I thought once they had me. After the train left I tried to climb the bluff, and even tried to ford the river, but did not succeed. Then I walked in the timber, thinking I would strike for Portland and get some tramp or colored man to file off the cuffs. I finally struck a road and started for Oregon City. It was on a clay road and I did not hear Cooke coming, or I would have hid. When I saw him I knew it was best to walk along, for if he was after me he would get me anyway, and if not, it would be all the better. He halted me, and here I am."

TWO PATIENTS.—Henry Seidmann, a native of Germany, 50 years of age, was brought to the Insane Asylum from Portland last evening, by Deputy Sheriff John Stiles. Dick Deneyck, a native of Missouri, 41 years of age, was also received at the Insane Asylum, having been conducted there by Sheriff J. J. Cooke of Clackamas county, and one guard.

IS RECOVERING.—Attorney General D. R. N. Blackburn, who has been seriously ill at his home, with typhoid fever, is much improved, and though still very weak, his recovery is now confidently expected by his family.

NO INTEREST IS ALLOWED

To E. C. Giltner and Phil Metschan by Circuit Court

JUDGE BOISE HOLDS MONIES DEPOSITED BY THE MEN IN WILLIAMS & ENGLAND BANK.

Belonged to the State and Interest Can Not Be Recovered—E. J. Swafford and Gen. W. H. Odell Not Included in This Order.

(From Saturday's Statesman.)

In the matter of the objections of Ladd & Bush to the allowance of the claims of Edmund C. Giltner, Philip Metschan, J. A. Baker and W. H. Odell for interest upon certain principals deposited with the insolvent corporation, The Williams & England Banking Co., defendant in the receivership suit, wherein J. A. Baker is plaintiff, which was tried in department No. 2 of the Circuit Court on February 1, 1922, Judge E. P. Boise yesterday filed his decision.

The court based its rulings in sustaining the objections of Ladd & Bush to the claims of E. C. Giltner, agent, and Philip Metschan, Treasurer, and Philip Metschan, in its findings of fact and conclusions of law, upon its finding that the consideration and basis of the claim of Edmund C. Giltner, agent, for the principal sum of $25,000, was the funds of the State of Oregon improperly deposited with and loaned to the defendant, corporation for interest; contrary to the laws of the State of Oregon, and that Edmund C. Giltner at the time of the presentment of the claim was acting for and in behalf of Philip Metschan, and not for himself, and that Metschan was the State Treasurer of Oregon at the time the $25,000 was received and deposited with the defendant. It also states that Philip Metschan, Treasurer, is not entitled to interest upon the sum of $8613.60, and Philip Metschan is not entitled to interest upon the sum of $789.73, for the reason that he was state treasurer at the time the deposit was made and that the principals were state funds improperly deposited and not subject to interest. The objections to the claims of J. A. Baker, E. J. Swafford and W. H. Odell were overruled. The order, as made by the court, was in substance, as follows:

"Based upon the findings of fact and the conclusions of law it is ordered that the objections to the payment of interest out of the funds of the said estate upon the claims of E. C. Giltner, agent, for the sum of $25,000; Philip Metschan, treasurer, for the sums of $8613.60 and $789.73, be and the same are hereby sustained, and the objections to the payment of interest from the funds of the estate upon the claims of E. J. Swafford for the sum of $7349.33 and W. H. Odell for the sum of $5047.27, be and the same are hereby overruled; and that the objections to the payment of any claims which have the express contract for the payment of interest are hereby overruled. And it is further ordered, that J. A. Baker, as the assignee of the claim of E. J. Swafford and W. H. Odell, and all other claimants having proved claims against the estate of the defendant upon contracts express or implied, for the payment of money by the defendant, but have no express agreement for the payment of interest thereon are entitled to receive from the funds of the estate interest at 8 per cent from July 3, 1896, upon the face of their claims to the date of the first payment thereon, and upon the balance remaining unpaid after the application of each of the several dividends heretofore made to the payment of the principal of the claim.

"That the receiver make a computation of the amount of interest that may be due to each of the claimants according to the terms of this order and report the same to the court, together with the amount of funds now in his hands applicable toward the payment of the interest for the further order of the court thereon."

The total amount of interest due upon all the claims filed, approved and allowed by the court, amounts to about the sum of $17,000, but excluding any interest on account of the claims of E. C. Giltner, agent, Philip Metschan, treasurer, and Philip Metschan, the interest due will amount to about the sum of $11,580.83, and it appears from the petition of the receiver that there will not be more than the sum of $7,000 of the estate applicable to the payment of the estate.
